EXCITING GOLF MATCHES MARK OPENING OF NEW HALEIWA LINKS

Visiting and Local Professionals Pronounce Course One of the Sportiest They Have Ever Played Over—Reilly Wins from Bell After Interesting Match in Which Local Amateurs Play Important Part.

Following up his fine performance of Saturday, when he established a record for the new Haleiwa course, Fred Reilly, the crack Coast golf professional, yesterday walked off with the purse hung up by the Haleiwa Hotel for a golf match between the Burlingame expert and Alex Bell, the Country Club pro. To add to the interest of competition, and give comparison of the play of the local scratch amateurs with the pros, the match was arranged as a four-ball foursome, best ball only counting. Reilly was partnered with George Angus and Bell with Harold Giffard. The former couple won 2 up and 1 to play.

The game was extremely interesting in point of closeness, and right up to the seventeenth hole it was anyone's match. Superior steadiness on Reilly's part finally won out, Bell being distinctly off on his first round, and falling to take advantage of a number of chances that would have given him a commanding lead. Giffard and Angus figured in a number of holes, and had to be reckoned with at all times. Both teams put up their best golf in the second round, and made very few mistakes toward the close. Reilly got a 36, Bell 37, and Giffard and Angus 38 on this round.

In the morning Bell and Laurence Redington defeated Reilly and Frank Halstead 6 up and 2 to play, best ball and aggregate. This was a return match for one played a week ago at the Country Club, when the Halstead-Reilly combination won, 2 up. These two teams are very evenly matched, and a third and final game has been arranged for tomorrow afternoon on the local course.

Course Improved. Both Reilly and Bell were loud in their praises of the Haleiwa course, which has been changed and lengthened to advantage within the last few weeks. The holes have been much improved, and the greens are quite true, and slow enough to enable players to putt firmly for the back of the cup. A real feature of the course is the new fifth hole, over the yawning sand pit known as "Hell's half acre." This used to guard the tee shot at the old sixth, but nothing but an absolutely topped drive was ever caught, and now it is used to better advantage to bunker-a "punchout" green, which lies blind at the summit of the sand slope. The hole is an iron shot, right over the face of the mountain of sand, and the cross wind that prevails makes the shot interesting, to say the least. A short poke lands the ball in all kinds of trouble, while to play to the left and then into the bowl requires nicety of execution and entails the loss of a whole shot.

"It's about the best short hole I ever saw," said Reilly. "I think this little course is a corker all round, and I can't imagine any better run for a couple of fellows than to come down with their golf clubs and spend a week playing it. There are very few real seaside courses in the States, and to play the whole round right alongside of the ocean is a real pleasure."

Bell took a turn at playing stellar golf in the morning match. He was pitted with deadly accuracy and rimmed the last cup for a 34, which would have tied the 9-hole record and also the 18-hole mark of 71 made by Reilly Saturday. As it was, he got a 37 1/2, which is exceptionally fine golf.

A. MAHAULU CHAMPION

Judge Archie Mahaulu is the new champion of the Haleiwa Golf Club, having won his laurels rather easily yesterday, in the finals of the club's annual competition. The former champion was Deputy Sheriff Oscar Cox, so the title remains with the majesty of the law, at any rate.

From point of entries the tournament was a disappointment. A week ago the qualifying round was played, the conditions being that eight should qualify for another medal round of 36 holes yesterday. Only five players entered, however, and naturally they all qualified. Yesterday there was a still further defalcation, only four men showing up for play, and this being reduced to three in the afternoon.

The scores were as follows:

1st	2nd	Tl.
A. Mahaulu	85	89	165
C. B. S. Al	94	93	187
H. Mahaulu	100	98	198
A. McKinnon	102

FIRST PLAY FOR ROEDERER PRIZE

A field of 28 golfers, graded in all degrees and skill, turned out yesterday in the Roederer trophy competition played over the Country Club course. Conditions were handicap match play against bogey, the event to take place on three different dates of three successive months. Yesterday was the first day of competition.

T. Gill has practically got the trophy on the table, for it is unlikely that anyone will equal his fine card of 8 up on the colonial in the next two trials. Gill had a 36-38 for his rounds. Bogey totals 82.

Following were the cards:
T. Gill, 8 up; James Greig, 1 up; W. Woon, 1 down; S. G. Widd, 2 down; James F. Fenwick, 2 down; F. W. Kiebahn, 2 down; O. L. Sorenson, 3 down; J. D. McInerney, 3 down; A. F. Ewart, 3 down; John Galt, 4 down; F. H. Armstrong, 5 down; C. P. Morse, 5 down; C. S. Weight, 6 down; W. Simpson, 6 down; H. B. Sinclair, 7 down; W. L. Stanley, 8 down; C. G. Owen, 8 down; M. A. Robinson, 9 down; R. A. Jordan, 9 down; J. O. Young, 11 down; H. W. McInerney, 14 down; J. J. Heiser, 14 down; C. G. Bockus, 15 down; C. A. Stoble, 18 down; H. H. Walker, F. L. Waldron, H. Focke, Joseph Andrade, no returns.

