JAPAN WILL NOT FIGHT UNCLE SAM

An exceedingly interesting and instructive address on the relations of Japan and the United States was given before the Ministerial Union this forenoon by Rev. J. H. De Forrest, D.D., a Christian worker of thirty-four years standing in Japan, whose intimate acquaintance with most of that country's foremost military men and diplomats places him in a position to speak with authority.

The speaker brought out very strongly the point that Japan feels more friendly towards the United States than towards any other nation, not even excepting her ally, England, and that the rumors that Japan was contemplating war against America were absurd. The reason for Japan's friendship he gave as follows: the fact that Commodore Perry opened Japan peacefully, while any other nation under similar circumstances would have used force; the magnificent line of diplomats who had been maintained by the United States at Tokio, where they had often prevented other powers from taking aggressive steps; the fact that thousands of Japanese who had been educated in the United States, felt friendly towards that country on account of kindly treatment received there; that the United States was the only country which had ever returned an indemnity to Japan; the sympathy shown by the United States during the war with Russia; the prompt relief which came from the United States during the time of famine which succeeded the war; and finally because the United States was the first nation to recognize the right of Japan in Korea.

Dr. De Forrest spoke strongly on the attacks made by Representative Hobson on Japan. "I was amazed at the defuge of malicious slander circulated against Japan," he said, "especially were the attacks of Hobson the silliest nonsense, ignorance and slander. I undertook to punish him, and I think I did, only he is so thickskinned that I do not think he felt it."

"There will be no treacherous step taken by Japan against the Philippines," said Dr. De Forrest in conclusion. "You could not induce Japan to make a hostile move against Hawaii. They want us to have the Philippines and would hate to have any other nation have them. As far as Japan is concerned it is of no use to build naval stations and fortifications in our insular possessions."

WILL OPEN CAMPAIGN

Lucas Will Preside
The meeting will be opened by Chairman A. L. C. Atkinson of the Territorial Central Committee, who will introduce Jack Lucas, who by presiding will show that he has no hard feelings against the party, even though he did not come out victorious in the race for the Mayoralty.

"We will show that the Republican party is not disrupted," said Chairman Judd of the County Committee in this connection. "Notwithstanding former internal differences it is now putting forward a united front."

Party That Does
One of the most interesting speeches of the evening will be delivered by E. A. Douthitt, candidate for the House, who will speak on the work done by the Republican party in the past, showing it as the party which does, and not as the party which promises. He will urge the audience to vote the straight Republican ticket.

Lane will outline his own position, in order to put a quietus to the rumors which have from time to time been circulated about him, and Kuhio will make a speech, the subject of which has not been given the County Committee so far. The other speakers will be Charlie Chillingworth, John Hughes, Stephen Desha, John Wise, Sol. Kaleopu, and W. T. Rawlins.

Music will be furnished by the Kai Club.

Waianae All Republican
From the country districts come reports of big Republican rallies. Waianae is enthusiastically Republican, states Harry Holt, who was visiting down there over Sunday. A big meeting was held Saturday night, with Kupau as chairman. The following speakers were heard: Mapu, Kailiha, Judge Kekahu, Leloa, Kaala, and George Maluna, the popular candidate for Deputy Sheriff. Maluna seems to have the edge over his rival at present. The Waianae band was out in all its glory at the meeting, and made things lively with stirring music.

Last Saturday night the Democrats went down to Ewa, Wai'alua, and Laie to speak to the voters there. At Wai'alua the Democratic candidate for Mayor, Joseph Fern, was greeted warmly and loaded up with leis. Those who addressed the meeting there were Fern, Frank R. Harvey, Joseph Kuhia, Judge Edings, and John Emmeluth. At Ewa J. C. Anderson, H. T. Moore, Dan Kamahu, Lapana Keawepooole, and Ed. Loke addressed an orderly meeting. At Laie, where the Home Rulers had gathered to hear the report of the Home Rule delegates to their convention, Wm. Jarrett, E. M. Watson, R. H. Trent, J. K. Paole, Apuakehau, and Jno. Prendergast did the speaking. According to the Democrats the Home Rulers announced that they would vote for good men regardless of party. The Democrats returned at midnight.

