CONTEST CLOSES 8 P. M., SATURDAY, MAY 28

Premium Offer Renewed.

The premium offer was renewed on Monday for the last time. It has been changed in no way since made three weeks ago. It allows five thousand extra votes for every candidate who turns in, or has turned in for her, three new or three old daily subscriptions. Two thousand five hundred votes are given for every club of five new or five old weekly subscriptions.

Hawaii, Maui and Kauai.

All contestants and their friends living in Hawaii, Maui and Kauai districts and depending on the mails to bring their subscriptions to the Bulletin office, MUST be sure and have all their votes and subscriptions in the ballot-box before 8 o'clock p. m. SATURDAY, MAY 28, as that is the time set for the final count of the votes, and any votes coming in after that date will not be counted and allowed. Those sending in votes or subscriptions should REGISTER same before mailing, as there will be less chance for them to be lost in the mails, and if any should be lost and show up after the final count is made, they will not be counted or allowed, as the count on Saturday evening will be final. The above rule will also apply to District No. 1.

Important Notice to Subscribers.

You are entitled to votes for every subscription payment to the Bulletin you have made since March 7. Hunt up your receipts and send them to the Contest Department, if you have not voted. The receipts will be returned to you. You vote for two contestants—a trip and a chaperone candidate. Name the two for whom you wish to vote when sending in subscription payments or when returning receipts for votes. Contest Closes May 28, 8 p. m.

Saturday, May the twenty-eighth, is the time set for the close of the contest and all votes and subscriptions MUST be in the Bulletin office on that date. The closing hour will be at 8 o'clock p. m. on May 28th, and those depending on the mails to bring their subscriptions to the Bulletin office MUST have all votes and subscriptions in the ballot box before 8 o'clock p. m. on that date. The judges for the final count of the ballots will be chosen from prominent business men of Honolulu; their names will be announced in due season. RECEPTION AT KAHULUI

(Special Correspondence.)
WAILUKU, Maui, May 24.—A more perfect day than Sunday last could not have been wished for by the committee in charge for the entertainment of the officers and crew of the Portuguese cruiser San Gabriel, which arrived at Kahului at daylight from Honolulu, having experienced a very smooth trip across the channel. The Portuguese reception committee, together with members of the honorary committee, were towed out in a decorated lighter at 8 a. m. to extend Maui's welcome to the distinguished visitors. The cruiser was boarded and after a short informal reception aboard, members returned to prepare for the reception of the officials as 9 o'clock, as programmed. Messrs. Santos and Jorquin Gardia remained aboard to complete details. Accompanying the commander on his visit to Kahului and Hilo are the following guests: Consul A. de S. Canavaro, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Seabury, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Silva of Kaula, Dr. and Mrs. L. R. Gaspar, M. A. Gonsalves, W. Stone and Photographer Gonsalves.

Promptly at 9 o'clock the tug Leslie Baldwin was alongside the cruiser to transport the officials and guests of the San Gabriel ashore. On the wharf the commander was greeted by Company 1 of the National Guard. This incident was very much appreciated by him. Automobiles were in waiting, and after all of the committee and guests had been accommodated, the machines wheeled off to Iao Valley, where breakfast was in waiting. Mrs. Burlem's coffee was pronounced the best, and, together with the shady trees and a clear day, the committee were more than pleased at the success of the Iao breakfast.

The entertaining committee then took charge of the guests and conveyed them to Kaupakalua winery, through Central Maui. Commander Pinto-Basto and Consul Canavaro were well pleased with the enterprise of their countrymen in this section of the island. After a quick visit to Puunene mill, where the party was met by Manager F. F. Baldwin, the machines made their way to Kahului, where an elaborate Hawaiian luau was in waiting. Messdames Rose Kepekai and Polly Kaula and other Hawaiian ladies worked the greater part of Saturday night and all day Sunday to help make the affair a great success. More than three thousand people had congregated at Kahului to greet the commander and his crew. At 10 o'clock in the morning the crew from the ship were allowed to land and were taken in hand by a special committee at Kahului.

The Maui County band, under Director G. B. Schraeder, was in attendance at the luau and played selections all day. As the commander and his party arrived, Bandmaster Schraeder struck up the Portuguese National Anthem, which was lustily cheered. The long tables at the baseball grounds had been elegantly prepared, and were well laden with food cooked in real Hawaiian style. The speech of welcome was made by Rev. Mr. Santos, and was responded to by the commander, who proved himself a good orator in both the Portuguese and English languages. He offered a toast to the American ladies present.

A short speech was also made by Hon. H. P. Baldwin, who once more manifested his warm aloha for the Portuguese people, with whom he has had much experience. A beautifully hand-made cushion was presented to the cruiser on behalf of the citizens of the island.

