RETURNED FROM MOUNTAIN TRIP

Willis T. Pope, Will Cooper and F. M. Fultz returned to Honolulu last evening after a day's trip through the mountains in the neighborhood of Makua.

The party left Saturday morning and went as far as Makua on the railroad, striking in from that point to the mountains, visiting one cave and camping Saturday night on the ridge of the range nearly back of Makua.

Yesterday they took a long hike along the ridge of the mountains and finally came out at Mokuleia, where train was taken yesterday afternoon for the return to Honolulu.

Several interesting photographs of the country were taken on the trip.

Mr. Fultz, who accompanied the two Honoluluans, is superintendent of schools at Santa Barbara, and has done much climbing along the Pacific Coast.

He is on a visit to Hawaii and will lecture on Yellowstone Park next Friday at the Normal before the summer school.

VIOLATED PURE FOOD ACT.

Under date of May 23, Secretary of Agriculture Wilson issued a notice of the seizure of 5000 cases of pineapple belonging to the Hawaiian Development Company of Honolulu, several months ago, as it was misbranded under the provisions of the Pure Food and Drug Act.

This pineapple was shipped to California and was there seized, afterward being released upon guarantee that it would not be sold.

PROHIBITION NOT FOR THEM

Leading Hawaiians Tell Immense Throng Some Truths

"This Woolley-Thurston prohibition scheme is a mystery."—J. M. Poepeo.
"The Hawaiian are poor today because the Territorial government spent the people's money for the Russians to come here and do nothing."—G. K. Keawehaku.

"If Thurston and his crowd love Hawaiians, why did they overthrow Queen Liliuokalani from the throne?"—H. K. Kanho.
"Voting power is our last hope. Do not give it to Thurston and Woolley, who are trying to mislead the Hawaiians."—J. H. Wise.

At the meeting of the anti-prohibitionists at Aala Park last Saturday night, the leading speakers made the above statements to one of the largest gatherings that ever assembled there. They were most enthusiastically applauded as they told their stories. They declared their intention of voting against the prohibition tomorrow. They said that they did not want to be misled by Woolley and Thurston, whom they think are trying to disfranchise the Hawaiians of their liberty as electorate. They said they were going to mark "Aole" which indicates that they want to run their local government, and not to allow them to be misled by Woolley and Thurston.

Poepeo stated that there was a mystery in the whole thing, which he himself could not fathom, but which he thought would sure come to grief, because Thurston was at the bottom of prohibition. He said that the Hawaiians were not dying because of liquor. He read the report of the Board of Health covering the causes of death. Keawehaku, one of the ablest Hawaiian speakers stated most emphatically that the Hawaiians were poor because all the public money has been spent foolishly towards bringing the Russians, the Filipinos and other "good-for-nothing" immigrants here, who turned out to be useless laborers. He remarked that the Hawaiians could have been given employment with that amount of money, had the government officials been more careful in spending it.

"The government was quick enough to spend the money for those Russians and Filipinos; but forgot to remember that they—Thurston and others, had "aloha" for the Hawaiians, before whom they come now and ask them to vote for prohibition.

"This is a trick," he continued. "They have lived together with Hawaiians and yet they have done nothing to eliminate their hardships. The Hawaiians in plantations are not provided with good and livable quarters and yet these plantations made everything comfortable for the Russians, who, upon their arrival here, refused to work in plantations.

"This indicates positively that Thurston and his crowd, have no "aloha" for the Hawaiians—"Poiotei," shouted the crowd. The speaker was repeatedly applauded.

Kanho, the "Cannon ball of Kohala," delivered one of the best speeches of the night. His sound logic against prohibition won for him the kokua of the audience. He told his interested hearers to vote "Aole," and they assured him right there and then, that they would vote accordingly tomorrow.

He pointed out to the crowd that it was not prohibition that Thurston and Woolley were working for; but rather to disfranchise the Hawaiians. His remarks were kokuaed by the audience.

Wise, claimed that Thurston and Woolley had no love for the Hawaiians, because it was Thurston that dethroned the Hawaiian Queen. "This action of Thurston who is leading the prohibition scheme will not be forgotten by the voters at the ballot box tomorrow."

He urged upon the crowd to vote "Aole" in order to perpetuate their rights upon the land and to vote down Woolley and Thurston and others who are trying to belittle the Hawaiians.

The speakers were most enthusiastically applauded when they concluded.

Tonight another mass meeting will be held at Aala Park and able speakers will tell Hawaiian voters a few truths regarding the evils of prohibition.

PLENTY OF BASEBALL PLAYED ON SATURDAY AND SUNDAY

There was baseball galore on Sunday, and at the Athletic Park no less than three games were pulled off during the day. In the morning the Oahu Juniors had a game, and the Palamas beat the Asahis by a score of 6 to 5. It was an interesting struggle, and was anybody's game up till the first half of the eighth inning. The score was tied then, with five each, and it was in the eighth that the Palamas added one more run to their score. The Asahis could do nothing in their ninth, and the game ended in victory for the Palamas by a score of 6 to 5.