Home Rulers and Laborites
Tonight the Home Rulers and Laborites will hold three separate meetings. At Kaili camp the meeting will be presided over by Wm. Reuter. The speakers will be Chas. J. Broad, D. Damlana, Ben Poepeo, R. W. Davis, J. M. Poepeo, George C. Beckley, H. C. Vida, Chas. K. Notley, S. K. Mahoe, J. Kahahawai, A. K. Kekai, J. Mskainai, and J. M. Kealoha. On School street, corner of Liliha, D. Kalaokalani Sr. will be the chairman. The speakers will be: H. C. Vida, J. M. Kealoha, J. Mskainai, S. K. Mahoe, C. K. Notley, Kaulukukui, J. Kahahawai, R. W. Davis, A. K. Kekai, D. Damlana, Ben Poepeo, J. M. Poepeo, and Chas. J. Broad. Down at Kewalo, where another Home Rule-Laborite meeting will be held, D. W. Mahuahuia will officiate. The speakers will be George C. Beckley, J. M. Poepeo, C. K. Notley, A. K. Kekai, J. M. Kealoha, J. Mskainai, H. C. Vida, C. J. Broad, R. W. Davis, J. S. Kahoohalahala, Akoni Kahiau, W. K. Kalesihua, S. Umauna, and Lono Austin.

EVERYBODY ROASTED

of the Democrats, because the Territory would lose revenue from the government lands. He condemned the Republican party, because of the Governor's sympathy with the planters and of his disregard of the Hawaiians. "When a certain Hawaiian hui petitioned the Governor for a piece of land, it was turned down, but the planters asked for it, and it was granted," said Notley.

"Another thing that the Republicans and Democrats in Hawaii are working for is the immigration of European laborers. Why there are enough field hands in the islands today and if the planters would only raise their pay, the laborers would be satisfied with it. In spite of the severity of the Federal immigration law, the planters, in violation of that law, are trying to bring European immigrants to this country at their expense. The Attorney General of the United States has ruled that assisted immigration was a direct violation of the United States immigration law. The planters of Hawaii today are trying to break the law."

Kuhio Negligent.
"Delegate Kuhio has been and is doing his best to see that the planters' wishes are granted by Congress. Judging from his work, it is apparent that he represents the rich and not the poor people."

Notley before concluding, stated that Kuhio had been negligent in his duties in not seeing to it that the Federal law regarding the raising of Federal furor fees to $3 a day was extended to Hawaii.

He told the audience that the Democratic candidate for Delegate to Congress was simply talking about the principle of the Democratic land policy in order to get votes, when in fact he knew that it would be to the disadvantage of the Hawaiians.

Ignored Laborites.
During his long address, Notley, who occasionally turned back and looked at the nominees, failed to recognize or make mention of the Laborites' candidates.

Beckley on Himself.
George C. Beckley (Mooheau), independent candidate for treasurer, first read a written Hawaiian speech, in which he recited his genealogy, showing his connection with Kamehameha the Great. He then called upon the Republicans, Democrats, Home Rulers, Laborites, poolas and everybody else to vote for him.

His written speech was:
"I have the honor to appear before you as an independent candidate for County Treasurer. I am an independent candidate, because it is the people who rule, and not the parties, and because, if elected, I do not wish to be under obligations to any machine or ring of any kind."

"The gentlemen opposed to me are capable and honest men, but I know that I, too, am honest and have the capacity to fill this office to the satisfaction of the public."

"If I am honored by your votes, I will devote my time and attention to the duties of the office, and will not run it as a side issue to any other business, or as a feeder to a private enterprise. I was born and grew up in Hawaii, and here I expect to live and die; I have property interests in this County, as elsewhere in the Territory, and am concerned in honest and economical government, just as much so as any man in the Territory of Hawaii. I have for more than forty years held positions of great responsibility and trust, have handled thousands of dollars belonging to other people, and no man can truthfully say that I have ever violated my duty in any respect whatever. I ask you to give me your earnest support, and faithfully promise you that you will never have cause to regret it."

