SPORTS

ONE FAN'S FANCIES

The Bulletins played an uphill game with the Stars owing to the fact that the latter team was composed in part of large boys. The Giants have beaten the Young Ocean Views once, and have been beaten by this poetic team once. The rubber is to be played off.

Four Charlies did things in the ring Saturday evening at the Orphum. The "Charlie" stunt, since Rolly became so popular, seems to be supplanting the "Kid" and "Young" fad in pugilistic sobriquets, which was lately so popular.

The receptions at home of the defeated Moocows and of the Kelos furnish quite a contrast, though the Kelos knew the sting themselves. Probably distance lends enchantment to the showing of a baseball team.

Some of the rival teams of the Hilo Baseball League seem to have been furnished a spectacle of joy when the Mooheau baseball team arrived home again. The "Moocows" funeral was extensively advertised.

The Young Bulletins beat out those of the Star persuasion yesterday at Atkinson Park, the score being 20 to 11. The Giants got a package from the Young Ocean Waves by the score of 13 to 4.

Of course the Kelos got quite a welcome on arriving home again. Jess Wood's bunch of American stars are matched to play Kelo. Wonder what the Japanese will think of their prowess after all that?

The ball team from Davies & Company met defeat at the hands of the players from the Hawaiian Electric Company last Saturday by a score of 10 to 4.

The Atkinson League scorer is asked to observe his inaccuracies. Unfortunately, a box score is his own evidence of how well or how badly it is kept.

The San Antonios were victors in the Luso League yesterday over the Patriots, to the grand chorus of 32 to 14.

Joe Fern offers a cup for the winning team of the Atkinson League.

The Yacht Club has some weighty business to transact this evening.

H. C. C. BEATS ALAMEDAS

The H. C. C. players beat out the team from the Alameda at Makiki Saturday for the third time within the past few weeks, by a score of 95 to 56. The Alameda men played much better than they have at any time in the past, but all failed to make a stand which would win a game, while the Honolulu men did some nice batting. The official score was as follows:
