We saw a load of turkeys pass our office the other day, which were generally about the circumference of common-sized plates. They were some of the mammoth products of our Noble soil.
Editors of Emporia News—Having seen my name in connection with the Democratic nomination for county officers, I would respectfully decline running, for the following reasons:
1st. I am engaged already in a calling which will furnish more work than I can do for some time to come.
2d. I have not asked for the nomination, and to obtain it without asking it, in these times, is such an irregular proceeding that I could not countenance it.
3d. I am, and always have been, a Republican, and will not do anything not to be used to distinct the onward march of the great party of Freedom.
4th. I remember, from spelling-book days, the story of poor Tray, who, though of unblemished character, fell into the company of vicious curs, and was badly beaten with the result. Not wishing to meet with the fate of that unlucky dog, I request the request to have my name scratched off the ticket.

The County Convention.
The assemblage at Fremont last Monday numbered about three hundred, nearly all of whom were Republicans. Although prior to an organization no united course of action seemed agreed upon, yet after the convention came together, and the fretted efforts of one or two debaters had subsided, the real purpose of the meeting became known, and business was proceeded with in quite a harmonious manner. The nominees of the former convention were urged to come forward and define their position fairly and squarely upon political issues, which was done with a willingness and sincerity both pleasing and satisfactory to all. With one exception the nominees on the former ticket subscribed to the Osawatimie Platform and plighted the Republican faith. These were re-nominated. Mr. Parham, the candidate for County Clerk, who could not subscribe to this requisition, was replaced by Mr. David McMillan, of Cottonwood township. The County Committee was likewise "put through" in a similar manner, and all but one—Mr. Parham—re-endorsed. Mr. J. Stotler was elected to fill his place. The nominees for State Senator and Representatives, of this county, were also called upon, and endorsed.
We do not know that this convention was a useless or "farceful" one. If candidates for public offices are too weak-kneed to withstand an examination before their party, they are unfit for the support of that party. The people desired to know what were the political principles of some of those whom they had been called upon to support.—There were doubts whether all on the former ticket were Republicans, for which the results since have shown there was reason. We have now a REPUBLICAN TICKET, pure and unquestionable, which we can heartily endorse and support, and we ask every true Republican to vote it next Tuesday.

County Democratic Ticket.
By reference to the proceedings of a meeting held at Fremont on Tuesday, which by request we publish, it will be seen that at least the Democrats have summoned the resolution—hopeless as it may seem—and put forth a full county ticket to be voted down next Tuesday. Of its nominees we will "deal lightly," knowing, as some of them have publicly confessed the inglorious fate that awaits them. The candidates may, some of them, feel willing to run and be defeated, but we have too high a regard for the intelligence of the men who nominated them, to think they would have done such a thing knowing otherwise.—There are some honorable exceptions, however—Mr. J. S. Pigman, Robert Best, and one or two others, whom we have a very high regard for, and dislike to see slaughtered in this way. Rev. R. C. Brant, who was put on for Superintendent of Schools, is a good man, and a true Republican; but since he has heard of the "honor" conferred upon him, has come out in a card and withdrawn.
The Democracy have not yet been beaten in this county, for the reason that they have not given the Republicans a chance. Perhaps they are willing, though, to suffer one defeat now, in order to be even with their friends elsewhere, and be "getting used" to the final defeat which awaits the whole party next year.

Indian Outrages on the Plains.
There has been now, in all, twenty persons murdered on the plains by the Indians, since the attack upon the Santa Fe mail train about four weeks since. The last Santa Fe mail from the west brought news of finding the bodies of four persons—three men and one woman—murdered and scalped, on the road west of Beach Valley. The troops, as usual, came along soon after the occurrence, and took charge of the wagon and goods. A man returning from the mines was also killed about the same time, while separated a short distance from his party.
It is reported that in consequence of the ferocity of the Indians, a large number of inward-bound Pike's Peakers are now lying back some distance, in waiting for assistance, and in a suffering condition. The Kaws—who are not free from suspicions of implication in these assassinations—have, we learn, since receiving their payment and departing for "a hunt," returned to Council Grove, without arms, and re-supplied themselves with guns, ammunition, etc.—This bodes no good. They had no money when they left, but did pay money, mostly, for their last purchases. We believe there is a combined organization between the different tribes on our frontier to cut off entirely all further communication and travel across the plains.
"WHERE ARE WE DRIFTING?"—This is the inquiring caption of a local political article in the Leavenworth Dispatch. As the Dispatch is one of those "model independent" papers, like the Topeka Tribune, Herald of Freedom and American Sentinel, we answer, into the sink of Democracy—and may God have mercy on your soul!

