THE NEWS OF THE WEEK.

A Daily Resume of Important Happenings.

May 5.
The work of constructing the tunnel through Lookout Mountain will soon begin. All the necessary deeds to the right of way for approaches have been signed and other preliminaries arranged.

Figures obtained from railroad sources in Washington indicate a phenomenal growth of trackage in the South. There are shown to be under construction or contract 4,786 miles of road in the Southern States as against 2,721 miles in the rest of the country.

Casualties killed in a crowd of people at the Church of the Holy Cross in L. S. Russia Poland, and seven persons were killed. Disturbances continue to occur in Warsaw and business is practically suspended. The Social Democrats are exerting their influence to the utmost to bring about a general strike.

It is stated that Naa Patterson will remain quietly in jail for the present, even if bail is allowed, in order that she may rest after the ordeal of the trial. Her counsel will endeavor to reach an agreement with the District Attorney's office on the question of the amount of bail, though they say they are prepared to furnish bond for any reasonable amount.

A sensational turn was taken in the Hargis case at Lexington yesterday, when Judge Parker refused to instruct the jury for accessory before the fact and many lawyers declare that under the circumstances conviction is impossible. The court refused to give an instruction for accessory on the ground that this offense was not properly charged in the indictment. Many believe, however, that the jury will find Hargis guilty.

After a second declaration to the writ, that agreement was impossible, the jury in the Hargis case at Lexington was discharged. Ten of the jurors were for acquittal and two of them refused to be charged from the belief that he should be convicted. He was ordered back to jail and a motion for bail, argued by the attorneys, will be passed upon Monday morning. No surprise was caused by the outcome of the trial, as under the instructions of Judge Parker, no one looked for a conviction.

A dispatch from Tsingtau, Shantung, China says that twenty-five Russian warships have been sighted off Yanchow. The news from Manchuria indicates that another land battle of importance may be fought soon, as Field Marshal Oyama is apparently getting ready to assume offensive operations on an extensive scale. The rumors of the approaching return of Gen. Kuropatkin from the front seem to be definitely confirmed, and it is said that Gen. Zarubalev, of the Fourth East Siberian Corps, will be his successor. Falling health is the reason assigned for Kuropatkin's return to St. Petersburg. Four Russian torpedo boat destroyers seized and burned a small sailing vessel westward of Hokkaido.

May 6.
Prof. Edward H. Boone, of Paris, widely known as a hypnotist, died at Lexington of heart failure.

President Fairbanks received delegates to the railway congress meeting in Washington, in the room of the White House last evening. A number of resolutions have been issued at Omaha by William Loeb, the secretary. It is now in the hands of the President.

A dinner was given in honor of the late Mayor of London last night. The dinner was given at the Hotel Hamilton and was attended by a number of prominent citizens.

May 7.
The Shah of Persia left Tehran on his visit to Europe.

First Lieut. Moses R. Ross, of the Artillery corps, United States army, stationed at Fort Monroe, Va., was accidentally drowned in the most terrible manner.

To make a test case of the State Sunday closing law, the proprietors of a barber shop at Lexington, Ky., charged with violating it, were arrested.

The San Francisco Board of Education has taken a determined stand against the admission of Chinese and Japanese pupils to schools where white children are being educated.

All records were broken at New York yesterday for the number of immigrants who passed quarantine. With in twelve hours 12,629 foreigners, arriving in steamer, were permitted to land.

A hundred Russians are reported to have been killed during an attempt by Persians to move the Bajawars frontier post into Russian territory. The Shah has recalled the Governor of Ardebil, according to Russian reports.

Attorney General Hays, Common Wealth's Attorney Franklin and Special Attorney C. J. Bronston have gone to London to represent the State of Kentucky when the attempt is made to have the United States Courts assume jurisdiction over the case of Caleb Powers.

