Federation Action Is Garbled

CIVIC FEDERATION'S ACTION YESTERDAY.

Moved: That the matter of a citizens' ticket in municipal elections be referred to the Committee on Public Servants and Legislation, with instructions to confer with other civic bodies and report to the next meeting of the executive committee. Carried.

Civic Federation members who attended a meeting of the directors yesterday afternoon in Public Service Association headquarters were surprised this morning to read on the first page of the Advertiser that the federation, after a "most exciting meeting," had taken a stand to "bar parties in city elections."

The morning paper went further and printed as having been adopted a resolution that in reality was turned down. The resolution turned down would have put the association on record as in favor of eliminating political parties in municipal elections. It read as follows:

"Whereas, An overwhelming majority of the answers to the questionnaire as to the elimination of party lines in municipal elections was in favor of such elimination,

"Resolved, That the Civic Federation take the stand that party lines should be eliminated from municipal elections, and that party lines should be observed only in Territorial politics."

What the meeting yesterday afternoon really favored, what was really done, is shown in the wording of the

LAWRENCE STRIKERS PAY PRICE OF LONG BATTLE

LAWRENCE, Mass.—Though the strikers have every hope of winning the fight for higher wages in view of the promises made by the employers, there is still much suffering among those who have been out of work for weeks. The photograph above shows strikers' children being fed by charity in New York City.

Royalty Escapes Anarchist

(Associated Press Cable.)
 ROME, Italy, Mar. 14.—While King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Margherita were riding today in an open carriage en route to the Pantheon, they were shot at three times by an anarchist, but escaped injury.

Major Lang, commanding the escort, was desperately wounded. The assassin was pursued and beaten by a mob and arrested by the authorities.

FEUDISTS KILL IN COURT FIGHT

(Associated Press Cable.)
 HILLEVILLE, Va., Mar. 14.—During the trial of a noted feudist for murder, a mob of the prisoner's friends, headed by his brother, turned their guns on the courtroom, killing the judge, prosecutor, clerk, sheriff and one juror and wounding several others. The prisoner was rescued. Posses of militia are now ready to take the trail and hunt down the man and his friends.

FOUR MILLIONS IDLE FROM GREAT STRIKE

(Special Bulletin Cable.)
 LONDON, Eng., Mar. 14.—Four millions of people are idle as a result of the great strikes.

NEUTRALITY PASSES HOUSE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 14.—The House today passed the neutrality bill.

DEBATE TODAY; VOTE TOMORROW

(Associated Press Cable.)
 WASHINGTON, D. C., March 14.—THE HOUSE DEMOCRATS TODAY SPLIT ON THE FREE SUGAR BILL.

(Special Bulletin Cable.)
 WASHINGTON, D. C., March 14.—The debate on the free sugar bill takes place in the House today. The vote will be taken tomorrow. Every indication is that the bill will pass the House.

Big Guns To Boom

The boom of one of the big mortars at Fort Ruger will wake the echoes of Diamond Head within the next few days. After being silent since last September's target practice, these big dogs of modern coast defense ordnance will speak again, the occasion being an inspection test by Captain Walter of the Ordnance Department, who is in Honolulu for the annual inspection of all coast and field artillery in the Department of Hawaii.

Last year it was noted that there were some adjustments needed on one of the big mortars, and Captain Walter is going to fire it to satisfy himself as to its present condition, and efficiency. Just when he will make the test or how many times he will discharge the piece has not yet been determined.

It is an expensive proposition to fire big guns or mortars, and therefore actual work with the pieces is usually confined to annual target practice. Fort Ruger is looking forward with interest to the test.

SENATE MAY WHIPS AW FREE SUGAR MEASURE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 14.—The House is expected to begin discussion of the Democratic bill to levy an excise tax on all net incomes above $5,000 a year, including salaries, by Wednesday or Thursday next.

It will be reported from ways and means committee with the bill to put sugar on the free list.