13th District Nominating Convention.
Editor News.—At a delegate Convention, held at Cottonwood Falls, on the 2d inst., for the purpose of nominating one Senator and two Representatives, for the 13th district, under the State organization, J. B. Smith was chosen chairman, and A. J. Chipman, secretary. There was a committee of three appointed on credentials, of which I was the chairman. One P. G. D. Morton, being over-anxious to receive the nomination of Representative, and knowing that I would not vote for him, raised the question as to my citizenship. He being an outsider, had no right to interfere with the proceedings of the Convention. The chairman not knowing the first rudiments of the authority vested in him, entertained the question. Said Morton harangued the Convention with his usual blarney, until it became tiresome. He then moved that Dr. P. G. Barrett, Mr. Thomas, and himself, of Butler county; Dr. Leonard, of Chase county, and N. S. Storrs, of Breckenridge county, be admitted to cast the five votes for Butler county, which was carried. Dr. P. G. Barrett, of Butler county, immediately declined, upon the ground that he had not been appointed by the citizens of his county, and that the county was now properly represented. Dr. Leonard refused to serve, and I also refused to sit in said Convention, as a citizen of another county, and withdrew, calling for the return of my credentials. I was the only delegate present, from said county, who had a right to express the wish of its citizens, being regularly appointed, and had the credentials of three other regular appointed delegates. As a citizen of Butler county, and in behalf of the people of said county whom I represent, I condemn the proceedings of said Convention, in assuming to dictate to Butler county who are and who are not their citizens, as a decided insult, and bordering on Border Ruffianism. When a delegate comes to any Convention, having the proper credentials, the Convention is bound to receive him. No Convention has a right to go behind the credentials of its members, and before a body of men having the first particle of knowledge of its duty, a question of that kind would not be entertained for a moment. According to all established rules, no Convention has a right to admit as a member any outsider, from any county, except by the consent of the regular nominated delegates present from the county interested—unless authorized by the Convention which nominated the delegates, to appoint substitutes. N. S. STORRS.

Republican Mass Convention.
Pursuant to call, a convention of the Republicans of Breckenridge county was held at Fremont, on the 31st ult., to consider upon the nominations made at Americus, on the 11th, which was organized by the appointment of S. L. Kenyon to the chair and Dudley Randall secretary.
Speeches were made by Messrs. Baker, Eskridge, and others, respecting the position of parties and the object of the Convention, whereupon a motion prevailed that each candidate on the ticket before-named be requested to define his political principles for the action of the Convention. Each candidate therefore addressed the meeting, and each was separately voted for, by acclamation. The following are the nominations made:
For Representative—S. G. Elliott.
Sheriff—E. Goddard.
County Treasurer—R. W. Stevenson.
Register of Deeds—J. K. Swallow.
County Attorney—S. L. Kenyon.
County Surveyor—H. S. Sleeper.
Superintendent of Schools—L. Crandall.
County Clerk—David McMillan.
Coroner—R. W. Cloud.
A motion then prevailed that a similar course be taken with reference to the County Central Committee, which resulted in the choice of the following:
Wm. Richardson, Waterloo; Ira Sagur, Agnes City; S. L. Kenyon, Americus; J. Stotler, Emporia; G. A. Cutler, Forest Hill; S. G. Elliott, Fremont; C. Columbia, Cahola; James Jackson, Cottonwood.
On motion, the nominees for State officers, in this county, were called upon, and each separately endorsed by the Convention.
On motion, the Convention adjourned, sine die. S. L. KENYON, Chairman.
DUDLEY RANDALL, Secretary.

The Harper's Ferry Insurrection.
Old John Brown, the leader in the late negro insurrection, is not dead, as first reported. Cook had not been caught at last accounts. Brown, with Stevens, and Green, are having a trial at Charlottesville, Va., which commenced on the 25th.
David McMillan, Esq., of Cottonwood, who received the nomination for County Clerk at Fremont, is said, by several of our friends who know him, to be a good scribe, and otherwise well qualified to fill the office for which he runs on the Republican ticket.
The editor of the Linn County Herald has been presented with a beet which measures over two feet in circumference. That beet can't be beat!

