500 AIEA MEN ARE RETURNING

Strike Completely Collapsing All Along the Line ---All Back At Ewa and Waialua---Waipahu And Kahuku Only Hold Out---Prompt Action Taken To Protect Workmen from Violence

Three hundred men return to Honolulu plantation this afternoon, signaling the complete collapse of the strike on the plantation where the Agitator movement originated, exactly one month after it started. This return of Aiea men is said to have been the result of four leaders, Arakawa, Saiki, Sakeguchi and Fujimoto, of Honolulu plantation, who met with about two hundred of their associates last evening and had a prolonged discussion. The prompt action of Mr. Mead in giving the men protection meant all that might be inferred. Any interference with the workmen will be dealt with summarily.

By this afternoon's train three hundred strikers are going back to Honolulu plantation, and Deputy Sheriff Rose is providing police protection for them on the journey. On their arrival at Aiea Captain Baker and a specially sworn in body of police will see to their comfort.

There are some two hundred men said to be awaiting the arrival of the strikers who are returning from Honolulu, and they will join forces with these men, and the whole five hundred men will turn out to work tomorrow morning.

A number of ex-police men who are at present working as strike-breakers at Aiea have been sworn in as special officers, and they are under the command of Captain Baker, who also has two of the regular police from Honolulu with him.

Deputy Rose intends calling the regulars back to town, as the force of police on the beats today only totals up to three, and the deputy thinks the City should not be left unprotected.

SUGAR STOCK JUMPS UPWARD

Nowhere is returning confidence in labor conditions more noticeable than in the renewed activity in sugar stocks on the Exchange. Trading was very active this morning, and Oahu stock (Waipahu), was in particular demand. With the cloud of approaching labor difficulties on the horizon a month ago, timid holders of sugar stocks began to get worried, and small blocks were unloaded in quick time. The big holders only sat back and smiled buying up what there was in sight but waiting for the clouds to clear away.

A week ago a change of heart was noticed among the timid ones, and those in touch with the market predicted a quick convalescence. President Shingle, of the Stock Exchange, expressed the belief that the temporary depression would quickly be followed by a season of renewed activity, and that in record time. His prophecy bids fair to be fulfilled, for this morning there were lively times on the Exchange. Not only did trading go on at a lively clip, but prices jumped up in consequence.

Persons who held onto their sugar stocks, are now going about with beaming countenances; those who let go in a panic, showing a very evident desire to climb onto the band wagon.

Praise For Display Of Hawaii

SEATTLE, Wash., June 8. — The Hawaiian building with its complete exhibit was thrown open to the public today and was the center of interest of the great crowds that are flocking to the Exposition. The display made by the Hawaiians was very highly commended.

The Seattle Post-Intelligencer of May 26 gives a first-page display of the photographs of three of the Bulletin party that is to take in the Alaska-Yukon Exposition. In connection with the favorable comment made on the prospective visitors from Hawaii, D. B. Duncombe estimates that fully three thousand young women will visit the Fair as the result of newspaper contests conducted by the newspapers of the country.

Mr. Duncombe sends the Bulletin a full description of three special trips provided by the Fair authorities for the members of newspaper contest parties.

CIVIC FEDS TAKE HAND

By a vote of seven to two, the executive committee of the Civic Federation yesterday afternoon went on record as favoring the confirmation of Woodruff as second Federal Judge. Immediately after the meeting, cablegrams were sent to President Taft and to Senator Dillingham at Washington, urging the confirmation of Woodruff.

Though the Rath charges against A. G. M. Robertson, the Bar Association's choice for the judgeship, were not brought up, there is a general understanding that they had more than a little to do with the action of the Civic Feds. The expressed reason for taking the action in favor of Woodruff was that he was the candidate of Roosevelt and of Garfield, and that in consequence, he should be supported by the people of Hawaii, even though a local man might be in the field against him.

On the other hand, it is admitted that had the issue been on the Rath cablegram, the action of the Feds would have been the same.

