

PALAMA ENDS PROGRESS YEAR

Evidences of good, careful and systematic training on the part of teachers were plainly visible last night, when the children of the Palama Settlement went through their closing exercises on the occasion of the fifteenth anniversary, which took place in the large assembly hall of the settlement, on King street. The hall was fairly well filled with parents and friends of the children, and the assemblage of different races, representing the Occident and the Orient, was interesting to see.

W. S. Bowen, under whose supervision the work of the settlement has been carried on for many months, officiated during the progress of the program, and has made a splendid record.

The program consisted of musical selections by the orchestra, under the leadership of A. Evensen. Miss Bertia Fisher, the pianist, and Miss Hall helped materially in leading the chorus.

The Japanese fan drill and the wand drills by the girls were among the most interesting features of the program. The girls, attired in their blue uniforms, went through the performance to perfection.

The young men of the settlement pleased the audience with the exhibition of their skill on parallel bars. The booths showing the different work of the nursing and cooking departments were arranged systematically. Tents for Boy Scouts were pitched within the hall, with American flags flying over them.

Before closing, Mr. Bowen addressed the audience, in part as follows:

"This is, as the work stands today, arranged under the efficient leadership of J. A. Rath. It is hoped that it may increasingly meet the needs of the community in which it is located and steadily progress through methods of greater efficiency.

"But, before closing, we can not forget the act of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Jones that made all this possible. Fifteen years ago they noticed the need here in Palama for a little chapel that should tell for the Christ spirit in this neighborhood. They built it. Today this whole neighborhood is feeling the effects of that one act. It, too, has begun to step into the brotherly Christ-like life and to reach after higher things."

The program follows:

1. orchestra; 2. piano solo; 3. girls' drill; 4. orchestra; 5. the parallel bars; 6. Kamehameha Glee Club; 7. violin duet; 8. Japanese fan drill; 9. Kamehameha Glee Club; 10. piano solo; 11. orchestra; 12. choir; 13. reminiscences; 14. "Hawaii Pono!"; 15. "America."

The British steamship Anerley, the five-masted schooner Inca and the barkentine Amazon sailed from South Bend on May 20, carrying in the aggregate 6,500,000 feet of lumber. All three were bound for Australian ports. The Anerley carried 3,500,000 feet, and crossed out without the slightest trouble, although there was at that time a rather low run of tide.

THERE'S distinction about some clothes; an "air" of quality and fashion which most men are willing to pay well for. Just what it is, just where it's located, just how much of it is the man and how much is the clothes you can't always say. But that's one thing you get in clothes, and it's something you don't always get in other clothes. The fact is, you get more real "class" in these clothes than the average custom tailor can give you; the man who wants to be especially well dressed would much better buy these Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes, ready-made, than give up time and money to have clothes made to measure.

In these clothes you get better fabrics, better tailoring, better style, and as a rule better fit than you'll get in any other way.

We want you to know what we're offering you. If you think it's just what any clothing store offers you, come in and learn how mistaken you are.

MID-PACIFIC FOR JULY OUT

Number 1 of Volume II of the Mid-Pacific, for the month of July, is being handed to the public today, and the public is taking it as fast as it can be handed out. It comes out with a new dress on the front cover which would make it a marked book in any bookstand.

The magazine is filled, as usual, with hundreds of illustrations characteristic of life in the semi-tropics and through summer seas.

In this latest issue of the Mid-Pacific a reaching out to the Far East and bringing it within the charmed circle is made in a very interesting article, while the endless source of supply for articles on territory washed by the waters of the eastern Pacific furnishes most interesting matter for the rest of the book.

The July number of the Mid-Pacific is a most valuable one to send to one's friends of the mainland. It will take the place of a thousand personal letters, which could not tell the story half so well.

REPORT IS MADE ON COLLEGE EXTENSION

Professor Vaughan McCaughey, in charge of the extension work at the College of Hawaii, has prepared an extremely interesting report on the extension work for the past three years.

The plans, though still almost in their infancy, have worked out far beyond the expectations of the founders, and every reason is given to believe that the college will benefit a larger and larger proportion of those not able actually to attend classes at the college.

"The correspondence work has amply justified its existence and bids fair to increase markedly from year to year," says Professor McCaughey in his statement.

MARKET CLOSES WITH FEW SALES

The week on the stock market closed sluggishly today, with little movement in sugar securities, but with no decided trend either way. It is a typical "waiting market," and except for Oahu, Ewa and Olan not a stock moved today.

Oahu sold at 31.25 today, a drop of a quarter of a point, three blocks totaling 200 shares going at this figure. Ewa sold in small lots at 31.75, and two blocks, fifty shares each, of Olan, went at 4.025.

The Hawaiian exchange reports 300 Purisima Oil at 25 and 100 Jewel Oil at 96 as its sales for the day, and gives the following oil quotations:

The British freighter Boverie, arrived at San Francisco on May 21 from Sydney on a voyage which was interrupted when the steamship went ashore on a coral reef at the entrance of Nukualofa. The Boverie left Sydney in command of Captain Harper, who gives great credit to the British gunboat Encounter for the assistance the warship gave in getting the steamer into shape so that she could continue her passage to the Golden Gate. The four-foot hole which was punched in the hull of the Boverie on the port side was patched up by divers attached to the Encounter, which also assisted the steamer in getting afloat after she had jettisoned 600 tons of coal.

FERNANDEZ AS THEATRICAL MAN

(Special Bulletin Correspondence.)
HILLO, June 16.—Eddie Fernandez, of Honolulu, has blossomed out as a theatrical magnate in this section and if the rumors which are heard prove true is going to take a pretty big hand in the theatrical game. Yesterday he was the only bidder for the Galey Theater, which was knocked down to him for the upset price of $2000, which finally settles the foreclosure proceedings brought against Bailey and Lawson by Mrs. Eckbert, who has lost heavily upon the mortgage which she took from the theatrical pioneers in this city.

In addition to this Fernandez has made arrangements for the running of a show every Saturday night at Pahoa, in which he has been given the heartly cooperation of Col. Sam Johnson, the manager of the Pahoa Mill Company, and also has other plans on foot for the sending of a moving picture outfit throughout the Hilo and Hamakua districts, to give shows at all the plantations. His plan is to have a big automobile which will carry his complete outfit and to make arrangements with the various managers by which he can use the storehouse for theaters. He proposes to advertise by sending up big kites with signs telling of his show, printed in Japanese, English, Hawaiian and Russian. Small admission fees will be charged but it is expected that the novelty will take very well.

The Hands-Around-the-Pacific Club held a business meeting yesterday afternoon, word being received from Percy Hunter, that he may represent the club in London at the coronation ceremonies.