The homicide on the Cottonwood is still undergoing investigation, before Justice Pherson, at Cottonwood Falls—prosecuted on the part of the Territory by J. M. Rankin, and defended by L. D. Bailey, S. N. Wood, R. M. Ruggles and J. H. Watson. We defer publishing a full account of the transaction until all the testimony shall have been introduced; but sufficient has transpired to warrant us in saying, that rumor with her thousand tongues, has greatly exaggerated this unfortunate affair. It appears that the deceased was a desperate and dangerous man, of violent and ungovernable passions, that he had threatened and attempted the destruction of several of the defendants, who have all been reported as good citizens, and of the highest respectability; and however imprudent their conduct may have been, there can be no doubt but that they acted from an overpowering apprehension that their own safety required the terrible forfeit.

Since the Harper's Ferry denouement, the press and public have been puzzled in their conjectures as to the reason of so strange and hopeless a plot as that attempted by Old John Brown. Dr. Cutler, of this county, who was well acquainted with Brown and his sons three years ago, informs us that the old man once told him he was insane, and that insanity was hereditary in the family. We believe this.—As to Capt. Cook, whom we knew here in Kansas, he was one of those "seekers after glory," who would do almost anything for a captain's commission.

Fires.—The magazine, market and four squares were burned in New Orleans on the night of the 23d ult., involving a loss of $500,000.
A fire occurred at Louisville, Ky., on the night of the 22d ult., which destroyed property amounting to over $100,000—mostly insured.
A large fire occurred at Sing Sing State Prison, on the 2d ult., by which $80,000 worth of property was destroyed. Supposed to be the work of an incendiary.
An extensive lager beer brewery, situated at Manhattanville, N. Y., was totally destroyed by fire on the 2d ult. Loss, $250,000; insured for about $145,000.

The lands hitherto reserved for the use of the New York Indians, have been found by recent surveys to be larger than was necessary for that purpose, and consequently a southern boundary for the reservation has recently been marked out, considerably within the limits heretofore held for those Indians.
It is reliably reported that Commissioner Greenwood of the Indian Department has persuaded the Kickapoo Indians to have their reserve sectioned preparatory to disposing their tribal relations and becoming citizens. Also that the Otoes have given a similar consent in regard to their reserve and for the same purpose.

Judge Terry, the slayer of Senator Broderick, was arrested at his rancho near Stockton, Cal., on the 17th ult. He was brought to San Francisco and gave bail for $20,000 to answer the charge.
THANKSGIVING.—This time-honored festival occurs in N. Y. and N. H. on the 24th of November, and in the Canadas on Thursday, the 3d of the same month.
The Post Office Department has filled orders for three hundred thousand of the new self-ruling stamped envelopes. They are now for sale at the principal post offices of the Union.
The monument to Henry Clay, in Lexington, Ky., is nearly completed. It is said to be one of the handsomest works of art in the country.
Flora Temple has recently outdone herself, surpassing the unparalleled short time which she made at Cincinnati, by trotting her mile at Kalamazoo, in two minutes, 19 1/2 seconds.

A Mr. Hickok, of Toronto, C. W., has invented an apparatus by which he is enabled to walk on the water. He recently gave a few friends an evidence of his skill.
WONDERFUL FIDELITY OF A DOG.—A correspondent of the Leavenworth Times, writing from Beach Valley of the discovered party recently murdered by the Indians on the Santa Fe road, relates the following remarkable instance of the faithfulness and devotion of a dog:
Beside the body of the woman sat a dog, watching eagerly her face, as if to catch a smile or word of recognition. Encircling his neck was a neat collar, bearing the name of "Haase." The officer in command of the escort that accompanied the mail, took the dog by force away from the place where they had buried the dead, and was bringing him in with the intention of keeping him, but when they had proceeded about twenty-five miles he escaped and started back towards the place from whence he had been taken. When the mail again passed, the faithful creature lay dead on the grave of his mistress.

LOCAL.

RELIGIOUS APPOINTMENTS.—Rev. Mr. Phillips, from Iowa, of the Christian denomination, will preach in the Christian Church this evening, at 7 1/2 o'clock; on to-morrow (Sunday) at 10 A. M., at the house of Rev. S. G. Brown; and at the Christian Church on Sunday, at 3 P. M., and 7 1/2 P. M.
Rev. R. G. Brant will preach in Templars' Hall on Sabbath morning, at 10 1/2 o'clock. Also, at the same place, at 7 1/2 P. M., he will deliver a lecture to young men. The public are invited to attend.

EVERETT SCHOOL.—Mr. O. A. Tripp, the teacher of one of our schools, proposes to open an evening school, at Templars' Hall, to be held twice a week, in which he will teach English and French. All interested will please attend on next Monday evening.
Mr. A. E. Bancroft will open a singing school at Templars' Hall, on next Tuesday evening. We were present at the preliminary meeting held for this purpose last Monday evening, and believe that Mr. B. is well qualified to instruct the art of reading music, and of vocal sounds. The terms for thirteen lessons will be one dollar. We hope all will attend.