After the luau the officers and sailors were allowed to go with friends to be entertained as each thought best, and at 5 o'clock were given a grand farewell. The cruiser left at 6 p. m. on its way to Hilo, after the officers and men had spent a most pleasant day on the Valley Island.

Great credit is due the various committees in charge of the affair, and the manner in which the large crowds were handled speaks well for the Portuguese. Portugal was represented en masse. Transportation was generously furnished by all of the plantations. Ever Manager Weinsheimer of far-away Lahaina arranged for the transportation of his Portuguese laborers to Kahului by stage. Trainloads of people were handled without the slightest mishap. The commander and consul desire to express their appreciation of the splendid reception tendered them.

PICTURES BETTER THAN IS BOOZE

"It is a great deal better to have the people of the settlement contented and happy and attending moving picture shows in the evening rather than quarreling and making swipes," said President Mott-Smith at the Board of Health meeting yesterday afternoon, in making an informal report of conditions at Molokai as he found them on his trip there last week.

Every Wednesday four new sets of films are received at Molokai, and for the three succeeding evenings the theater, which consists of an iron roof supported by large posts, has an audience of from three to four hundred persons—all that can find room inside.

Although Auditor Fisher can not be made to see that the expense incurred in having a picture machine and getting new films for it is a legal charge against the care and segregation of lepers fund, yet this slight recreation has done more for contentment, keeping the jail empty and decreasing the making of swipes than any other form of recreation that has ever been tried.

In speaking further of the work and conditions at the settlement, President Mott-Smith called the attention of the board to the urgent need of a new building to take the place of the Bayview Home for Hawaiians, which was fast becoming altogether unfit for human habitation.

The Bishop Home for Girls needs repairs or enlargement, and it is proposed to erect another cottage, which can be built for $2100. Of the $5000 fund for general improvements, part should be used for repairs on the Bishop and Baldwin homes at once.

Dr. Sexton, who has made a recent trip to Maui and Kaula in the interests of the tuberculosis campaign, reported interest in both places, but that the work on Maui had taken an advanced start. The supervisors there had appropriated $500 for the construction of buildings, and a tract of 400 acres 3000 feet above the sea had been secured for the camp site.

Two buildings were to be built by the supervisors, each to have accommodations for six patients, and H. P. Baldwin will build another and maintain it.

It is the plan to make the camp self supporting, and to this end pigs and other animals will be raised, and as the soil is more than usually fertile, vegetables in abundance can be produced.

Six former residents of the leper settlement, who were discharged for the reason that they were believed not to have leprosy, have again petitioned the board for a reexamination, stating that they think they have the disease and want to go back to the settlement.

Two thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars are to be expended for the purchase of a motor truck to help carry on the increased work of the board in and around Honolulu. With the extension of sanitation work, the mosquito campaign and disinfecting, it is impossible to do the work with the present equipment, and it was the unanimous opinion of the board that the truck, which may be converted into an ambulance, should be purchased.

Other matters taken up at the meeting of the board were wholly of a routine nature.

ALEXANDRA TO HAVE LIBERAL ALLOWANCE

King's Widow, With Annuity of $350,000, Will Live at Sandringham.

LONDON, May 7.—Although no plans have yet been announced, and will not be made public until after the burial of the King, it is considered extremely probable that Queen Alexandra will choose Sandringham Palace as her residence. This magnificent property was owned by King Edward, the state having no voice in its disposition. Alexandra has always shown a preference for Sandringham, and close friends say she will make that her residence.

As Dowager, the first England has had since Queen Adelaide, relict of William IV, she will be entitled to an annuity of $350,000. It is considered highly probable that the Government will provide for the upkeep of Sandringham or any other palace she may choose as her own, and may also increase her yearly allowance, for she is very popular with the English people and will be accorded liberal treatment. She will probably spend considerable time in Denmark. She was a Princess of Denmark, her father being the late King Christian IX.

Many of the priceless personal belongings of King Edward, gifts from individuals and societies, will pass to Queen Alexandra, and eventually through her children, to the empire. The gifts made to him by other states and potentates in his capacity as ruler of Great Britain become the property of the empire.

Even a truthful man is occasionally guilty of exaggeration.

