It may be that Thwing is getting out of it all he expects—free advertising.

Democratic joy is measured solely by the strength of the split-ticket movement—in the Republican ranks.

The County Committee has succeeded in conveying the idea that Kaea is not desired. Thus the managers have kept faith. The business of the hour is to elect the ticket.

Example is better than precept when it comes to a discussion of high moral standards. The people justly sneer when the doctrine is preached by those known for their vicious practices.

Federal law prevents those in charge of public works from employing additional laborers during the sixty days preceding a National election. Might it not be well for the Territory of Hawaii and its Counties to adopt this rule in connection with local elections?

TROUBLES EXAGGERATED BY DISTANCE.

"ENRAGED HAWAIIANS TO FIGHT JAPANESE LABORERS' INVASION."

"Trouble Starts When Application is Made to Erect a New Labor Camp in Fashionable District in Honolulu."

This is the headline in a California paper setting forth in large type what might appear to the casual mainland reader as news of a very serious international difficulty in full swing within this city.

The article which this heading introduces bears a Honolulu date line and tells the story of the contest to bar a Japanese tenement house from the Makiki district.

The whole thing is a fair sample of how the scare Japanese stories become current and are exaggerated as the yarn gains distance from the scene of "hostilities."

The only "enraged Hawaiians" this community has known in connection with the incident are those attending the conference with Sheriff Iaukea when that gentleman was asked to enforce the law.

It would be for the benefit of all concerned if the people of the mainland could be constantly impressed with the fact that Honolulu sometimes becomes aroused, the Japanese, like all other nationalities, are given absolute equality under the law.

Japanese happened to bring this matter to a focus, but the point at issue is the cheap lodging-house in the residence district, regardless of who runs it.

THWING AND IAUKEA.

Thwing thinks—or says he thinks—Sheriff Iaukea has not had fair play.

Thwing has become so well known in the town that his say-so is discounted at nearly one hundred per cent.

The fact is that Sheriff Iaukea has been treated with the utmost consideration. Admitting, for the sake of argument, that he did not know who Mr. Isot was at the time he signed a note for the one hundred Iwilei dollars borrowed from him, Iaukea on his own testimony did gain a knowledge of who this Mr. Isot was a short time after the note was given. The record also shows that notwithstanding this knowledge, Iaukea did not take vigorous steps to have the loan placed in other hands until he learned that Breckons knew of the transaction.

Aside from this is the testimony of Iaukea and his associates that he was not personally in favor of the enforcement of particular laws against Iwilei, but the "missionaries" said it must be done—so he did it. Not by force of personal conviction or initiative, but because the "missionaries" thought it proper. This is what Thwing, speaking as a missionary, probably calls high moral standard in office!

The position which Thwing takes is more in line with strict hypocrisy and the old-style Jesuitical idea than anything else.

To suggest that any community of level-headed men will endorse such a record as that of Thwing and Iaukea in the Iwilei-note affair is preposterous.

JAPANESE LABOR AGITATION.

It is surprising indeed to find the merchants of the Japanese colony taking a prominent part in the movement and agitation among the Japanese laborers for an immediate advance of wages on the sugar plantations.

Experience has proved the world over that business does not thrive on labor agitation, and the first to suffer from a serious friction between capital and labor is the retail merchant. If the present discussion is carried to the extreme, which is always possible, the first man to be pinched, outside those directly involved, is the merchant—the business man whose success is dependent solely upon pleasant relations between the workman in the field and his employer.

We assume that the agitation for increased wages is the result of certain Japanese playing upon the prejudices of the laborers, picturing to them the control they have on the labor situation by reason of their numbers and the cessation of immigration from Japan. The movement in fact is to make a display of power before which plantation men will succumb.

There can be but one result—trouble. This will be profitable to no one. It will be expensive to everyone. The laborer, the merchant, and the employer will suffer in the order named. The reputation of the Japanese in Hawaii will be injured at a time

(GOVERNOR FREAR)

"As I said in my speech at Anala Park, country comes first, party second, as a matter of course."

"THIS DOES NOT MEAN that PARTY should be IGNORED or that the VOTER should select from the DIFFERENT PARTIES the BEST MEN VIEWED AS INDIVIDUALS."

"PARTIES ARE NECESSARY and DESIRABLE IN REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT."

"Team work is essential to accomplish practical results. Accordingly in politics as well as business it is often necessary to select and vote for men who are working together and accomplish desired results even though they are not men who might be preferred as individuals."

