A SERVANT'S DEED.

Killed His Employer and Daughter and Wounded Another.

The Woman Missed Money Recently and an Investigation was in Progress by the Police When the Tragedy was Enacted.

Philadelphia, April 2.—Possing that he would be arrested for theft, Win H. Lane, a colored butler, shot and killed his employer, Mrs. Ella F. Parbush, her 12-year-old daughter, Madeline, and probably mortally wounded another daughter, Eloise, aged 7 years, at their home shortly before noon Tuesday. Lane, who is 25 years of age, escaped from the home and four hours later was captured by Philadelphians while waiting in Camden, N. J., to board a train for Bridgeport, N. J. He was immediately brought to this city, was identified by little Eloise, and confessed his crime.

Recently Mrs. Parbush had missed small amounts of money and finally she informed the police, who began an investigation, which was still in progress when Tuesday's tragedy was enacted.

Suspicion fell on Lane and a warrant was sworn out for his arrest. According to Lane's confession, he saw Mrs. Parbush on Monday night count a large roll of bills. Knowing where she kept the money, he hid his time and at an opportune moment late in the evening he stole $20. The day morning Mrs. Parbush missed the money and questioned the colored man, but he denied all knowledge of having seen it. After getting that she would be placed on him and that Mrs. Parbush would have him arrested, Lane planned to murder the mother and her children, rob the house and disappear.

At 11 o'clock he went to the third floor and found Mrs. Parbush in one of the middle rooms. He shot her twice once in the breast and then through the heart. She died instantly. Eloise, who was in another room hearing the noise, ran in to see what was the matter, and as she entered Lane shot her in the abdomen. She fell and the house being dark she lay there until she was found by the police.

Lane, in his confession, says he only found $120, two watches and a pocket book.

FIFTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS.

Perished in Flames.

Six of One Family Lost Their Lives in Their Burning Home.

The Mother Was Seriously Burned, But Her Injuries Will Not Prove Fatal—One Son Was Away at the Time.

Johnston, Pa., April 2.—Six persons were burned to death Tuesday night in Prosser Hollow, a mile from the outskirts of the city, in a fire which destroyed their home.

The dead: Philip P. Mitchell, aged 53; Jacob P. Mitchell, aged 11; Mary Martha Mitchell, aged 12; Charles Edward Mitchell, aged 11; Jesse M. Mitchell, aged 8; Alice Frances Mitchell, aged 6.

The members of the family had retired with the exception of one son, who was away. In the house at the time were sleeping Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell and the children who were burned and three other children who were not.

Mrs. Mitchell and her daughter Sophia were the first to be awakened by the heat and smoke of the flames. They woke the father and ran outside and screamed for help. Neighbors were aroused but they could do nothing but stand helplessly by and watch the house burn and with it the bodies of the father and five children. Mrs. Mitchell endeavored to save the children and gathered them in a room above the kitchen. They were frightened and as fast as she got them into this room they ran out. Finally she was compelled to abandon her efforts to save all the children.

Mitchell, as soon as he was awakened, rushed down stairs to the kitchen to get some water to extinguish the fire. He did not realize the extent of the flames when he left his room, but when he reached the first floor he saw it was impossible to save the house. Then he returned upstairs and was not seen alive again. He perished in the burning rafters of his own home trying to save the lives of the children. The five children were never seen by any one outside the house.

Mrs. Mitchell was seriously burned, but her injuries will not prove fatal. The house was reduced to ashes.

GRON'S STATEMENT.

Investigating the Charge of Bribery in Sale of West Indies.

Washington, April 2.—The select committee of seven appointed under the resolution presented by Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, met Tuesday morning for investigation of the charges made in the alleged secret report that the Danish government, through Capt. Walter Christmas, bribed congressmen to effect the Danish island sale.

Representative Grosvenor appeared and made a statement concerning the subject. He spoke of receiving the note introducing Mr. Gron and of going over the papers with him. At that time Mr. Grosvenor felt that the matter should be looked into with a view of ascertaining if there was any irregularity with that and with the view of conferring with Chairman Cannon, of the appropriations committee, and asked that if an appropriation bill for the Danish purchase came in that action on it be deferred until Mr. Grosvenor returned from a western trip and had an opportunity to go over the papers.

Mr. Grosvenor said he was a republican and he had not had a candidate for the Danish mission. He produced a letter in favor of his candidate signed by Senator Cullom, of Illinois, and endorsed by the late Senator Davis, of Minnesota.

In reply to specific questions, he said he had not had any communication with any one who had been bribed or whom anyone had attempted to bribe. At the state department he had only personally seen Mr. Kasson. Mr. Gron was then excused. Chairman Dairiel announced that he had summoned Albert H. Kelley, Col. Brown and Francis Hanson, and that they would appear on Thursday.

HANGED BY A MOB.

Walter Allen, Charged With Assault, Lynched at Rome, Ga.

Rome, Ga., April 2.—Walter Allen, a Negro charged with criminally assaulting Miss Blossom Adamson, a 15-year-old girl in this city Monday afternoon, was taken from jail Tuesday night by 4000 people who battered down the prison doors and hanged to a tree in the woods a prisoner of the city. A volley was fired at the mob and fully a thousand bullets entered the Negro's body.

Miss Adamson was on her way to a dressmaker's late Monday afternoon when she was met by Allen, who told her that a dressmaker at a designated place was waiting to see her. The young girl went to the house mentioned by the Negro, who followed her into the house which Miss Adamson found vacant.

A lady on a nearby porch, attracted by the noise of the struggle, succeeded in frightening Allen away and he escaped. Late Tuesday evening he was captured and placed in jail. As soon as the news of his capture was learned Tuesday night a mob formed and marched to the jail, demanding the Negro. The sheriff refused to deliver the keys and pleaded that the law should be allowed to take its course. The jail door was forced open with sledge hammers and the steel cage of Allen's cell broken in. The Negro was carried a square and a half away and allowed to make a statement. Allen declared that he was innocent and prayed that the guilty party would be found. All the men who took part in the hanging were unmasked. Miss Adamson belongs to one of the most prominent families in Rome.

Farm For Sale.

Contains about 150 acres. General warranty deed and clear title. Situated in Lawrence county at the forks of Nats creek, about 1 mile from the river and Richardson, and about one mile from the mining town of Peach Orchard. The C. & O. R. L. passes through it, a hauling station being on this tract. Contains about 15 acres of the celebrated Peach Orchard vine of coal, well developed. About 60 acres under fence and cultivation, consisting of hill side suitable for pastures and Rich creek bottoms good for corn etc. Has 5 small but good, houses, renting at $1 to $2 per month each. Miners live here and work at the Peach Orchard mines. Has several springs of good water—springs never known dry. Has a small but excellent apple orchard now bearing, and an orchard of small trees coming on. Being situated as it is—at the forks of the creek, forks of the county road and right at a station, here is a good stand for a country store. The hill land is good, and the bottoms are very rich and are overlaid by the river nearly every year. Has a very desirable location for a country residence, and in many ways this tract is very conveniently situated.

There is a fine mill site on this tract; a splendid water mill was once in successful operation here, and another one could soon be erected at small cost.

Terms—cash, or half down and note with good security due in six months for balance.
