The fourth quarterly meeting will be held at the M. E. Church, South, next Sunday. This winds up the conference year as the annual conference meets on the 25th at Huntington, W. Va.

Dave Wellman, of this place, and Tella Hampton were married in front of the church last week. It will be remembered that these two parties were principals in a three-cornered shooting affair that occurred on our streets several months ago.

Little Emma Vaughan entertained her friends yesterday evening from five till seven o'clock, in honor of her sixth birthday. Miss Tella also had a number of the young folks there from eight till eleven to meet her guests, Misses Cassidy and Newberry.

An elegant leather rocking chair and a handsome picture were presented to Supl. M. G. Watson by the teachers composing the Lawrence county institute at the close of the session week before last. The picture is very popular with the teachers.

Last week we failed to mention the marriage of Lewis W. Barbers and Miss Abigail Bartram, which occurred at the residence of Wm. Holt. Rev. Howes performed the ceremony. The bride is the 19-year-old daughter of John Bartram of Fort Gay.

Dr. Boland preached his last sermon for the present conference year last Sunday night, and it was a supreme effort. During his year's service here the people of Louisa and vicinity have become very much attached to him and his good wife, and it is the desire of all that they be returned to this charge. He is one of the ablest preachers we have ever had.

Miss Mary Yates, one of Cattlettsburg's most popular young ladies, has accepted a position with Valentine & Newcomb as saleslady and assumed her duties today. She is quite well known here and her numerous friends are glad to know that she will be connected with this most popular firm—Huntington Advertiser.

Albert Murray, of this place, and Miss Nancy Pyles, of Whites creek, were married Wednesday and came to Louisa. They are now at the home of Dr. Murray, father of the groom. The bride is a niece of Mrs. Dr. Murray. We are informed that they will make Louisa their home. The News offers congratulations.

Democratic Convention.

A considerable number of the Democrats of Lawrence county assembled at the court house last Tuesday, in accordance with the call of the chairman.

The convention was called to order by the County Chairman, Robt. Dixon, who stated that the object of the meeting was to name and instruct delegates to the Senatorial and Legislative conventions to be held at Cattlettsburg, Friday, Sept. 20th.

J. W. Woods was elected temporary chairman and M. F. Conley secretary. Upon motion the temporary organization was made permanent.

A motion prevailed to appoint a committee on Resolutions, and the chair named M. F. Conley, W. D. O'Neal and W. D. Ruff. They reported as follows: "We, the committee on resolutions, beg leave to make the following report:

Resolved, that we approve the call of this convention and of that at Cattlettsburg next Friday, for the purpose of nominating a Democratic candidate for the State Senate, and for the Legislature.

2nd, that it is the sense of this convention that the votes of Lawrence county be cast in the Senatorial convention at Cattlettsburg for Senator John J. Johnson, as long as his name shall be before that convention.

3d, that all good Democrats be appointed delegates to the Cattlettsburg convention, and that they be instructed to vote as a unit.

4th, that we send our delegates to the Legislative convention at Cattlettsburg instructed, and that all good Democrats be made delegates.

5th, that we denounce and deplore the assassination of President William McKinley. We believe it to be a national calamity, and a bold thrust from the dangerous hand of anarchy at our form of government. We recognize the high character and integrity of the murdered President, and extend our sympathy to the family, and especially to his admirable, invalid wife. We declare in favor of stringent laws for the suppression of anarchy, and for the protection of our officers.

The report of the committee was adopted, and the convention adjourned. J. W. Woods, Ch'n; M. F. Conley, Sec.

Mr. Thos. A. Garrigan, of Huntington, and Mrs. Romaine Mathan Theakston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Friel, Sec. of the county, will be married this month.

TO KANAWHA.

Assistant U. S. Engineer Thomas Ordered to That River.

Scarcely had the News been printed last week, containing mention of the probable change of Engineers, when Mr. B. F. Thomas received the order to report at once at Charleston, W. Va., to take charge of the Great Kanawha river. Mr. Scott who has long been in charge of that river, was ordered to take the supervision of Big Sandy river. He promptly gave way to Mr. Thomas, but refuses to come here and has asked a hearing from the higher authorities about the matter.

In the meantime Mr. A. M. Campbell is in charge of all the work on Big Sandy river.

Sudden Death of a Child.

The little daughter of Mrs. Cora Abbott Robertson died at Culpepper Va., Tuesday last week, after an illness of only a few hours. She was attacked with congestion of the lungs in the forenoon of that day and died in the evening. Mrs. Robertson and children had been here since the burial of her mother-in-law, three weeks previous, and expected to return to Washington City soon.

