SPORTS

BASEBALL FIELD DAY ON SUNDAY

The C. A. C-Palms game is off for Sunday and, instead, there will be a baseball field day, in which the Coast players will be pitted against the Hawaiian boys. Prizes will be put up for various events. The program will probably be:

1. Circling the bases; fastest time.
2. Beating out a bunt to first base.
3. Long-distance throwing.
4. Throwing for accuracy.

Prizes will be offered for the different events and a very interesting program will be served the fans, who would like to see such lads as En Sue, Fernandez and Hampton sprint against the fast Coast men, and Leslie and Reuter throwing the ball against the strong-armed Spalding boys.

The sports here will be even more exciting than the local ones. The Spaldings in a field day.

Every day the interest in the coming games between the Spalding club and the two local teams is growing. If the advance sale of seats is any indication, the crowd Sunday will be a record-breaker. Walter Doyle is kept busy at Gunst-Eakin's cigar store dishing out the choice card-boards.

Both the All-Hawaii and the St. Louis teams have been out to practice and they have shown good form. The Saints will present a strong lineup and will play all St. Louis players with the exception of Leslie, who is a Diamond Head boy. They need him to strengthen their pitching department.

Everyone looks to see the Saints make a good showing on Tuesday and the chances are that they will. The team has been playing together long enough to have clever team work. The Spaldings will get two good benefit games and should make some coin.

REDUCED PRICES FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

Students from Oahu College, St. Louis, High School and every other educational institution in the city will be allowed to see the big game of ball between the St. Louis team and the Spaldings on Tuesday for the small admission of 15 cents. There are many of these youngsters who cannot afford 25 cents but who are willing to pay 15 cents. It is expected that a thousand or more of them will take advantage of the offer and be on hand to cheer the St. Louis team.

RED DOG JOSHES BRITT

Just before the Claudine pulled out with the ball-players on board the other day "Red Dog" Devereaux sprang a good one on Jimmy Britt, the fighter.

"Jim, when we get back from Hilo Manager Church of the Seaside Hotel is going to give us a swell masquerade ball. Great business—yes," said Devereaux.

"Say, that's great! What you going as, Bill?"

"Don't know yet," answered Bill, "but I will give you a tip. You just go as a prize-fighter, Jimmy, and you will need no make-up."

Of course it was on Jim, and he promised to uncock something when they reached Hilo.
