

School Days Are Coming Soon

Some New Arrivals Per S.S. Manchuria

New double width

Veiling

In dotted NETS and CHIFFONS. All colors.

The new Fillet Square Mesh Nets. Plain and figured. Just the idea for Ladies' Waists and Gowns.

A large assortment of the latest fancy

Beltings

ELASTIC BELTS in black, white, and navy.

Gauntlet Driving Gloves

"Dog Skin" in tans and brown.

INVISIBLE

Collar Supports

A set of 6 for 5c.

MOTHERS—YOU will have to look around for school supplies for the little ones soon. We can supply you with the best at the lowest prices.

Children's School Hats

White, plain colors, and fancy plaids; all new; 75c $1.00 $1.50 to $3.50.

Ladies' Lustre Skirts

Black and black with white stripes. Plain and embroidered ruffles. Very pretty. Look like silk, $1.75 $2.00 $2.50 and $2.75.

Children's Hose

Black cotton; good quality; 3 pairs for 50c 20c 25c and 35c a pair.

Children's black ribbed lisle hose; fine quality; 40c and 50c a pair.

Children's tan and white cotton ribbed hose. 35c a pair

Misses' black and white lisle hose, 50c a pair.

A FULL LINE OF CHILDREN'S AND MISSES'

Underwear

Some New Arrivals Per S.S. Manchuria

WHITE LINEN

Embroidered Parasols

$2.50 $2.75 $3.50 $4.50 and $6.00.

THE CELEBRATED

De Bevoise Bust Supporters

in all sizes, 50c and $1.00.

De Bevoise

Combination Bust Supporter and Drawers, $3.00.

LADIES' EMBROIDERED MUSLIN

and LAWN GOWNS "White"

THE VERY LATEST.

See Display in Our Beretania Street Window.

N. S. Sachs Dry Goods Co. Ltd.

CORNER FORT and BERETANIA.

SOCIAL CHATTER AND HOME TALK

IT WAS essentially a fashionable audience which assembled at the Opera House on Saturday evening to listen to the program which had been so carefully prepared. It was in aid of the hyper settlement in order that they might have a moving-picture machine.

Madame Arrol sang beautifully and accompanied the quick changes of costume in an incredibly short time considering the elaborate dressing required. "Ophele" or "Mignon," she was equally at home in either part, and the full, rich tones which greeted the ear were listened to with the keenest attention. She was engaged several times. It was fortunate indeed for Madame to have Captain Berger as accompanist. No one else could essay the difficult music, for time and care must be bestowed upon the delicate rendering. His mastery over the piano we all know and his kindness in helping others in time of need. Everybody listened spellbound to Rimoldo's act. His wonderful $1,200.00 Amati seemed to live in his hands—and it was an additional pleasure to listen to this artist, who knows so well how to play upon the human emotions. He was enthusiastically encored, and in the Polacca received an ovation and certainly shared the honors with Madame Arrol. Mrs. Charles Cooper's obligato was handled in a finished manner and she looked very handsome, her pink satin Directoire being most becoming. Mrs. Sidney Ballou, in a white toilette, gave a selection from Chopin. She showed a thorough understanding of the difficult scherzo. Her technique is admirable and she carried a fine command over every tinge of expression. The injury which she received to her arm some time ago did not interfere in the least with her performance. The duet which was played by Madame Hurez and Madame Menaut was listened to with pleasure. The Kawalaha Church chorus can certainly sing, and their fresh voices were most enjoyable.

"Art Versus Cupid," Ella Wheeler Wilcox' little sketch, in the hands of Mrs. F. H. Humphris assisted by Frances Farrington, was a most artistic number. Mrs. Humphris wore a white liberty satin Empire frock, the bodice being outlined in pearls and brilliants; a white satin band encircled her beautifully profiled head. She was exquisitely pretty and noted with a grace and charm all her own. Frances Farrington, aged six, was a most adorable Cupid. She took the part as though she enjoyed it, and made a pleasing picture. Flow-ers were sent up over the footlights for both the actresses.

