We have received the Lincoln Citizen published at Hamlin Va. by our old friend Mac Workman. It is a neat five column quarto well gotten up. We gladly place it on our exchange list, and extend our best wishes to the printer.

A very disastrous riot occurred in Chicago last week between the Socialists and police force of that city. While the officers were trying to disperse a crowd of the socialists, a bomb was thrown into their ranks, killing several of both the officers and Socialists. A full account will be found on our first page.

It is very evident that the Commissioners' investigation of the treatment of the convicts at the coal mines will not sustain the report of the legislative committee. Whether or not the convicts were drilled for the commissioners is a question that may be asked without eliciting an answer, but those who have been watching the matter hold to the opinion that the legislative committee was unduly prejudiced while the commissioners were biased and between the two, the truth and the convicts will be left in the mines.—Elizabethtown Messenger.

DANGER! A neglected cold or cough may lead to Bronchitis, Consumption or other fatal disease. Squire's Croup and Cough Cure is a cold as by magic. Best thing for dyspepsia, indigestion, sick headache as thousands testify.

If a new lawn is to be made, prepare the soil thoroughly, plowing in an abundance of manure. Sow early; we have had the best results on light soils with Red-top, or the variety called Rhode Island Bent; and on heavy soils, with Kentucky Blue Grass, each with a quart of White Clover seed to a bushel of grass seed.

Small plots are better turfed with sods from the roadside or common, or from an old pasture. Old lawns may be renovated by a dressing of ashes, fine bone, or nitrate of soda, and sowing seed upon the weak spots.

If new walks are needed, make them with a good foundation.—Am. Agriculturist.

K. Kawasaki, son of the Grand Treasurer of the Empire of Japan, finished his course in the Commercial College of Kentucky University yesterday, and will leave for home to-day. He is not quite twenty years old, is very bright and quick, and made an excellent student. This is perhaps the first royal graduate ever turned out by an American Commercial College.—Lexington Press.

Eight Hours a Day.

The New York Sun concludes an editorial on the eight-hour movement.

Within certain limits, the movement for shorter hours attracts sympathy, but the question will not be settled by sympathy, but the harder rules of practical business. That ten hours' pay will be given for eight hours' work is not seriously to be expected at present. The sensible solution of the question is to pay, not by the day, but by the hour.

Mr. Joseph C. Hendrix has been appointed postmaster at Brooklin, N. Y. The appointment satisfaction not only to the Democrats but to the leading business men of the city, irrespective of politics. The noteworthy feature of the case is that the appointment was made directly by the President without the interposition of a Congressman. It is unfortunate for the country that the President does not personally know more of the applicants for important office.—Commonwealth.

Republican demagogues will make the most of the Jeff Davis revival at Montgomery, Ala. They will even undertake to raise the question that the Union is in danger! The masses of the people have more sense than the narrow-minded partisans give them credit for.

The display at Montgomery was simply a mark of respect of the Southern people for their leader in a great struggle, in which he and they ventured all, and lost all, and in the result of which all have acquiesced. This much is well understood by all who care to know the facts. It was transitory, ephemeral—as a bubble on the water. Furthermore, and not least significant, it was conducted under the stars and stripes.—Commonwealth.

Senator Blackburn and Representative Willis.

After their arguments before the Senate Committee on Post-offices last week over the appointment of Mrs. Thompson as Postmaster at Louisville. Senator Blackburn and Representative Willis met in the corridor. What occurred between them is narrated by the correspondent of the Louisville Times.

Mr. Willis said he was not mad, and did not intend to get in a bad humor, and hoped the thing would pass off pleasantly. The Senator said he was mad, and would remain so until the end of time. He said he would transfer the fight to Kentucky and have it out there. He says there is no let-up in him.

Republicans will no doubt look for the promised fight with a good deal of satisfaction.—Commonwealth.

The Robertson County Tribune speaking of Judge S. S. Savage says:—"One of the most brilliant young intellects in North-Eastern Kentucky, and a lawyer of commanding ability is announced in this week's Tribune as a candidate for Congress in the 9th Congressional District. He is a resident of Ashland, and is a nephew of Kentucky's jurist, Col. Laban T. Moore. Judge Savage is striking in personal appearance; a fluent, forcible speaker; an active, popular canvasser; a man of great strength of character, and fine natural ability. Coupled with the accomplishments, Judge Savage has boundless vim and energy, and if he is made the standard-bearer of the Democracy in the coming Congressional contest in this District, he will make a thorough canvass of every county, and effect a working organization of his party. His candidacy certainly merits the liveliest consideration at the hands of the Democratic party in the Ninth Congressional District."

Editing a Paper. (Dawson's Ga.) Journal. Editing a paper is a pleasant business—if you like it.

If it contains much political matter, people won't have it.

If the type is large it don't contain much reading matter.

If we publish telegraph reports, folks say they are nothing but lies.

If we omit them, we have no enterprise, or suppress them for political effect.

If we have a few jokes, folks say we are nothing but rattleheads.

If we omit jokes, folks say we are nothing but fossils.

If we publish original matter, they damn us for not giving selections.

If we give selections, people say we are lazy for not writing more and giving them what they have not read in some other paper.

If we give complimentary notice we are censured for being partial.

If we don't all hands say we are a great hog.

If we insert an article which pleases the ladies, the men become jealous, and vice versa.

If we attend church, they say it is for effect.

If we remain in our office attending to our business, folks say we are too proud to mingle with other fellows.

If we go out, they say we don't attend to our business.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Should be kept constantly at hand, for use in emergencies of the household. Many a mother, startled in the night by the cautious sounds of Croup, finds the little sufferer, with red and swollen face, gasping for air. In such cases Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is invaluable. Mrs. Emma Gedney, 150 West 126 st., New York, writes: "While in the country, last winter, my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with Croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral was tried in small and frequent doses, and in less than half an hour, the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the Pectoral saved my darling's life." Mrs. Chas. B. London, Guilford, Conn., writes: "Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Saved My Life, and also the life of my little son. As he was troubled with Croup, I dare not be without this remedy in the house." Mrs. J. Gregg, Lowell, Mass., writes: "My children have repeatedly taken Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for Coughs and Croup. It gives immediate relief, followed by cure." Mrs. Mary E. Evans, Scranton, Pa., writes: "I have two little boys, both of whom have been, from infancy, subject to violent attacks of Croup. About six months ago we began using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and it acts like a charm. In a few minutes after the child takes it, he breathes easily and tests well. Every mother ought to know what a blessing it has found in Ayer's Cherry Pectoral." Mrs. Wm. C. Reid, Freehold, N. J., writes: "In our family, Ayer's medicines have been blessings for many years. In cases of Colds and Coughs, we take

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and the inconvenience is soon forgotten."