COHEN MAY BE AN INDEPENDENT

Joe Cohen is out of the "amusement combine," his retirement from the Honolulu Amusement Company having been made some days ago, and, according to reports, he will soon launch a new theatrical venture.

Mr. Cohen this morning declined to say what his future plans are, except that they are not yet entirely worked out. It is reported that he will open a house in the buildings under reconstruction on the site formerly occupied by the Club stables on Fort street, above Hotel.

"I can't say yet just what I'm going to do," said Cohen this morning. "The report that I am no longer connected with the Honolulu Amusement Company is correct."

Arthur Duffy, former amateur champion sprinter, thinks George Boning will lower Alfred Shrub's record of 9 minutes 9 3/4 seconds for two miles probably at the Olympic games tryouts.

WHAT HAS BECOME OF ISLAND SWIMMERS AND THEIR MANAGERS?

No Word Received From Pittsburgh as to Result of 500-Yard Race Saturday.

What has happened to Hawaii's representatives at the national swimming championships? Did Genoves follow the example of Duke Kahanamoku and do his swimming on the bottom of the tank, or has smoky Pittsburgh snuffed the pair and their numerous managers and companions out of existence?

These are the questions that the men who planned and financed the swimming invasion of the East are asking, and asking rather peevishly at that. The 500-yard championship was scheduled for last Saturday night. This was Genoves' principal race, and it was thought that Duke would also try his luck in it. Up to noon today John F. Soper of the local A. A. U., with whom the swimmers were supposed to keep in touch, had heard absolutely nothing of the race. It is possible that the event was postponed, but rather unlikely, as weather conditions would have no bearing on an indoor competition. In any event, a cable was expected, and why it hasn't come is a mystery.

Honolulu footed the bill to send a manager and a sort of official "jollier" along with the swimmers, making the party four in all instead of the two originally suggested. It's too bad if one of the four can't find time to dash off a cable to the men who are paying the piper, and who are anxious to know just how matters stand. Unless advice is received some time today, a cable of inquiry, with instructions to tend to business, will probably be sent to Manager Lew Henderson and Chief Companion "Duke" Miller.

PUNAHOU AND KAMS TO CLASH

The first of the three dual meets which will precede the annual tri-school athletic championships between Punahou, Kamehameha and McKinley, is being held this afternoon, Punahou and Kamehameha coming together on Alexander Field. The showing of both teams will be closely watched by everyone in touch with interscholastic athletics, and McKinley especially will have its rail birds out in force, to get a line on the form of both its rivals.

From a rough comparison of the two teams, it looks as though Punahou had a slight advantage. In weights and sprints Oahu has the edge, while Kam is strong in jumpers and distance men. The meeting is scheduled to start at 2:30 o'clock.

EDDIE PLANK PITCHED GREATEST GAME KNOWN

"Eddie Plank pitched the greatest game in the recent world's series between the Giants and Athletics that this game of baseball has ever known." This declaration, coming from Clarke Griffith, the Washington manager, can be given a deal of value, for Griff bears a reputation of having been one of the brainiest pitchers in the country and knows something of the art of hurling the horsehide. Griff goes on to explain that he means that Plank pitched the most finished game, taking in all the technicalities and the like of the pitching box, and it is certainly a flattering compliment to pay to the Athletics' veteran left-hander.

"Plank really worked to perfection," continued Griff. "He had terrific speed and his curves broke to a nicety. His side arm delivery was very baffling and gave for an error of the outfield the veteran would have scored a shutout. I have seen games in which pitchers struck out more men and did more sensational pitching stunts, but for some wonderful pitching which took advantage of the opposition at every turn of the road, Plank carried off the honors."

"Plank had the Giants bewildered at all times. They did not seem to know where the ball was coming, and their efforts with the stick were woefully weak. I have seen the Giants in action, too, and know that when a pitcher gets them in that condition he was going some little twicing."

"I AM SO NERVOUS"

How many times have you heard that expression from wife, mother or sister. In nine times out of ten, extreme nervousness in woman is caused by an unhealthy condition of the female system. Lydia E. TEAMS TO ROLL VIA WIRELESS

Arrangements Completed For Games Between Local and Kauai Two-Man Teams.

Players	18	7	11	.388
Bank of Hawaii	12	3	9	.250
Cosmos	18	3	15	.166

The two best bowlers of Kauai, who a short time ago issued a broadcast challenge to roll any two-man team in the Islands, will get their chance, a match having been arranged between Maser and Wolters of Lihue, and Williams and Winne, the local cracks who roll with the Honolulu's. The game will be played by wireless either Saturday, March 22, or March 9, each team rolling on its home alleys. The match will be an endurance affair, each man rolling twenty games. This will be a real test of bowling ability, for the long string leaves little chance for a duke win.