May 8.
The President's party broke camp in the Colorado mountains yesterday morning and rode horseback thirty miles to Glenwood Springs. The party bagged ten bears. The President killed four. Rain or snow fell almost continually while they were in camp. He will leave Glenwood Springs tomorrow on the return trip to Washington.

The grand jury at Pekin, Ill., has returned indictments against officials of the Standard Oil Company on the charge of having procured one of their secret service agents to swear he owned a horse and wagon when it really belonged to the Standard. The Standard's alleged purpose was to break up a competing oil peddler's business and was successful.

The investigation by the Federal grand jury in New York into the operations of the tobacco trust is a part of the work of the Department of Justice, started months ago with the purpose of securing evidence for future use. The inquiry was ordered on a complaint of the Kentucky and Tennessee Planters' Association, and has been going on in Tennessee as well as in New York.

An L. and N. passenger train, bound for Louisville from Cincinnati, left the track on a curve at Sulphur, Ky., yesterday afternoon, killing the engineer, John O. Day, of Louisville, and injuring eight others. The engine and rail car and baggage cars were piled in a heap thirty feet from the track, which was torn up for a hundred yards. Only three passengers were injured.

Justice Watts Parker, of the Fayette Circuit Court, yesterday admitted James Hargis to bail in the sum of $25,000. The bond was signed by Floyd Day and J. C. M. Day, wealthy lumber merchants of Jackson, and M. C. Courtney and John M. Stevenson, of Winchester. Judge Parker made an address in the court room in which he defended his course in the case, declaring that from a standpoint of law the instructions to the jury were so simple that even children understand them.

Application for removal of the case of Caleb Powers from the Circuit Court of Scott county to the United States Circuit Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky was made by Powers' attorneys before Judge Cochran at London yesterday. Judge Cochran ordered a hearing of the question set for June 8. Only a partial transcript of the record of the Scott Circuit Court was filed by Powers' attorneys, and they were given further time in which to complete it. A motion for a writ of habeas corpus for the prisoner was made and taken under advisement by Judge Cochran.

The French authorities claim to have received news that the Japanese squadron is again on the move, having left Kung Hai Bay for an unknown destination. The Russian Admiralty at St. Petersburg has received advice that the divisions of Nebogatoff and Rojstevsky have effected a junction. The Singapore correspondent of a London paper claims to have received advice from Tokyo to the effect that Togo's fleet is concentrating in the Korean channel. Reports from Manchuria say that Oyama's troops are advancing and have forced back the Russian outposts for a distance of about eighteen miles. Military experts in St. Petersburg think Oyama is preparing for a movement toward Vladivostok.

AN OPEN LETTER.
From the Chapin, S. C. News: Early in the spring my wife and I were taken with diarrhoea and so severe were the pains that we called a physician who prescribed for us, but his medicines failed to give any relief. A friend who had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy on hand gave us each of us a dose and we at once felt the effects. I procured a bottle and before using the entire contents we were entirely cured. It is a wonderful remedy and should be found in every household. H. C. Bailey, Editor. This remedy is for sale by A. M. Hughes.

Keep Busy.
Bob Durdette, besides being a humorist of the highest class, is a philosopher. Listen to his advice to young men:
Remember my son, you have to work. Whether you handle the pick or pen, or wheelbarrow or a set of books, digging ditches or editing a newspaper, ringing an auction bell or writing funny things, you must work. Don't be afraid of killing yourself by overworking on the sunny side of thirty. Men die sometimes that it is because they quit at 5 p. m. and don't get home till 2 a. m. It is the interval that kills my son. The work gives you appetite for your meals it lends solidity to your slumber; it gives you a perfect and grateful appreciation of a holiday. There are young men who do not work, but the country is not proud of them. It does not know their names even; it only speaks of them as "old-so-and-so's boys." Nobody likes them; the great, busy world doesn't know that they are there. So find out what you want to be and do it. Take off your coat and make dust in the world. The busier you are the less harm you are apt to get into. The sweeter will be your sleep, the brighter and happier your holidays, and the better satisfied the world will be with you.

