POLICE COURT NOTES

Most of the cases on the Police Court calendar this morning were sent over to future dates.

Tom Gosselman, who was charged with assaulting his wife, got a severe reprimand from Judge Andrade and was released. Antonio Correa, who was mixed up in an assault case was also to depart as the prosecution did not wish to press the charge.

S. Sheba, proprietor of the Hawaii Shipyard, had no license for carrying on his business, and he was up before the court. His case was continued till January 21.

Pong Chee San, for a similar offense against the license law, had to pay $3 costs of court. He had taken out a license since being arrested. Sam Wo, a countryman of Pong's, was treated the same way by Judge Andrade.

Maika Paiania, who is alleged to have used some fierce language, will have to explain matters on Monday next to the court.

A man named Peter Negrois, who claims to be a Belgian, is in custody at the police station on a very serious charge. He was arrested last night and will appear in court on Monday morning.

Suginoto, a Japanese, who assaulted another Japanese yesterday afternoon was fined $15 and $1 costs. This completed the calendar for the day and the court adjourned.

SAILING RACE

Tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock the wren and Pearl boat race will start from the Myrtle Boat Club. The race will be sailed under the auspices of the Honolulu Yacht Club and seven of the small boats will take part in it.

The following boats have entered for the race: Pearl, L. Hough; Ivy Perday; Viking, Myhre; Roaring Gull, R. Henry; Galloping Mary, Jack Densham; Dancing Sally, J. Stone, and an unnamed boat, which will be headed by Ray Hietow.

The course will be decided upon tomorrow morning as soon as the judges see what kind of wind there is. This will be the third package race. The first was won by L. Hough, and the second was declared no race, owing to a boat capsizing before the finish.

Those burglars who got $4000 from a New York shoe store must also have kept themselves informed on the effect of the new tariff.—Indianapolis News.

AMERICANIZE HAWAII IS FORD'S MISSION

HAS FORMED CONNECTION TO ESTABLISH FARMERS' BANK

He Tells San Francisco Some Details of Plans He Has on Foot—Says Governor Frear Favors Plan and It All Looks Good.

San Francisco, Jan. 22.—To further the project of Americanizing Uncle Sam's island territory, especially Hawaii, Alexander Hume Ford, who has been at work for the last year on a series of immigration articles for a magazine, will sail today for Honolulu on the Alameda. He will represent a combination of interests which has for its object the settlement of the Hawaiian islands with farmers from the mainland. Not only American but Australasian officials and business men are said to be behind the movement.

"The whole work grew out of a chat with a Texan, Dr. C. C. Higgins of Dallas now a Mexican banana king," Ford said yesterday. "We were in Italy three years ago and discussing the migration to America from Southern Europe. We talked of the possibilities of giving the tourist and traveler a fair deal and honest information, the idea being to have different governments establish head offices in American cities to take charge of tourists from start to finish. We resolved to begin such a movement at once with Higgins taking the Atlantic and myself the Pacific."

Ford first visited Hawaii and later Australasian countries. He interested Governor Frear of Hawaii in the matter of co-operating with other Pacific governments in the establishment of tourist bureaus in New York, San Francisco, Chicago and other important cities of the United States. A convention was held in Honolulu, following which Federated Australia announced its intention of joining in the work and now New Zealand and other Australasian countries are considering the matter.

"In the meantime," said Ford yesterday in discussing his mission, Higgins had been very successful financially. He wanted Texas and Mexico in the deal and at the opening of the Houston-Galveston ship canal he declared that he wanted to extend his own ship service via Tehuantepec to Japan by way of Honolulu, and that he had the cotton growers behind him. I succeeded in interesting Texans in Hawaii, calling special attention to the banana raising possibilities. The Higgins steamship line offered to put on ten-day steamers from San Francisco if enough fruit could be secured for cargoes. The Southern Banana Company offered to buy on the plantations for spot cash all bananas grown, and give long-time contracts.

"The directors of a Chicago bank have offered to start a Farmers' Bank in Honolulu to finance American fruit growers. The Home Seekers' Association, organized twenty years ago by Edward Everett Hale, is co-operating with the movement to Americanize Hawaii. Governor Frear of the island territory favors the plan of dividing the surplus malar land into small tracts for fruit raisers.

"It all looks good to me," Ford concluded. "It is a great scheme for farmers of small means in the South and Middle West to become independent in Hawaii. We will offer them all the assistance necessary and I believe that before many years the movement will grow to enormous proportions."
