

BIG SANDY NEWS.

Louisians now talk glibly, if not wisely, of first and second oil rock, conglomerate, anti-clinal, casing off, nitro glycerine go-devils, and sundry other matters pertaining to oil.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Garred have returned from their wedding tour and are now occupying rooms at the Chattaroi. They were handsomely serenaded Saturday evening by the Louisa Brass Band.

One of our Boyd county cotemporaries speaks of the "funeral obsequies" of a worthy citizen. Funeral obsequies is good. Almost as good as "9 a. m. to-morrow morning."

Mrs. Cal Wellman, of Calletsburg, who was visiting Mrs. Judge Ferguson, slipped and fell on a board walk last Monday morning and sustained painful injuries to her face and right knee.

The County Court has memorialized our Senator and Representative to procure the passage of a law enacting the establishment of the whipping post as a punishment of petit larceny and some other offences.

And still the oil fever rages and the boom is blooming. News reached us Sunday that the Broas well, on Laurel, reached oil, with fine prospects of a strong flow. We heartily congratulate Mr. Broas, and wish he and all others in the business may "strike it rich"

Charlie Parsons, an old time offender, was captured in Ashland Monday by Frank Williams and brought to Louisa and lodged in jail. Parsons is wanted here on several charges, among which is the burglary of Swetnam's store two or three years ago. It is safe to bet he will remain in our jail—if he wants to.

Post Office Etiquette.

When you get your mail stand at the delivery window and read it; being very careful to look at the directions on your letters and guess whom they are from. By this means you will impress those who are waiting to be served with a sense of your importance. The busy post master will also look with pleasure for your daily visit.

Last week a jury found Jerry Holly, colored guilty of vagrancy and ordered that he be sold for a period of six months. He will accordingly be offered for sale next Saturday, to the highest bidder. The purchaser, if any there be, will have the absolute control of said Holly's labor, and will be allowed to inflict reasonable punishment to compel his purchase to work. Deputy Sheriff Lackey makes the sale.

Louisa has arrived at that period in her history where it becomes necessary for her citizens to go on wheels. In other words, we have fallen into line and opened a Rink. Drake's Hall is the place, and Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays the time when young and old can put on skates and show their agility. It will be managed by Mill Burns, which is a guarantee that there will be plenty of fun. Ten cents admission and an extra dime if you put on the rollers. It is hardly necessary to say that good order will be preserved.

VERTIGO, HYSTERICS, CONVULSIONS—all Nervous disorders in fact—are cured by Samaritan Nervine.

"My wife had fits for 35 years," says Henry Clark, of Fairfield, Mich. "Samaritan Nervine cured her. Your Druggist keeps it. $1.50.

Through the liberality of our citizens and the Board of Trustees Louisa will be provided with a fire apparatus. Last Tuesday night the Board made an order appropriating one hundred and eighty dollars and directing R. C. McClure to contract for the pump. Enough had already been raised by private subscription the necessary hose, ladders and buckets, and the equipment will be purchased at once. We shall now be protected in some measure from the devilish work of the incendiary, and can obtain insurance at reasonable rates.

Trial proves that honesty is the best policy in medicine as well as in other things. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a genuine preparation, an unequalled blood purifier decidedly superior to all others.

The hands working what is known as the town hill road have been warned to work the road on the 13th and 14th of this month. It is rather late in the season for work of this kind, but we would not seriously object to it if the work is to be confined to the road already made. But we understand it to be the intention of the overseer to comply with the order of the Court made some months ago and change the direction of the road. Against this we protest as vigorously as we know how.

The proposed change is possibly well enough in its way, but there is neither sense nor reason in trying to make a new road at this time of the year.

Dig a road now from, say where H T Lyttleton lives, up the hill side to the first level on the old road, and what will be its condition by next spring? It will be simply a streak of mud.

As we remarked before we do not