"Of course, there may be men on the party ticket who should not be voted for either for the good of the country or party, but just where the line should be drawn is a matter for individual judgment."

when the interests of all concerned demand that every effort be made to prevent the misunderstandings that invariably follow labor agitations. Conditions are such that an upheaval of this character cannot fail to attract widespread attention and the danger of exaggeration is very great. Japanese laborers cannot with truth make the charge that they have not received the utmost consideration. The wages paid are of a good standard, and the many things done to make the plantation homes more comfortable and give the children every advantage should not be viewed lightly.

The rate of wages must be determined by the general average of several years. The season just past has been an especially good one. Of the coming years no one can tell, but it is reasonably certain that if agitation is avoided the plantations will be able to maintain the present wage during the lean and fat years. This is far better for the workman than to become embroiled in an agitation which might or might not force the wages up, but would certainly necessitate a revision at the first prospect of a low price of sugar in the world's markets.

Taking it all in all, the present is the proper time for the Japanese workmen to let well enough alone—unless they are determinedly set upon making trouble for Hawaii.

IAUKEA'S POLITICS

EXCITED HIM

Improvement Club Tells Him Of How He Acted

Editor Evening Bulletin: As one of the Committee of the Kaahumanu Improvement Club who called on the Sheriff on Monday afternoon in connection with the Makiki tenement house matter, I would respectfully ask you to allow me space for a few words in reply to the statement made by Sheriff Iaukea in last evening's Bulletin.

The committee waited on the Sheriff simply for the purpose of requesting him to carry out what we believed to be his duty in regard to the enforcement of the ordinance recently passed by the Board of Supervisors, and had not the remotest idea of doing anything to prejudice the Sheriff in the eyes of his constituents in the coming election. We believed that as the ordinance was being flagrantly and notoriously violated, that it was the duty of the Sheriff to arrest those who were violating the ordinance and not make it incumbent on the property-holders of the Makiki district to first swear out a complaint. If, in the opinion of the Sheriff, we erred in our view of the matter, all he need to have said to the committee was that he did not agree with them and would therefore have to decline to comply with our request, but instead he became greatly excited, and assumed an attitude which clearly showed that he thought the committee was there simply for the purpose of getting after his political scalp, thereby insulting the committee and causing them to leave in disgust.

In conclusion, Mr. Editor, it seems to the writer that the manner in which the Sheriff saw fit to treat a committee of citizens in regard to this tenement house question, was entirely unbecoming, and will do more to injure his chances of re-election as Sheriff than anything else he could have done, for, after his action of last Monday afternoon, property owners and voters will realize more than ever the necessity of having some one in the office of County Sheriff who will at least be civil in the discharge of his official duties and who will not be afraid to enforce the laws as they stand on the statute books.

WHEN YOU CATCH A COLD

Always Take a Few Doses of Pe-ru-na. It Is Dangerous to Neglect a Cold.

Mr. George A. Nicholas, 75 Wellington street, Launceston, Tasmania (Australia), is a prominent grocer, having been in the business about 18 years. He writes as follows: "I have on several occasions, when afflicted with a cough or cold, used Peruna with the best of results. I believe it to be a splendid remedy for such ailments."

MR. GEORGE A. NICHOLAS.

A LARGE per cent. of chronic ailments begin with a neglected cold. A cold produces congestion of some internal organ. The congestion at last becomes chronic and organic disease is the result.

When an organic disease becomes thoroughly established, it is absolutely incurable. Thus it is dangerous to neglect a cold.

A remedy should always be at hand that can be relied upon to promptly relieve a cold.

There is no better remedy in the world for this purpose than Peruna, which has been in use for a great many years.

It has been the standby in a multitude of homes as a remedy for colds, coughs and catarrhal ailments of summer and winter.

The following wholesale druggists will supply the retail trade: BENSON, SMITH & CO., HONOLULU, HAWAII.

We will give a few specimens of the many testimonials we have received from different parts of the world as to the efficacy of Peruna as a remedy for colds:

"I contracted a severe cold, and became afflicted with a bad cough. I began taking Peruna. In a short time my cough and cold were gone."—Mr. Louis Monpetit, 251 St. Elizabeth Ave., St. Henry, Montreal, Canada.

"I have received great benefit from Peruna, and hope to see it in my country, Cuba. The home protected by Peruna is free from catarrh."—Mr. Jose I. Soler, President Cuban Fruit Co., 2018 Jerome Ave., New York City, N. Y.

Mr. L. C. Figg, 2029 E. Marshall St., Richmond, Virginia, U. S. A., writes, that whenever he gets a cold Peruna drives it out of his system.