The success of the two measures in the Democratic House turned all discussion today to the Senate, where it was admitted that both bills would have a tempestuous career. They will be referred to different committees, and with many Senators unfriendly to them there is little likelihood they can be linked together, as is proposed in the House.

The so-called income tax, or extended corporation tax bill, under the Senate rules, will go to the committee on judiciary, where, it is said, it will meet an unfriendly reception. The free sugar bill will go to the finance committee.

Senate leaders declared tonight that the finance committee hardly would feel justified in reporting a bill cutting off more than $50,000,000 in revenues without knowing what the Senate proposed to do with the income tax bill.

Andrews Not Able To Get In

Following a meeting of the executive committee of the Taft Republican League held in Republican headquarters at noon today, Alfred D. Cooper, chairman of the Republican Territorial Central Committee and a prominent member of the league, made a statement which amounts to a repudiation of Lorrin Andrews and Andrews' attempts to ally himself with the league's direction.

Mr. Cooper, when seen shortly after noon, stated that the principal subject of discussion is the progress of the League's work in the precincts on this island.

"It was mentioned at the meeting," said Mr. Cooper, "that a large number of precinct workers were under the impression, on account of the activities in several precincts and articles recently appearing in the press, that Lorrin Andrews was being employed by the executive committee; and it was decided that in justice to all concerned this misunderstanding should be corrected by a public statement.

"The League's work is progressing in a satisfactory manner under its present organization, and there are consequently no reasons for any rearrangements."

COMMITTEE TO MAKE REPORT ON BIG WATER RATE

Rates for city water furnished to the shipping of the port will be one of the important matters coming before the trustees of the Chamber of Commerce at a meeting to be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

While no details as to the recommendations of the Chamber's committee which went into the matter with a Merchants' Association committee have been announced in advance of the meeting, it is reported that the trustees will receive a statement from the committee recommending that the water rates to shipping be reduced as rapidly as possible until they are equalized approximately with the rates charged by other ports on the Pacific and other cities.

On good authority it is said that it was first proposed to recommend a rate of seven and a half cents per thousand gallons, or a cost rate, plus the cost of distributing the water as called for, but that later the committee decided upon the other recommendations. As the matter is still being considered somewhat, the final action is uncertain.

Police In Politics

Sheriff Jarrett, who had a fit of virtuous indignation shortly after the last campaign and declared that he was going to yank the police force out of politics or separate some of the politicians from their jobs on the force, has so far forgotten this that now the force is being actively used to further Jarrett's political plans, according to what some of the men in the department say.

It was reported last evening that several of the men on the force have been told by Jarrett to get out and

ANDREWS HAS CHANCE TO POSE AS A REAL POWER

The Bulletin has learned on unquestioned authority that Lorrin Andrews has been spreading the story around the city that prominent sugar men have approached him and asked him to handle the Taft League's campaign and to make it a campaign against Delegate Kuhio.

Andrews, according to this story, is to come in at the eleventh hour, take hold of the campaign for the sugar interests, and endeavor to get action in the Territorial convention adverse to Kuhio.

Andrews is said to have declared that he is hesitating about doing so, as he thinks that the Kuhio forces will control the convention and does not believe he could put through a program of opposition to the Delegate.

In the light of this story, some of Andrews' recent attempts to oust John Wise from the Taft League, in which he is assisted by a newspaper notoriously unfriendly to Wise, are easily explained. But it will take a lot more explaining before any but the most credulous will believe that Andrews has really been asked by responsible people to run the Taft League's campaign.

The Taft League's repeated announcement has been that it will keep the Kuhio-Pear controversy out of the convention so far as lies in its power to do, and those who have heard of Andrews' boast that the sugar men had to come to him for help, are slow to believe that the league has any idea of injecting an anti-Kuhio phase into the convention.

The story, however, is serving the "kill Kuhio" purpose, and puts Andrews in the desirable light of still swinging some political influence.