Those who were present at the meeting were: P. L. Horne, Doreman Scudder, J. J. Waller, W. W. Hall, H. Babson, Ed. Towne, W. A. Bryan, Theo. Richards and R. B. Anderson.

NO MONEY FOR LAWYERS' FEES

Strike Leaders Fail To Come To Assistance Of Japanese Who Are Accused of Beating Giichi Nearly To Death --- Uchiyama Is Re-arrested On New Charge

There appears to be a serious financial stringency among the strikers. That big strike fund seems to have been dissipated—or tied up—or something of the kind. Anyway, none of it is available for the purpose of keeping out of jail those of the strikers who have violated the law and resorted to violence in a desperate attempt to make their last cause victorious.

This was demonstrated this morning when the cases of Uchiyama and the three other Japanese arrested for the assault on Giichi were called in Judge Robinson's court. M. F. Prosser appeared as special prosecutor, representing the government, and E. A. Douthitt was on hand as the attorney for the Japanese. Mr. Prosser stated that the government was ready to go ahead, but he said that after a conference with Mr. Douthitt he was ready to agree to a continuance. The cases were therefore set tentatively for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. They will be taken up then—if the strike leaders have by that time come through with the fee of their attorney.

The cold fact is that, although it has been about ten days since the arrests, Makino & Co. have failed to dig up for the defense of their delinquent countrymen. Of course, the strikers have money enough on hand to enable them to stand out for six months. It must be so, for they themselves admit it. But, curiously enough, they seem unable to raise the money to pay for the defense of the assaulters of Giichi.

Makino was on hand this morning, but he was very reticent. "The strike is all right, all right," he said when questioned, but he did not say what was going to be done in regard to keeping the strikers who assaulted Giichi out of jail. Per- (Continued on Page 3)

Evidence of the complete wreck of the Agitators strike campaign are coming in rapidly from all sides. Waipahu and possibly Kahuku are the only sections where there is any general hold-out and the leaven of common sense is working among the Japanese of those plantations.

Full Force Working.

This morning the full force was reported at work at Ewa plantation, and practically the full force at Waialua. These two plantations are going along in practically the old style and the men are clearly mighty glad to be at it again and settled in their little homes.

Threats at Aiea.

The center of interest just now is at Honolulu plantation, where the strikers have obviously broken away from the Agitators but are more or less hampered in their plans by the threats of the Thugs.

There is one man of Aiea with about a hundred men ready to turn to at Honolulu plantation and he went to the camp last night to proceed to business. No sooner was this move made than there were lively threats as to the fate of any men who dared to oppose the mandate of the Agitators.

Manager Ross called for police assistance from town. Mr. Mead quickly got a squad of police from the Sheriff's department and hastened to the plantation. The effect of the presence of officers was immediate. It put new (Continued on Page 3)

MAY COMPROMISE ALL TAX APPEALS

If the plans of Attorney General Hemenway do not miscarry, there will be no appeals for the various courts of tax appeal of the Territory to struggle with this year. All the appeals except those of the Third Circuit have been withdrawn and Mr. Hemenway hopes that arrangements may be made today, or within a day or two, anyway that will lead to the withdrawing of the tax appeals of that Circuit.

Word was received by the Attorney General today that the appeal of the Hilo Mercantile Company, the only one on file in the fourth circuit, had been withdrawn. If compromises can be effected in the appeals of the third circuit the position of member of the tax appeal court will be merely honorary, with no work to be done.

PERRY CHARGED WITH SWINDLE

William Perry was arrested on a charge of gross cheat this afternoon, and is at present in the lock-up. It appears that Perry approached Police Officer Holt with a proposition that he loan him $25. Holt did not think much of the idea and turned Perry down.

The next move of Perry was to go to Holt's private residence and tap Mrs. Holt for the amount. Mrs. Holt, believing Perry's story that Holt had told him to go to the house for the money, handed over $25 to the skingame man.

Shortly afterward Mrs. Holt became alarmed, and on going to the Police Station, found that her husband had not sent Perry to her. A warrant was at once sworn out and Perry was arrested. He will appear in court tomorrow morning.
