FREAR LEAGUE FORCES DRILL LESSON INTO THE DELEGATES

Governor Frear's candidacy for delegate to the Republican National Convention was scrowded down to stay yesterday, when President J. P. Cooke of the Taft League carried more than half a hundred of delegates to the Territorial conclave off to Haleiwa and spent the day in organizing the Frear forces for a last-ditch fight.

There was no chance for Frear to be dropped yesterday, with the whip-hand held by his strong supporters. And the day's work was to round up as many as possible of the delegates and drill into them a program short and easy to understand, to drill it in over and over again and to see that they learned the lesson.

Two private caucuses resulted in a thousand rumors and the definite announcement from the Taft League as to its ticket for today's convention. The second caucus was largely a formality, held in order to include the Kauai delegation, which arrived late, but which as a matter of fact knew pretty well beforehand just what had been done and agreed upon it.

On the authority of President Cooke and others it may be said that at no time yesterday was the proposition of leaving Governor Frear off the ticket seriously discussed. The report in the Advertiser yesterday morning that Frear had been dropped was received with indignation by Mr. Cooke and the other Frear leaders. The report was branded as mischievous and manufactured out of whole-cloth.

Here is the program that was agreed upon in caucus and drilled into the delegates during the day:

For Delegates to National Convention. Governor Walter F. Frear, Oahu. Delegate Kuhio, Oahu. George F. Renton, Oahu. Harry A. Baldwin, Maui. John T. Moir, Hawaii. Charles A. Rice, Kauai.

For Alternates. Dr. W. T. Monsarrat, Oahu. A. Q. Marcellino, Oahu. John H. Wise, Oahu. Charles Wilcox, Maui. Carl S. Carlsmith, Hawaii. J. H. Coney, Kauai.

For temporary and permanent chairman—W. W. Harris, Oahu. For temporary and permanent secretary—Charles Wilcox, Maui. An open ballot in the convention. This program, particularly as regards Governor Frear for delegate and open ballot, was taught to the delegates by the Frear leaders. Of course, as the convention hinged upon the naming of the temporary chairman, Harris's candidacy for this position was the first consideration drilled into those who went to Haleiwa.

The special train, chaperoned by President Cooke himself, and with half a dozen others of the "high-ups" of the Taft League aboard, left Honolulu at 9 o'clock and arrived at Haleiwa about 11 o'clock.

John H. Wise and some others had previously automobilized down to see that the stage was set ready for the political show that was to be put on there, and Walter F. Dillingham came down in an auto also. He was looking after some of the hotel arrangements.

Cigarettes and Beer. Nothing was left undone to make the delegates happy and comfortable. They had the hotel almost to themselves. Carlton C. James, secretary of the Republican Central Committee, and several other of the workers came off the train laden with boxes of cigars and cigarettes, and the smoke rolled up like a burning cane-field. A quiet club from Waialua spent the whole day at the hotel, playing practically all the time. The lanais were set with long tables, and there were so many delegates that one big table was put in the drawing-room. The "cats" were first-class and plentiful, and plentiful, too, was the beer. Beer was the only alcoholic liquor served openly and bountifully.

Several autos filled with delegates and friends rolled up before noon. Lunch was served from 11:30 to 1 o'clock, and immediately after this the delegates to today's convention were called into a private caucus in a cottage on the hotel grounds.

Here was where the program was put up and talked over, and the vote on it was unanimous. There was comparatively little free discussion, most of the delegates merely listening and assenting when the time came.

The afternoon was spent in a multitude of little caucuses. The Maui delegation was well lined up, but the Hawaii delegation required some attention and the Oahu boys also were watched closely.

Two Delegations Shaky. The Hawaii delegation was unmistakably shaky in spots. Some of them, the Bulletin was informed at first-hand, resented the activities of John Wise, and others didn't want to take program in the matter of a temporary chairman. Also, several Oahu delegates were there who are Kuhllo men but did not wish to irritate employers by staying away.

At one time during the afternoon there was reported to be a decided movement for Judge Dole for chairman as against W. W. Harris. However, the vigorous exhortation of the Frear leaders prevailed and Harris's name stood.

Outside of the two big caucuses, the leaders held frequent quiet conferences. During the afternoon it developed that Charles R. Hemenway was favored for chairman of the Rules Committee, which would probably determine the question of an open or secret ballot, and M. F. Prosser chairman of the Credentials Committee.

One thing was noticeable, however, and that was that as a whole the day was one of harmony. What differences of opinion were expressed were all in the most subdued of keys. As the day went on and every delegate was talked to long and earnestly and usually in a corner by himself, the agreement became more and more noticeable, and when the Kauai delegation arrived, shortly after 5 o'clock, and the last caucus was held, it ended with three cheers for the Taft League ticket. Then the delegates sat down to dinner with laughter and song.

President Cooke, Chairman A. D. Cooper of the Republican Territorial Committee and others were much pleased with the way in which the delegates agreed upon vital issues, they said at the close of the day, just before taking the train.

Mr. Cooke came back by automobile, but the train carried practically all the others.

The Kauai delegation was expected out in full force, but two of the thirteen, R. Puuki and J. M. Kaneakua, did not appear.

