Fancy Fowls Ready For Opening Of Contest

On Wednesday next the fourth annual exhibition of the Hawaiian Poultry Association will open in the National Guard shooting gallery. Last Wednesday the entry lists closed, and the committeemen in charge of the arrangements are now busy getting things into readiness for the opening day.

Some very attractive prizes have been offered by the Association, and breeders and fanciers are making every effort to get their fowls into the pink of condition for the great feathered contest. Birds are being washed and bleached, minor defects are being searched out and, where possible, remedied, and everything that can improve the appearance of the entries is being done.

The following are the prizes offered: The American Poultry Association offers a grand prize silver medal for the best cockerel in the American, Asiatic, Mediterranean and English classes, competition open to the world.

The American Poultry Association offers a diploma for the best male under one year old in all standard varieties, competition open to the world.

The Hawaiian Poultry Association offers silver cups for the best "Collection" (cock, hen, cockerel, and pullet) in each of the following classes: American, Mediterranean, and English.

The directors of the Association offer a handsome silver cup to the exhibitor showing the largest number of birds in the poultry classes scoring 90 points or over.

Five prize ribbons will be awarded, and cash premiums will be paid according to competition in poultry classes (which include turkeys, ducks and geese), viz.: Cocks, Hens, Cockerels, Pullets, and Pens, of all varieties, under the following schedule:

Single Birds—Four entries or over: first $2, second $1.50, third $1; three entries: first $1.50, second $1; two entries: first $1.

Exhibition Pens—Four entries or over: first $5, second $3, third $2; three entries: first $4, second $2; two entries: first $3.

Ribbon specials will be awarded by the Hawaiian Poultry Association for the following exhibits: Highest scoring Hawaiian-bred bird in the show; best pen in the American class; best pen in the Mediterranean class; best pen in the English class; best pen in the game class; best conditioned bird in the show; best-shaped male in the show; best-parti-colored male in the show; best-parti-colored female in the show; best solid-colored male in the show; best solid-colored female in the show; best live capon; heaviest Tom; best 12 white eggs; best 12 brown eggs; best 12 duck eggs.

The entry fee for each specimen in the open class is $1. Exhibition pen (1 male and 4 females), $3. Turkeys, ducks, and geese, $1 each. Birds entered in exhibition pens cannot compete in open classes.

Lively Bowling Tournament Promised

Some interesting tournaments will be held in the bowling alleys under the Hotel Baths in the near future. Teams representing the Naval Station, Rapid Transit and Fort Shafter will compete, and probably one or two from some of the mercantile houses of the city.

The alleys have been completely refitted and refurnished, and the equipment is now of the very best. Only the most modern apparatus has been installed, and the alleys are admirably suited to tournament purposes.

The heating and drying room in the basement, which formerly made the alleys uncomfortably warm, has been moved, and the alleys are now very cool and comfortable.

At present the alleys are being opened at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, but next week they will be opened two hours earlier, to give the Punahou boys a chance to bowl before other people get there.

LOSERS CAN REGAIN MONEY PAID OUT IN BETS

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 15.—The State Supreme Court today held that the loser of money in a gambling game can recover the money from the winner regardless of whether the money was fairly or unfairly won. All that is necessary is that the party must establish proof that the money was lost and ascertain the name of the person who conducts the game.

It is held, too, that personal application or invitation is unnecessary to make the plea that the invitation was intended, for the court says that the mere furnishing of a place and the permission of entrance to the place while gambling is going on, must be regarded as an invitation.

This sweeping opinion came in the suit of Park Roberts of Fort Thomas to recover $3500 from J. B. Respass of Cincinnati, the noted turfman and owner of Dick Wells, James Nolan, and Andrew Hennegar of Covington last year in a poker game in Covington last year.

WILDER WILL HEAD HAWAII YACHT CLUB

SLATE IS BEING MADE UP READY FOR ANNUAL MEETING

Jaeger Will Be Vice Commodore and Rietow Will Succeed Himself—Meeting Will Be Held This Month—Silver Cup Is Donated

Already members of the Hawaii Yacht Club are beginning to make up the slate for the election of officers at the annual meeting. The meeting must, under the by-laws, be held some time this month; the actual date will be announced by Acting Commodore Charles T. Wilder.

It is generally conceded that Vice Commodore Wilder, who has been acting as commodore for some time past, will be elected to succeed Commodore Alexander Lyle. Wilder has been very active in the affairs of the club and his unselfish enthusiasm has done much to boost along the organization.

He is generally considered the right man to head the club, and his election is accepted as a foregone conclusion.

James Jaeger will probably be chosen to succeed Wilder as vice-commodore.

Jaeger is an enthusiastic sportsman and he is considered the best man to assist Wilder in his duties as the managing head of the club.

Ray Rietow, port captain, will doubtless be re-elected to the position which he now holds. Rietow has given careful attention to the affairs of the club, and under his regime, everything has gone along in a manner thoroughly satisfactory to all of the members.

The regatta committee will probably consist of T. V. King, A. W. Neely and H. R. Rycroft.

One of the most important matters, next to the choice of officers, which will be considered at the meeting, will be the date of the cruise. It is now planned to have the cruise as soon after the meeting as can conveniently be arranged. The last cruise planned was called off owing to the inability of several of the yacht-owners to be present, and members are particularly anxious that one shall be held in the immediate future.

The reports of the various officers and committees will show the club to be in excellent condition. The membership is growing steadily, and the organization has proven decidedly beneficial, not only to yachting in these waters, but to sportsmanship in general in Hawaii.

Several interesting regattas will doubtless be held early in the year, one for the Sea Wrens being practically a certainty. Commodore Ruy Spaulding of the South Coast Yacht Club, has offered a silver cup as trophy in the Sea Wren regatta.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR WALKING RACE

LESSONS TAUGHT BY THE LAST MATCH PROVE PROFITABLE

Records of All Who Finish Will Be Kept and Standing of Men Will Thus Be Shown Beyond Shadow of Doubt, Pedestrianism on the Frod

There is every indication that Sunday's walking events will call out a representative list of entries. The enthusiasm which the last race worked up, coupled with valuable trophies which have been offered, will prove ample inducement to call out the most sluggish, and the events will doubtless be well filled.

The entry lists will close tomorrow, and any one who does not get his name down on the books before nightfall will not be allowed to compete for prizes on Sunday afternoon.

Several changes have been made in the minor arrangements for handling the race since the last meet. For one thing, the course will be better policed than it was last time. Then there will be more judges along the line of march, and there will be more than one timekeeper.

Considerable difficulty was experienced at the last contest owing to the fact that there was but one stopwatch available. Thus, though the time was kept fairly accurately on the first man each time, there was more or less guesswork regarding the speed which the others managed to set up. Several of the competitors are extremely doubtful as to the time that they really made, and consequently are at a loss to know just how they will stack up alongside men with known records.

This uncertainty will doubtless disappear after Sunday's race, and the contest on January 17 will be on a more satisfactory basis than the preceding ones. Those who take part in the contest Sunday afternoon will, after the race, have a fairly clear idea as to their pedestrian abilities.
