JEALOUS OF HIS MARY ANNE

Rival Suitors For Heart and Hand

"Mary Anne" is a rather comely Hawaiian damsel, who has evidently aroused the unrequited admiration of—at least two heartbroken youths.

David Keahi, much battered and appearing considerably the worse for his encounter with what he termed a jealous suitor for the dainty hand of "Mary Anne," exhibited his damaged features to several officers of the law, including Judge Andrede Saturday morning.

Keahi brought charges against one George Kikila for assault and battery. It appears that both young men had called at the home of the object of their affections and dreams.

From the story told in court it would look as if Keahi was traveling on the inside track in the marathon race for the undivided affections of "Mary Anne."

This at any rate is the reason assigned by Keahi for the unprovoked attack upon him by his rival. The scrap had been a fast and furious one and as a result of Kikila being the larger of the suitors for the hand and heart of the fair Mary Anne, the smaller man was severely bested.

He suffered several lusty swats, one of which put his nose to the starboard, a cut near the mouth, and an eye was decorated a deep hue color by the impact of a fist handled by the envious Kikila.

The love-stricken youths aroused considerable amusement as they related their tales of misplaced affection.

In order to equitably distribute the honors, the court assessed a fine of ten dollars to each of the scrappers.

LOYAL JAPANESE CHEER THEIR HEROES

Actuated by the spirit of loyalty to their Emperor, and the appreciation for the splendid work of their naval defenders, local Japanese Friday night paraded through the streets with thousands of lanterns and torch lights, on their way down to the cruiser Idzumo, where they cheered and banished the officers and men.

The procession, formed at Aala Park, started to move on Beretania street, then down on Alakea street to the Idzumo. Almost all the Japanese population turned out in full force. Some came from Moiliili. Mothers, carrying their babies on their backs, also helped make the procession a success.

The march was headed by Fred K. Makino and other enthusiastic people.

At the wharf, they were received by the officers.

NOTED CIGAR FIRM GETS NEW STOCK

FRESH SHIPMENT OF GENUINE MANILA SMOKES RECEIVED DIRECT FROM CELEBRATED PHILIPPINE FACTORIES.

In keeping with its position as the largest and most prominent cigar establishment in the Hawaiian Islands the M. A. Gunst Co. has just received the first shipment of Manila cigars direct from the factory that has been received in Honolulu since the new customs regulations went into effect.

All other stocks that arrived heretofore have been purchased through jobbers.

The importance to local smokers of the arrangement made by the M. A. Gunst Co. can only be appreciated when you realize that this company is in a position to offer Manila cigars at prices far below any others in this city.

And that the M. A. Gunst Co. is underselling all other Manila cigars is demonstrated when you compare their prices with others.

The Gunst shipment came direct from the famous factory Campana General de Tabacos de Filipinas "Tobaculero," the largest factory in the Philippines and known to all army and navy men who have been in the Philippine Islands as the producer of the best of all grades of Manila cigars.

The "Tobaculero" is under strict government supervision, a fact that establishes the reliability of their product and this should not be overlooked by local smokers.

The fact of this government supervision is attested on the stamp on the box.

As soon as the Gunst Company received their supply of Manila cigars from the Custom house the news began to spread about town and the popular cigar stand of this company at the corner of Fort and King streets has been besieged by hundreds of discriminating smokers who were eager to get in on the new stock and the extremely low prices.

Everywhere beaming faces, radiant with satisfaction, could be seen about town behind various sizes of the famous Manila cigars and fragrant odors of the La Flor de la Isabela filled the air.

It is seldom that anything proves so instantly popular with the public as has been the case with this cigar.

To give some idea of the prices of the La Flor de Isabela the Gunst Co. sell the different sizes from seven for a quarter to three for a half and the box prices run from $1 to $4.

If you have never smoked a Manila cigar; or if you have smoked what has been called a Manila cigar and failed to connect, don't judge them until you smoke a genuine La Flor de la Isabela.

That Katherine Elkins and the Duke of the Abruzzi are in constant correspondence, that they will be married soon, that the duke will be made a rear-admiral and that Miss Elkins will become a princess is asserted by a Milan correspondent.

AFFONSO BRANDS INTERVIEW FALSE

Tells Inside Facts Of That Coastwise Resolve

The Hawaii Herald says: Representative Affonso returned yesterday from Honolulu where he attended the special session of the Legislature.

Referring to the Advertiser's story, reproduced in Tuesday's Tribune, Affonso says:

"There is absolutely nothing to the story. To begin with Holstein belongs to a different elective district, the second, and I would have no more to do with his election there than he would with mine here, in the first district.

"The Honolulu paper says I was 'pooeved' because Holstein 'sat upon' me several times. This is also gathered from the fertile imaginative grey matter of the morning paper's scribe.

Holstein sat down on no one nor had he the occasion or necessity to do so at any time during the special session.

"Castro and I spoke and labored hard to defeat, in the House, Cohen's resolution favoring the suspension of the coastwise shipping laws.

The Advertiser was out, tooth and nail, for the resolution. It had every morning, during the session, endeavored to find some one to take the matter up in the House but it was only on the last day of the session that the Advertiser succeeded in finding a sponsor for its un-American resolution.

Its reporter in the House, himself drew up the resolution, a cumbersome and unparliamentary affair and Cohen, almost at the eleventh hour, brought forth the pet scheme of the morning paper.

It passed the House, 16 to 12, but met a well merited and inglorious death at the hands of the Senate.

"From that time on I was persona non grata with the Advertiser and hence the article, reproduced here in the Tribune, the only motive of which seems to be to ridicule and discredit me with my constituency.

"Speaker Holstein is my personal friend and no one admires his ability more than I do, and I hope that future legislatures will number him among its members."

Representative Affonso in a letter to the Bulletin states that the man who drew the resolution was the Pacific Monthly writer of the Advertiser staff.

A Cold Bottle of Primo Beer

Goes well at any time, but it tastes best when taken with the evening meal.

It sharpens the appetite, aids the digestion, and quiets tired nerves. It is the best beer you can drink, because it is the purest.

And it is the best tonic you can take and the most pleasant one, too.