The Kepek Club of Lihue will send a man down here to watch the local men roll, and a Honolulu representative will go to Kauai to perform a similar duty there. Results will be sent by wireless. Saturday night the Brunswick-Balke took two out of three from the Cosmos, although the losers had the better of the total pinfall by 2. The game was both close and exciting throughout.

SPLITS.

Franklin bowled himself out in the afternoon.

For the Cosmos Guard had both high score and average—179 and 165.

In all three games it was left to the last frames to decide the winner.

Guard rolled a star game. He has improved a great deal since breaking into the game.

The Players will be at their full strength tonight against the B-B, and it will be a fight to a finish.

For the winners Wilkinson had high score, 179, and average, 158. Schmidt had just two pins less than Willie for the match.

Tuesday the Stragglers go up against the Cosmos, and unless they take two out of three games, the Stragglers will cease to be league leaders.

If R. W. Robinson would get in a little practise, he would no doubt make some of those high-average men sit up and take notice. He has the goods.

WISCONSIN COACH NOT IN FAVOR OF NEW RULES

MADISON, Wis.—Coach John N. Richards of the University of Wisconsin football team, believes that the new rules adopted by the rules committee in New York last Saturday will work to the disadvantage of the smaller colleges.

"The changes are reactionary," he said, "and weight, rushing and roughing have again come into their own. The change giving four downs to gain ten yards emphasizes the plunging play that will not get a gain of two and one-half yards, and it is clear that the open, hazardous play will not receive much attention from teams that are big and rugged."

"The removal of the restriction of the forward pass on the goal line was done so that the 'slam bang' play could score. The killing of the one-side kick will do away with the chances that a clever kicking and recovering team have had heretofore, and will enable the bigger and slower backs to do work in the open that once required speed, ability, courage and brains. It is what the East calls a safer and saner style of play."

GENOVES MATCHED AGAINST WALTER POMEROY OF FRISCO

Coast Crack Takes Up Defi of Local Distance Man and Race Is Arranged.

Vincent Genoves will find a tough swimming match awaiting him when he returns to the Coast. When he arrived in San Francisco a couple of weeks ago, he intimated his willingness to swim against Walter Pomroy, the Coast champion. Pomroy jumped at the offer, and the match is as good as arranged.

The San Francisco Call of February 17 says: Walter Pomroy, the Olympic club distance swimmer and present holder of the Pacific Athletic Association half mile championship, yesterday accepted the challenge issued by the Hawaiian champion, Vincent Genoves, who is now speeding on his way to the national championships at Pittsburgh and Chicago.

Pomroy noticed the challenge in the Call yesterday morning and quickly showed up at the Call office ready to accept the defi. The well-known local swimmer stated that if either the Olympic club, the Y. M. C. A., or any other responsible organization would promote a swimming meet under P. A. A. sanction and include a match race between himself and Genoves, he would gladly meet the island champion on the latter's return from the East.

Pomroy was in a very amiable frame of mind and was so enthused over the prospect that he went so far as to say he would allow his opponent to name the distance at a half mile or more, and also that Genoves can have the preference of a tank or an open race.

A race between these men would be a big struggle, and while Pomroy's times are better over the half mile course than the Hawaiian's, it must be remembered that the local man has done all his events in a tank, while the island champion is used to swimming in open water. The turns in a swimming race at all times are conducive to better times than a straightaway. Pomroy has done his half mile in 12 minutes 58 seconds, against Genoves' 13 minutes 26 1/2 seconds.

RANDOM SNAPSHOTS AT THE SPORTING TARGET

It is no surprise to note that the mainland papers have jumped to the conclusion that the front end of Duke Kahanamoku's name is a title of Hawaiian nobility. The San Francisco Chronicle, in a story giving a short sketch of the local swimmer's career to date, refers to him several times as "the duke."

The seniors of McKinley High School took off first honors in the inter-class track meet held Saturday last. The seniors copped a total of 56 points, while the sophomores, juniors and freshmen were bunched in the order named with 26, 19 and 15 respectively.

"Soap Box" Barron has snapped up the challenge of Tony de Mello and Manuel Cabral to run Soldier King a ten-mile relay race. Barron wants to meet the Portuguese speedsters at 5 o'clock this evening. He says that King is willing to run, but that the race must be for next Sunday, as King is off for the Coast on the transport.

The Colorado took the number of the All-Chinese ball team yesterday afternoon, said number being 6 to 1. The navy scored again in the second game of the double-header, which went to the Californians, who won from the All-army team, 6 to 3.

Soldier King won from Sailor Blumenthal over the mile distance yesterday afternoon. He gave a handicap of 50 yards and won by about a like distance.

Clark Griffith says that if he had not been signed to manage the Washington club for the coming season he would have made application to President Tom Lynch of the National League for a job as umpire in order to get even with Hank O'Day for some of the past grievances.