Little Evelyn is remembered by Louisa people as a bright and very interesting little girl. She was here with her mother last summer, visiting home folks. Her age was seven years. Her death was a severe shock to her grandfather, Postmaster J. A. Abbott, and other near relatives. The body was laid to rest beside that of her father, who died when she was an infant.

To whom it may concern:— I am not a candidate for the office of Police Judge of the City, as I find that it would require too much of my time from the mill, and of course the company would not agree to that. Neither could I ask them to. Thanking my many friends for their kind offer of support for said office, and hoping that we can and will find one who will discharge the duty of Police Judge to the satisfaction of all I am, very truly,

JAMES M. ROSE.

The local council Junior Order American Mechanics visited the Louisa Graded School in a body on the afternoon of the 13th inst. They presented the school with a beautiful flexible back Oxford Teachers Bible and a handsome United States flag. The pupils were all assembled in one room, and the members of the council stood facing them. All listened attentively to the appropriate presentation address by Rev. Mr. Bryan, of Cassville. Then the visitors and pupils filed into the yard and took position facing the building while the flag was being raised. The exercises were interspersed with patriotic songs, and concluded with three cheers for the flag.

STOCK SALES.

Arrangements Made for Sales of Live Stock at Louisa.

EVERY COUNTY COURT DAY.

A few of the citizens of Louisa have taken the trouble to arrange for sales of live stock to take place here on County Court day (the third Monday) in each month. It is intended to be a permanent enterprise, conducted for the benefit of the sellers and buyers of the entire surrounding country. It is not a money making scheme, but is simply a public spirited move which it is hoped will benefit the masses of this and surrounding counties.

The plan is to bring buyers and sellers together here on those days and have sales made either privately or by auction, as the owner in each instance may prefer. Persons having any kind of live stock for sale are requested to bring it in here on County Court day. The Big Sandy News has agreed until further notice, to insert free of charge, advertisements of stock to be offered for sale each month. Parties intending to have stock here should send us description of it as early as possible, giving date at which it will be offered for sale. This will insure the presence of persons desiring such stock. Let everybody help this enterprise along.

An Eloquent Sermon.

The M. E. Church South was filled last Sunday night by an audience that appreciated one of the best sermons ever heard in Louisa. It was a masterly effort, fitting conclusion to Dr. Boland's year in our midst. After reading the text, "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life," the preacher began with this declaration: "This text is worthy of being written in flaming characters on the canvas of the skies, and punctuated with the stars." This sentence was a key note to a gem among the one hundred discourses the doctor has preached during the present conference year. The three minutes' introduction was a graphic description of Christ as the Great Teacher, revealing the love of the Father to a fallen world, as manifested in the plan of redemption. The speaker in this connection showed how beautifully the love was taught in the three parables of the lost piece of money, the lost sheep and the prodigal Son; alluding in his own tender way to the "patient sweeping," the "weary wanderer in the mountain gorges," and the "kiss of forgiving love" to the patient younger son. This prepared his audience for the announcement and discussion of the following grand proposition: "Some of the benefits of the atonement are universal and unconditional, while other benefits are conditional, and extend only to those who comply with the condition. 1. The blessings which are universal and unconditional are, first, life and probation; second, the privilege of being saved; third, the enlightening and convicting influence of the Holy Spirit; and fourth, the Resurrection of the body. 11. The blessings which are conditional, and which extend only to those who comply with the condition are, first, justification or pardon; second, regeneration, or the renewal of our moral nature in the Divine image; third, grace to sustain us in life and at death, and fourth, life eternal. 111. The condition is faith. But "faith without good works is dead"; hence there is a sense in which it may be said faith and obedience are the conditions of final salvation. And in this lucid logical way Dr. Boland proceeded with an argument most attentively followed by his intelligent audience. Its discussion reached a grand climax in the proposition that the bible taught a universal atonement and a conditional personal salvation, and that these two facts are the great pillars in the temple of theology; the beautiful supports of the arch which embraced the wonderful plan of salvation. One represents God's love to the world in the gift of His beloved Son; the other represents man's responsibility in the work of his personal salvation. And then, with eloquent words and appropriate gesture, the reverend gentleman said he would embrace this pillar and speak to a dying people of the Father's love as manifested by his gift of the One whose "purple blood" was for all. But he must also clasps this other pillar—the pillar of a living Faith and good works. The above is the nearest skeleton of a most eloquent sermon, it was clothed with the logic of the trained theologian, beautified with appropriate poetic quotations, and delivered with the touching earnestness which marks Dr. Boland's pulpit discourses.