HOW AEROPLANES WILL APPEAR FLYING OVER ATLANTIC FLEET IN NEW NAVY TESTS

WASHINGTON, May 27.—For over a month navy circles have been actively at work planning a second tour of the world for the American navy battleships and cruisers. President Taft is going to go Roosevelt one better and is planning to send a larger fleet with a number of spectacular incidents to impress the powers of the far east and Europe. Within the next thirty days secret drills will be held in which tests will be made in connection with aeroplanes. A score of war vessels will carry on the test off Newport. Armed with bags containing flour, the aeroplanes will circle over the warships in an effort to blow them up with a five ounce bag of white flour. Just how the aeroplanes are to be hit has not been disclosed, but they are due to do some sensational flying if they escape the rapid fire guns of the ships. The men who will use the airships are in favor of being called "dead" by a jury rather than take the risk of having their machines hit even with paper wads. The tests are expected to be the most interesting and sensational held under the auspices of the navy for a long time. During the recent drills of the Atlantic fleet much attention was given to firing at small balloons that were turned loose from the different ships. The exact date for the tour of the combined fleet has not been settled, but it is announced at the navy building that the trip may start early in September, and the aeroplanes will be taken along. While the nations of the world are not in favor of blowing up warships from aeroplanes, still tests have been and will continue to be made until the matter is settled as to the practical end of the airships in the game of war.

FISH SPECIES OF EVERY FORM

Successful Expedition of U. S. Steamer Albatross.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—Returned from a two-year cruise in the south seas, the steamer Albatross in the harbor today brings back specimens for the Smithsonian Institute valued at thousands of dollars. The specimens include spawn of nearly every species of fish in the tropical waters of the Philippine archipelago. Specimens of large fish were shipped from Manila in tanks long before the Albatross arrived here.

The vessel was chartered and sent out by the Fish and Game Commission of the institute. It was in charge of Captain C. M. McCormick, U. S. N., and was equipped with a complete apparatus for catching fish, taking soundings, exploring ocean beds and had a supply of dynamite bombs to force deep sea fish to the surface where they could be captured.

The voyage of the Albatross was practically without incident. She encountered no storms, was never in danger. Her only unpleasant experience was a two weeks' quarantine at Honolulu because of chicken pox aboard on the return trip.

The Albatross went as far south of the Philippines as the Celebes islands and visited hundreds of harbors, charting bays and inlets for hidden reefs and gathering specimens of deep sea life.

In July the Albatross will go north for a complete investigation of the Alaskan salmon fisheries.

LARGE INCOME OF LATE KING EDWARD

At his birth the late King Edward was given an income of £60,000 a year. At the time of his marriage this had been increased to £100,000. From 1889 till 1901 he received £150,000 a year. From the Duchy of Cornwall he received £2,480,000; from Parliament, £1,936,000, and from his Sandringham estate, £260,000. From the turf he won in ten years £60,000, all of which shows a total of £6,106,000; while as King he received from the privy purse and other allowances £285,000 a year, or £1,925,000, a trifle over $5000 a day. Yet he was often in debt, and on several occasions he accepted loans from the Sassoons and the Rothschilds.

At the time of his coronation he paid the debts which he had incurred as Prince. One of his recent luxuries was the yacht Alexandra, which replaced the royal yacht Osborne.

FORT SHAFTER NEWS

The boys of this battalion are more than enjoying themselves in the swimming tank each day, by playing water games, such as polo, swimming, racing and diving.

Field Practice.
The men of Company G have been having field practice for the last week. It is the first year that the men have been getting this. The new firing regulations prescribe that it shall be held each year during target season. Companies E, F and H will have their field practice in a few days.

Ordnance Storehouse.
The Quartermaster Department has men working on the new ordnance storehouse which is being erected near the corral. The old ordnance storehouse is quite a way from the post, so it will be more convenient when the new building is ready for use.

Target Range.
Quite a number of men of this battalion have qualified as marksmen, so the qualified men have finished the preliminary course for sharpshooters and have started on their record practice. There are several men that are yet to shoot, but the following named men have been made sharpshooters in the last three days: Company E—Musician

Bowers, Private Sagrosaki, Private Rowland and Private Pickett. Company F—Quartermaster-Sergeant Wolf, Sergeant Simmons, Sergeant Collins, Sergeant Strauss, Musician Smith, Private Oakrey and Private Jubinville. Company H—Sergeant Lemm, Sergeant McCall, Corporal McKinnell, Corporal Plantkowitz and Musician Smith. Company G—Sergeant Kistler, Lance Corporal Thomas, Private Bowers and Private herd.

The officers' quarters are nearly all lighted up with electricity, as the electricians have one more building to wire. Then they will start on the enlisted men's quarters. They expect to get through with the post by next week.

Guard Mounting.
Guard mounting, which takes place at 11 o'clock each morning at the post, is always an attractive feature of the service regulations. Each morning there are about four or five orderly "bucks" out, and it is more than fun to watch them and see who gets it.

To Duty.
Private Howell of Company H, who has been mounted orderly for the commanding officer, has returned to his orderly duty this morning. Private Howell has been sick in the post hospital for four days.