"The principal question before the

DR. ROLLER WILL TALK AT Y.M.C.A.

Next Wednesday at 8 p. m., Dr. Roller, the world-famous wrestler and athlete, will talk at the Y. M. C. A. on subjects of general interest to the athletes and physical culture students of this city. Dr. Roller, who has been a physical director at the University of Washington, and is a graduate physician, has been requested to make this talk because of his peculiar fitness to advise the budding athletes of the Association and of Honolulu.

He will talk on athletics in general, on hygienics, and on that care and training of the body which produces the highest results in physical manhood.

The lecture will be open for all who wish to attend it, and the officers of the Association have issued a cordial invitation to all the athletes of this city to be present.

Dr. Roller leaves this place next Sunday, accompanied by Professor Pete Baron, to look for a match with Champion Frank Gotch.

people today is "Shall the trusts rule or shall the people rule—the corporations such as the Standard Oil Company or the Inter-Island Steamship Company?" thundered Wm. Charles Achi.

Having asked the indulgence of the audience, Achi spoke first in English, making a comparison of the Republican and Democratic parties on the mainland with those of Hawaii, condemning each party here for not adopting the principles of the mainland parties.

"What did Bryan do?" questioned Achi, forcibly. "Why, because he done that, Haskell was removed from being a treasurer for the Democratic party in the great United States."

"What did the Republicans and President Roosevelt done to Senator Foraker?" continued he. "Why, Senator Foraker, a well-known statesman and orator, was cast out of the party because of his connection with the Standard Oil Company. That was the same trouble with Governor Haskell of Oklahoma."

"Right here in Hawaii, the corporations are controlling everything; the poor people are not in it. The local Republican and Democratic leaders do not adopt the principles of the mainland politics."

"Here, the lion and lamb sleep on the same bed," he continued, meaning thereby that the Republican and Democratic parties in the Territory both favor the trusts and monopolies.

Standard Oil Senators.
Achi then commenced to attack Lane and Chillingworth for working for the Standard Oil Company's bill in the last session of the Legislature. On account of the passage of the bill the Territory's revenue was reduced by $6,000, through the control of the Government oil warehouse by the Standard Oil Company.

"Chillingworth and Lane are double-headed squid," cried Achi. "I dreamed that Lane, the Standard Oil and Inter-Island candidate for Mayor, had told a certain individual that he (Lane) could not do anything without the approval of Chillingworth, Atkinson, and Cooke. Such being the case, Lane, if elected, could not do anything independently."

"If Achi was elected, by the help of God he will do what he thinks best without submitting his good judgment to the approval of anybody else."

Achi then announced that Lane and Fern were alike. Either one of them, if elected, would be dictated by the president of the Inter-Island Company.

Platform No Good.
"There is nothing anything worth while in the Republican platform. It speaks of favoring the erection of a County building, extension of Queen street to Pearl City, and making a belt road around this island. It makes no provision by which money can be gotten. How can all these things be done without money?" asked Achi. "No man would believe such platform."

"If I were to tell you that I could make a bridge from here to Kauai no sensible man would believe such a wonderful story. Money is the principal thing and without it such a clause in the Republican platform could not be compiled with."

Achi then spoke of the present license law as being unjust, in that the large and small business houses are taxed alike. He favored the system of taxation according to wealth. "We will all benefit the wealthy by having good roads to run their automobiles on all round the island and the poor by getting work building those roads," he said.

Unqualified Candidates.
Achi further stated that there are only two Republicans and one Democratic candidate who can be counted upon as being able to "make laws" in the Legislature. The former were Douthitt and Long and the latter was Watson. J. M. Poepeo, the legal right of the Home Rule party, if selected as Senator, would surely make good laws, because of his ability and experience.
