This woman says that sick women should not fail to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as she did. Mrs. A. Gregory, of 2555 Lawrence St., Denver, Col., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I was practically an invalid for six years, on account of female troubles. I underwent an operation by the doctor's advice, but in a few months I was worse than before. A friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it restored me to perfect health, such as I have not enjoyed in many years. Any woman suffering as I did with backache, bearing-down pains, and periodic pains, should not fail to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN. For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it? Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Wadman's subject tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock in the Methodist church, corner of Beretania avenue and Miller street. In the evening at 7:30 he will speak on "Men of Wealth and the Laboring Man," with special reference to the labor question as it exists today, here and on the mainland. The public is cordially invited.

Our old book friend, Wm. C. Lyon, has just returned from an extensive trip on the mainland and has formed a co-partnership with Mr. E. Herick Brown. The present location of Brown's book store will be continued by Brown and Lyon at the corner of Alakea and Merchant streets. Mr. Lyon brings many new agencies for publications of a special nature which, with the present store business, will make a very large book establishment. It is quite remarkable to what a large extent Brown & Lyon are responsible for the wonderful development of home libraries. As a result Honolulu has a higher literary development than any other city of its size in the world.

'SAUNDERS FIRED' SO SAYS THE RUMOR

Company Did Not Like Fracas with Ship's Surgeon

Captain J. W. Saunders of the Pacific Mail liner Manchuria, it is said, has lost command of his ship. The Manchuria's surgeon, with whom Captain Saunders exchanged blows during the trip from the Orient, also is said to have been fired.

The story, though not confirmed by the officers of the China, which brought the news, has it that immediately upon the arrival of the Manchuria at San Francisco, Saunders and the surgeon appeared before Schwerin, the general manager of the Pacific Mail line, and explained the pillkiss, which led them to fight during the trip. Schwerin, it is said, was not satisfied with the explanations offered and discharged both on the spot.

In response to inquiry at the office of Hackfeld & Co., the local agents, stated that they had received no information pertaining to Captain Saunders and the ship's surgeon. None of the high officers of the China will confirm the report, but through some of the minor officers the story leaked out. They stated that Captain Frelie, the regular commander of the China, remained ashore in order to be ready to take command of the Manchuria when she leaves San Francisco.

"What's the matter with Captain Saunders?" asked the reporter of one of the minor officers.

"He is pau," was the answer. "He was discharged because he did like this (exhibiting his arms as he swung them in the act of hitting a man). You know the old man did not like the idea of Captain Saunders fighting with the ship's surgeon."

"Manager Schwerin is a strict man. He expects the employees of the company, be they high or low, to be gentlemen. They must not fight in the presence of passengers. In order to make no personal favor, he discharged all the high officers of the Manchuria and their places will be filled as soon as possible. Captain Frelie has been given the command of the Manchuria."

The Manchuria is due to arrive here next Friday, the 29th.

"Japan is frightfully poor," said Mr. Clotworthy. "No statement of their national poverty can be exaggerated. Everything is taxed to the limit, and it will be years before the nation will be in a position to take an aggressive attitude toward any nation, unless assistance comes from some unexpected quarter."

"I have had a splendid trip and especially in Australia where we received with deep-felt and sincere enthusiasm. I am glad to be in Honolulu again, and although I expect to return to the Orient, I am certain that I shall come to these islands for a stay that will enable me to enjoy the place to the full."

Mr. Clotworthy reports that when he parted with Correspondent Matthews of the New York Sun he was still talking about the beauties of Hawaii.