Among Those Present. Among those at Haleiwa yesterday the majority of whom were delegates, were: E. M. Cheatham, Honolulu; E. S. Waihalo, Lahaina; John H. Wise, Honolulu; G. E. Alfonso, Honolulu; L. L. Schwartzberg, Honolulu; D. K. Hoopill, Honolulu; Saml. K. Paulo, Honolulu; M. T. Furtado, Honolulu; Henry Freitas, Honolulu; S. M. Kanakano, Honolulu; E. Worthington, Waipahu; Clarence L. TAFT MANAGERS EXPECT TO NAIL NOMINATION WITHIN TWO WEEKS BY PLEDGING DELEGATES

Roosevelt Faction Depends Now On Fight In Chicago Convention.

"FRAUD!" SHOUT THOSE WHO SUPPORT COLONEL

Stimson Takes Occasion to Declare Loyalty to Taft.

BY C. S. ALBERT.

(Special Bulletin Correspondence.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 29.—Within two weeks the Taft managers predict a sufficient number of delegates will be nailed down to insure the nomination of the President at Chicago. They give reasons for this faith and indicate exactly what what sources the necessary majority is coming. While the friends of other Republican aspirants do not openly admit this claim, they privately express the opinion that in all probability the result will be accomplished.

It has become self-evident that the Roosevelt faction will depend on a fight in the nominating convention to achieve victory. For that reason they are framing up all the contests possible, and may carry their point to the extent of holding a "ramp" convention after being thrown out of the regular organization. A contest will be set up on every plausible pretext and some ridiculous assertions have already been made in this direction.

"Fraud," say Roosevelt.

"Fraud" is now the watchword of the Roosevelt adherents. It is a standing joke that the Roosevelt leaders gave out a statement at Indianapolis at 3 o'clock in the afternoon of the State-wide primaries declaring they had lost because of fraud. Stearnroller methods and fraudulent practices are held responsible for Col. Roosevelt's failure to carry every district in which instructed delegates are chosen for Mr. Taft.

A sample of what may be expected even in Chicago was given at Indianapolis, where the Roosevelt men withdrew after it was demonstrated that the Taft forces controlled the convention and set up a little organization of their own. Every step was taken to so frame up matters as to make the best showing before the committee on credentials at Chicago.

The friends of Senator La Follette are still busily engaged in seeking to prove that Col. Roosevelt betrayed the Wisconsin Senator. They are making all kinds of political capital out of the alleged treachery and are advertising the Colonel's part in it to the widest extent. Col. Walter L. Houser, manager of Mr. La Follette's campaign, has followed up previous attacks with a letter denouncing Col. Roosevelt.

As for himself Senator La Follette started on a brand-new speaking tour April 1. He will make a special effort in Nebraska and Oregon to capture the delegations from those States. They will be chosen in primaries held April 19. As a side line Mr. La Follette is showing how he was promised full support by Colonel Roosevelt and then deserted.

Foss New Candidate. Governor Eugene N. Foss of Massachusetts has been added to the list of Democratic possibilities. He made a late start and did not announce until recently that he would be a candidate in the primaries of his State, which will be held April 30. He was aroused to take affirmative action by the understanding that Speaker Clark would attempt to step in and grab off the Massachusetts delegates.

When Governor Foss came out and said he would seek to capture the delegation from his home State, Speaker Clark gallantly said he would not contest the matter, but would stand aside and permit it to be a favorite-son affair.

Secretary Stimson has again taken occasion to declare his loyalty to President Taft. He has been under suspicion for some time because of his known friendship for Col. Roosevelt. In a speech delivered here the Secretary said:

"Ours is a party of doers, not critics. That is the reason I believe in the candidacy of President Taft. He has quietly and efficiently, but most courageously done those things which he believed to be right. I am glad that the Administration has been attacked from all sides, because it has caused the friends of Mr. Taft to wake up and find out what his program has been and in what manner he has carried it out.

"I am in a peculiar position in regard to the relations I have had with the two great leaders of the Republi-

DELEGATES OFF STEAMERS ARE WELCOMED

The island delegates who arrived early yesterday morning from Kauai and Maui were used like a rope in a tug-of-war contest between the Kuhllo-Taft League and the Frear-Taft forces. No sooner had the two steamers docked at their respective berths yesterday than J. P. Cooke and John H. Wise for the Frear-Taft League boarded the steamer and tried to capture every delegate who came down to the convention. S. L. Desha, W. C. Achi and J. C. Lane, watchdogs of the Kuhllo-Taft League, stationed themselves at the foot of the gangplank and held up the delegates as they came down and escorted them to automobiles, which were waiting outside the gate. Once they got on the machines they were taken away to the homes of Achi, Desha and Lane, where they took up their long sleep.

When Cooke and Wise came down to the steamers Kinau from Kauai and Mikahala from Maui and Meikohi, they found that their men had been carted away. However, the machines hired by the Frear-Taft League came away with a few delegates, though the majority of them went along with the Kuhllo-Taft leaders.

SLURS OF 'TISER AROUSE IRE OF HAWAIIANS

Hawaiian delegates to the convention were highly incensed this morning at the manner in which the morning paper treated the luau given by Princess Kalaniana'ole on Sunday afternoon.

The whole thing was treated by the paper in a style intended to poke fun at the Hawaiians, and distress the Princess, who opened her home not to any particular faction but to all the convention delegates and their families.

The luau was a very pleasant and pretty affair. The tables were bountifully supplied and decorated in the true Hawaiian manner. The Princess greeted her guests with a cordiality that was not tempered in the slightest by politics or the factional differences of the period, and the afternoon passed off most happily in every respect. The attendance of delegates was very large, there being over eighty-seven present despite the struggle to lug a number of them down to Waialua on the special train.