Miss Nannie Winston gave a large party and there were many other well-known society women present. The patronesses included Mrs. W. F. Frear, Mrs. S. M. Damon, Mrs. F. M. Swamy, Mrs. Ralph G. E. Forster, Mrs. Sam Parker, Mrs. J. R. Galt, Mrs. F. A. Schaefer, Mrs. H. Forke, Mrs. E. D. Tenney, Mrs. S. M. Ballou, Mrs. F. H. Humphris, Mrs. J. S. McGrew, Mrs. C. B. Cooper, Mrs. A. J. Campbell, Mrs. A. A. Young, Mrs. G. P. Wilder, Mrs. Geo. Castle, Mrs. J. M. Dowsett, Mrs. A. G. Hawes Jr., Mrs. R. F. Lange, Mrs. A. Wall, Mrs. C. S. Holloway.

Mrs. Robert Lange, whose husband is Belgian Consul, took an active part in getting up the concert.

Ball at Moana.

The ball at the Moana Hotel on Wednesday evening given by a committee of ladies, was an unqualified success. Previous to the affair, Captain Berger and his musicians occupied the spaces around the hau tree and gave a delightful concert. The dining-room was gay with little dinners and the quintet were in their gallery and played throughout the dinner. Among the dinner guests were Mrs. Frost, who entertained, Mr. and Mrs. Watson, Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Humphris and Mr. Robert Shingle. The table looked very pretty with an artistic arrangement of pink magnolias. Captain and Mrs. Robinson were also entertaining Judge and Mrs. Sidney Ballou. Mrs. Robinson was here winter before last and received much attention from the local Army officers. She is better known here as Mrs. Buxby, having recently married the gallant and handsome Captain of the Tennessee. Mrs. Robinson always wears exquisite clothes, and on Wednesday night her Paquin frock of white lace over satin, with its clinging lines, was very much admired. She is looking extremely well. Miss Nannie Winston looking handsome in white lace with touches of black, entertained a small number of guests, and there were many Navy officers and their wives and sweethearts enjoying cozy little tete-a-tetes. The ball began about nine and the dining-room was utilized for the occasion. The upper lanai, with its little tables filled with beautifully dressed guests, was a pleasing sight and the lower lanai was crowded always. There was a predominance of the younger set—naturally, with all these Middles and Lieutenants about—who danced until a late hour. The Society Set was well represented and also gaily danced with the officers, who looked as though they were having a good time. To watch an experienced Navy officer talking to a pretty woman is an education in the gentle art of flirtation. Many preferred this amusement to dancing, and contributed just as much amusement to the onlookers as their more strenuous neighbors. Mrs. Elizabeth Church, the new Social Manager of the three Alexander Young Hotels, performed her duties quietly and unobtrusively, winning golden opinions always. Among those seen and heard were Governor and Mrs. Walter Frear, who looked in rather late from the Rees dinner; Secretary of Territory Ernest Mott-Smith and Mrs. Mott-Smith, Miss Paty, Mrs. F. H. Humphris, Judge and Mrs. Ballou, Mrs. Edward Tenney, Mrs. Alice Hastings, Captain Meyers, Miss Tenney, Captain and Mrs. Wodehouse, Mr. Walter Dillingham, Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse, Mrs. Boedefeld, Lieut. Comdr. and Mrs. Offley, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Babbitt, Mr. and Mrs. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Henshall, Miss Edith Smith, Captain and Mrs. Andrew Fuller, Mrs. Philip Andrews, Mrs. B. Griggs Holt, Miss Alice Cooper, Misses Ethel and Alice Spalding, Misses Roth, Miss Musset, Miss Lorna Lauka, Misses Waldron, Mr. and Mrs. Waldron, Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Jr., Dr. Cofer, Dr. Higgins, Mr. Robert Shingle, Dr. and Mrs. McCullom, Mrs. Angus, the Misses Angus, Mrs. Laura Wight, Miss Laura Wight, Miss Helen Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ross, Miss Kopke, Mrs. McGrew, Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Brainerd Smith, Misses Cotton, Mr. H. R. Macfarlane Jr., Count von S. Domkowitz, Miss Skelly, Mrs. Seyde, Miss Seyde, Miss Winston, Mr. Richard Wright, Mr. Will Roth, and many others.