EMPORIA HOUSE—A CHANGE.—Mr. E. R. Trank has bought the Messrs. Crowe's interest in the Emporia House, and will hereafter conduct it with Mr. F. Schindling, one of the former proprietors. Although we regret the loss of Mr. Crowe and his estimable family, yet we know Mr. Trank to be a liberal-hearted and clever gentleman—besides a good printer—and with his lady will doubtless maintain the former favorable reputation of the house.

A free supper and dance will be given at the "Emporia" on Friday evening, the 11th, at which a public institution is given.
Gen. Hicks and John Hale returned from the Gold Mines on Thursday—coming through with pocket-books. They left Denver on the 6th of last month. They report mining news rather more favorable. Several quartz-crushing machines had been put in operation, which were paying well. A theater was being built in Denver, and a large number of other costly buildings were going up.

Thursday was decidedly the windiest day of the season. It blowed everything loose in these parts. The air was so filled with dust and ashes from the burnt prairie, that we could hardly get a glimpse at the sun. It was a bad day, for ladies and hooded skirts.
ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn that Mr. J. M. Miller, of Dow Creek, received injuries from the bursting of a gun one day last week which will probably cause the loss of one of his eyes.

DRY WEATHER AND LOW WATER.—On account of the absence of rain for about six weeks, the Cottonwood and Neosho are, at this time, lower than have been known before, with perhaps one exception, for two years. Our town wells are also beginning to suffer—there not being sufficient water in them to supply the necessities for family use. By the way, cannot owners of horses, cows, etc., take their animals to the river to water, and let the people of town have what there is for domestic and other uses. We believe if this was done there would then be enough. More wells are needed, and this is a good time to dig them.

WHAT EMPORIA WANTS.—Above all other necessities of this country, is needed a good FLOURING MILL, located at this point. A liberal investment in such an enterprise will pay fifty per cent on the dollar the first year.
Also, a Harness and Saddlery manufactory.—There would be enough repairing alone to keep one workman employed constantly.
Also, a Coopers' Shop. There is no one in this country, that we know of, who makes barrels, and they are very high and in great demand.
There are other manufacturing establishments needed here, but either of the above would pay men of capital and experience better than anywhere else in Kansas. We will freely answer all inquiries on the subject.

NEW BUILDINGS.—Mr. P. G. Halberg has put up a neat little building adjoining Haesler & Ferguson's, on Commercial street, within a few days past, into which he has moved with his stock of groceries. He will also erect a bakery soon.
Mr. R. Parham, Jr., is erecting a small building on the south side of A. G. Procter's & Co's store, to be used as an office.
Mr. A. Isbell has commenced the erection of a dwelling on Constitution street, which will be one of the largest and finest in town. The frame is already up.
Mr. Pickett raised the frame of a dwelling on Merchants street last Wednesday.

Several more houses will go up soon, and the work on a number of others already commenced is being pushed ahead rapidly.
Our friend, Dr. Swisher, has recently returned from the "Old Dominion" with that "aid and comfort" which most bachelor (not excepting ourselves) are so anxious to obtain in this sparsely settled country. We agree with the Doctor, that he has "done well," but don't think we can afford the same expense and trouble. We forgot, though, that the "senior" is absent, and we don't know what he may do.

A SCHOOL HOUSE NEEDED.—There are now about eighty scholars' names on the roll in this district—over sixty of whom are in regular attendance at our schools. A good school house is needed to put them in. By next spring we will want room for one hundred at least. Now is a good time to build a house. There is not a man in town or living near it, but would subscribe more liberally towards it than any other public enterprise. Why cannot one be built on the site of the proposed town hall? Let some of our public-spirited citizens make a move in this desirable undertaking, and there is not a doubt of its success.

Considerable damage has been done by prairie fires north of us during the past week. The American Sentinel mentions that Mr. Elliott, on Allen Creek, had a good frame barn with its contents including a fine horse burned, and sustained considerable other loss in fencing, hay, etc. Sheriff Goddard, McCune, Phillips and others, on Dow Creek, met with severe losses in their crops and fencing. In the neighborhood of Superior the losses are reported as much more severe, including buildings, cornfields, hay and grain ricks, together with cattle and hogs.

1st. I am engaged already in a calling which will furnish more work than I can do for some time to come.