In the afternoon there were two games, and while one of them—that between the Marines and C. A. Cs.—was fierce, the game between the Wasedas and Portuguese was all right. The Japanese visitors beat the P. A. Cs. by one to nil, and it was an interesting go right through. The Chinese handed the Marines a pack, age to the tune of 13 to 4, and Laere was nothing to the game.

Marines vs. C. A. C.
The Marines were represented by a bunch of players who seldom if ever appear in the "big" games. The regular half-wet nine had gone to Leilehua to try and beat the Fifth Cavalry, and a scrub team faced the Chinese. The result was that the Marines had no chance of winning, and the game only made people laugh.

The C. A. Cs. started right out in their first and made two runs. The Marines also got going early and hit up three in their second. With the exception of one in their sixth, that was all the scoring they did.

The C. A. Cs., however, were in a scoring mood, and they proceeded to make three more tallies in the third. Then they failed to score in the fourth, but in the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth the Chinese added one, two, three and one runs, respectively.

Adams and Kimmel formed the battery for the Marines, and it was a very different one to that which usually does the work for the half-wets. However, the men did their best under the circumstances, and nothing else could be hoped for.

Ah Toon held the big mitt for the C. A. Cs., and the pitching was done by two men—Ayan and Amoy. The latter used to pitch great ball some years ago, but has not done much of late; that line, Apau, the regular pitcher of the team, he'd down first and did good work.

Wasedas Beat Portuguese.
The big game of the day caused a lot of excitement, and right through the hour and a half of play the fans were kept going at full pace with their rooting. And the noise the Japanese and Portuguese fans made was the real dope in the way of rooting for sure. Every bit of play was watched intently, and the cheers that went up as each man was snuffed out at first, second, third or the home plate, must have been heard at Walkiki.

The only score made was in the fifth inning, when on a wild throw of Freitas, Mikami got safe to second and then was brought home on a two-bagger hit by Yamawaki. It was hard luck for the Portuguese, and the odds are that the game would have been another eighteen-inning one, only for the wild throw.

Oh, the big fellow who generally plays at first for the Wasedas, did the twirling for the visitors, and he showed what a good all-round man he is in any position. Yamawaki did the catching, and he was quick as a cat behind the plate.

When the Wasedas scored their solitary run in the fifth inning the Portuguese fans were not very disgruntled. They figured it out that their team would get things going soon, and at least tie the score. There was nothing doing, however, and for inning after inning the Wasedas held the P. A. Cs. down to no score.

It looked at times as if the Portuguese would score, but something always happened to stop the desired run being made, and the hopes of the fans were dashed to the ground. The game ended in a blaze of glory for the Wasedas, who at last broke the un of bad luck they have been encountering.

SATURDAY GAMES.

Wasedas Beaten.
On Saturday afternoon the Wasedas once more went down in defeat, and this time it was to the Marines, who beat the Japanese by a score of 5 to 3, after a game that kept the fans excited all the time.

The Wasedas were first to bat and did nothing in the run-getting line. Neither did they make a tally for seven innings. It was in the eighth that the Japanese got going properly, and they made two runs, which they followed up with one more in the ninth.

The Marines hit up four runs in their first inning, and then did nothing for four innings. Then the half-wets made one more in their sixth, and the finish of the game showed the score to be 5 to 3.

Oahu College Defeat J. A. C. Nine.
The first game on Saturday was played between the Oahu College Alumni and the champion J. A. C. team. It ended in a victory for the ex-students, who beat their opponents by a score of 7 to 4. Hampton and Winne formed the battery for the Alumni, and Kealoha and Brito did like duty for the Japanese Athletics.

FORT RUGER AND MARINES LOSE IN MILITARY GAMES

Guards Have Hollow Victory Over Artillerymen—Fifth Cavalry Too Strong for Marines.

There were several games in the Military League series on Saturday and Sunday, and one of them, that between the Fort Ruger and N. G. H. teams, resulted in a regular slaughter. The Guards won by a score of 12 to 0 and the way the men scored was too quick to follow with the eye. The game was played at the league grounds, and a fair sized crowd of military fans was present.

On Sunday at Leilehua the Marines got a walloping from the Fifth Cavalry and the tally at the finish was 4 to 2. The half wets were thought to have an excellent chance of beating the horsemen but the good thing was beaten.

The regular Marine team that plays at the Athletic Park went to Leilehua, but they were not strong enough for the Schofield Barracks men, Peyton and Sinclair formed the battery for the Marines, and they did their best to hold the Cavalry down, but with no success. It was a sad and sorry bunch that returned to Camp Very and told their mates of the beating they had got from the Cavalry.

DOTS AND DASHES.

Company C defeated Company D at the Marine Camp by a score of 11 to 3; there are now three teams—A, B, and C, tied for the first place, and Company D is last.

Maddison, who is to box Sarconi, is said to be a real good man with the mitts and the bugler will have to be in great shape to have a chance of winning.

St. Louis College will soon have a baseball nine in commission once more, and the Saints mean to challenge any team in Hawaii.

The Hawaiian Electric Co. baseball nine defeated the Wichman bunch at baseball yesterday by a score of 14 to 4.

Jack Cordell and Pat Cornyn are in active training for their bout on Saturday night next and a real good go is expected.