Birthdays.

Miss Helen Judd, so beloved of everybody, has been a guest at the Halewa Hotel for the past few months. A happy birthday party was celebrated in her honor on the 27th of August. The lanai was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and the Halewa Quintet Club rendered their sweetest selections for the entire afternoon. Congratulations were bestowed upon Miss Judd by a contingent of relatives and friends. Among those present were Governor and Mrs. Geo. R. Carter, Misses Castle (2), Misses Achilles (2), Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Galt, Mrs. W. W. Goodale, Mrs. J. M. Steel, Mrs. A. Hanneberg, Mrs. Fred. Williams, Mrs. Mason Mitchell, Misses Galt.

The Sisters of Carmel, or the Carmelite Order, as they are also known, will open a home in San Francisco, and in no less a place than the ample residence of the widow of the late Robert Louis Stevenson at the north-west corner of Hyde and Lombard streets, overlooking the bay. The beautiful home of Mrs. Stevenson passed through two hands within the past month, and when the first announcement was made that it had been sold it was believed the buyer, Miss Eugenie Peyton, would occupy it. The new owner did not make public the deed by recording it until last Thursday, when she filed a deed dated July 29th, by which she conveyed the Stevenson mansion and its large gardens to Mrs. Alice Phelan Sullivan, the wife of Francis J. Sullivan. On the same date, it transpired, Mrs. Sullivan leased the premises to Most Rev. P. W. Riordan, Archbishop of San Francisco, for the use of the Sisters of Carmel. Then it became known that Miss Peyton merely acted in the matter to expedite the purchase. The lot extends northward from the corner of Lombard street 137 feet and 6 inches, and has a greatest depth of 97 feet 6 inches, being irregularly formed on its western side. Precisely what Mrs. Sullivan has done beyond giving the lease is not known, but it is due to her generosity that provision has been made for the establishment of the Carmelite Order in this city. About a year ago Miss Ada Sullivan, a daughter of Mrs. Sullivan, renounced the world, and became a Carmelite sister in Boston, Mass. The Carmelite sisters have put a few houses in the United States—one in Boston, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New Orleans. The life work of the Sisters of Carmel is contemplation and prayer. The ladies never appear without heavy veils, and they meet callers at their house behind iron gratings, where they themselves are not seen. So they are shut off absolutely through their own volition from the world, and they find happiness in devotions and constant prayer. Yet they give part of their days to painting religious articles and cultivating small plots in their gardens. In their mode of living they are humble and ascetic to a last degree. Their day begins at a very early hour, when they rise for a matins and prayer. They have no servants, for they do their own washing, mending, cooking and cleaning, and live by alms. Their beds are straw, bare floors and rooms with but a crucifix on the walls to break the monotony of their cells. A rigid rule of their order is that they must never taste meat, so they live on vegetables and milk. When they die they are buried in straw by their own community.

Miss Nannie Winston is busily greeting her friends, for since her arrival from the Orient on Friday, she has had a constant stream of visitors. The dinner given by her at the Moana Hotel on Sunday evening in honor of her friend, Mrs. Blaney of Hongkong, was a delightful affair. Exorlias graced the center of the table, the huge crimson blossoms making a graceful effect. The guests included Doctor and Mrs. F. H. Humphris, Mrs. C. W. Case-Deering, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Jr., Governor Cleghorn, Count von S. Domkowitz, and Mr. Robert Shingle.

Mrs. Alexander Lindsay Jr. and her daughter Ella expect to sail today for Yokohama, accompanied by her sister, Miss Kate Young, sailed most unexpectedly for the Coast in the Lurline, to be gone six or seven months. Mrs. Lindsay and sister have been on Kaula for several weeks and have only just returned to Honolulu. Mrs. Lindsay only had a few hours' notice that she could depart in the Lurline and immediately took advantage of the opportunity rather than wait for an uncertain passage in a later steamer. She did not even have a chance to bid her many friends "Good-bye," much to her regret.

Mr. Raymond de B. Layard, who arrived this week from England, is being extensively entertained. Mrs. Layard did not accompany him and she will remain in England with the children until their education is completed, making only a short visit to Manila, where her husband is Consul General, during the interim. Mr. Layard is the guest of Judge and Mrs. Stanley on upper Fort street.

Mrs. B. Griggs Holt, nee Jessie Forman, arrived this week from the East, where she has been visiting with her husband. Mr. Holt will join her here en route for the Orient, where he represents the Pacific Mail, at Shanghai. Mrs. Holt is the guest of the J. S. Walkers.

Mrs. Laura Wight and her daughter Ella expect to sail today for Yokohama, where they will meet Miss Leslie Wight, who has been in Eureka for the Coast in the Lurline, to and her two daughters will remain in Yokohama until after the Fleet arrives there.

Mrs. George C. Perkins returned on Monday on the Manchuria after a visit to Honolulu. Society is looking forward to the marriage of her daughter, Fanny, and Cleveland Baker, which will probably be an event of the early winter.—The Call.

She worked with a will, and its success is due to her efforts, assisted by Mrs. Charles Cooper, who also labored hard for the success of the affair.

Rear Admiral Cogswell was well known in Honolulu, and often visited here. He was the brother-in-law of Judge Francis M. Hatch.

Mrs. Francis Swamy and daughter are at the ranch house at Koolau and will not return to Honolulu until Monday.

Miss Nannie Winston is spending the week-end with the Princess Kawananakoa at her mother's Peninsula place.

Mrs. Clifford Wood and family returned to town this week after a very pleasant outing across the Paik.

Mrs. Ballentyne and family, who have been sojourning also across the Paik, return to town on Monday.

ROYCROFT PHILOSOPHY

BY FRA ELBERTUS

Written in a sincere and kindly desire to help the young who do not know, and the older ones who sometimes forget

Employees should be dignified in deportment, and not wrestle, hug, trip, jostle. These things all make an impression on customers, and a bad impression.

Keep away from gambling-rooms, pool-rooms and all places where you would not care for your employer to see you—or have you see him.

There are valuable positions always opening up in any progressive concern. Be ready to be promoted. Promotions go straight to the cheery, intelligent worker.

Don't throw waste paper and refuse on the floor—baskets are provided for rubbish. Be very careful never to leave oily waste in rubbish baskets or on the floor—put such in metal cans and see that the cover is on. Spontaneous combustion is a common cause of fire.

Above all in writing letters never show resentment or anger. The letter lives long after the cause of the offense is forgotten. To write to a distant friend a give-away on the house—a grand call-down—is an error that is paid for every day in tears. The number of such letters posted in company envelopes, that are mis-directed and come back for the proprietor to read, is enormous. No one knows why these scandalous letters are usually directed to Chicago when the writer meant they should go to San Francisco. If you are going to defame your employer, never do it on his time or stationery.

If asked for information, be sure you have it before you give it. Do not assume that the location or fact is so now because you once knew it so. Don't misdirect. Make your directions so clear that they will be a real help.

And for the same good reason keep your personal callers, personal letters, personal matters, thoughts, and states of mind away from the post of duty.

Never use the office telephone as a gossiping convenience. If your duties are to 'phone, say what is to be said quietly, intelligently, and briefly. There are houses that are known by their courteous telephoning. Loss of temper at a 'phone gains nothing. Telephone courtesy is a great thing, as courtesy always it.

Last Week Kerr's Sale