TERRIFIC RACE WITH DEATH.
"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Shipped at A. M. Hughes' drug store; price 50c.

CLEARED FOR ACTION.
When the body is cleared from a fever, by Dr. King's New Life Pills you can tell it by the bloom of health on the cheeks; the brightness of the eyes; the firmness of the flesh and muscles; the buoyancy of the mind. Try them. At A. M. Hughes' drug store, 25 cents.

To the NEWS:—
I received a copy of the NEWS today and was surprised to see the little article I wrote over a month ago, but as I did not entirely miss the waste-basket I will try again.

In my other letter, I mentioned something about our city election; and will now say it is a thing of the past. The Republicans won by a large margin. It was just a show to watch the politicians work that day. They voted everything in the city and there were hacks and carriages and some automobiles all hustling and rattling to get out the women with which to defeat the present Mayor, Mr. Goodwyn, but on counting the vote showed that 80 per cent of the ladies voted for him so he carried about 70 per cent of all the votes in the city.

Our water works are just now going in and will be in operation by Sept. The standpipes will be fifty-feet high, and thirty feet in diameter, and our well is eighty feet deep, and sixteen feet in diameter with four laterals over 200 feet.

We have plenty of water and wind-mills, and no scarcity of wind for pumping water, so it is but little trouble to have an individual water system of your own—many have them.

Our little city is getting pretty now as the trees are looking so nice—it will have as nice forestry some day as Newport, Ky. The farmers just look grand and the old Russian and German farmers are smiling all over their faces saying what is the finest ever known in the country. They are planting now and here is the way they do it: No plowing but they take a "sulky" plow, and throw up ridges by turning both ways and then plant corn in the bottom of the ditches when about six-inches high they harrow the ground and that is about the amount of work it gets sometimes a farmer will plow it once in some never touch it after it is planted. Such farming as that in Kentucky would be foolish, but they raise the corn here just the same.

The land here is rich and farmers can't use the manure and the law forbids them dumping it by the roadside, so they hunt for fills in the roads and put it there. It is not needed on the farms at all.

I attended a lecture at the Y. M. C. A. today by Rev. Dr. Dickinson, who will preach the baccalaureate sermon at our graduating class to-night at the M. E. Church. The commencement will be at the Opera house next Friday evening at 8:30. We have a nice class graduating from the high school this year, and when I talk to them it causes my mind to revert to 1897—May.

We have several citizens of this town who are native Kentuckians, and they all seem to have a tender spot somewhere in them for Kentucky, so they raise the corn here just the same. The land here is rich and farmers can't use the manure and the law forbids them dumping it by the roadside, so they hunt for fills in the roads and put it there. It is not needed on the farms at all.

Know what has become of Sam Brown? As he promised me last year to meet me at the World's Fair. I have often supposed him to be dead, or he came, he must have abandoned himself with those ignorates and I did not recognize him. 'Tis true some of them do resemble him but I was afraid to venture on his identity.

We always greet the NEWS as I have some things from our friends. With best wishes, I am Dr. Burton

GRAYSON.
George L. Bagley, the well-known sweet singer of this place, has accepted a position with Dr. Strauss, a noted evangelist, as director of the choir, at a handsome salary. He joined the Doctor at Helena, Ark., the past week.

A pretty double wedding was solemnized Sunday at Myrtle Tree church by the Rev. French Rice. The contracting parties were John Carroll and Miss Edna Halgib, and Bessie Carroll, Jr., to Miss Maggie Swint. All are members of our best families; the brides are pretty and accomplished and the grooms are hardworking young men of exemplary habits.

Prof. James Craig found his fine horse recently stolen from his barn on Chilly at Cassville, W. Va. The thief had sold it to a horse dealer for $60 who had traded it to a citizen which was a fortunate transaction for Craig. There is some strong suspicion of certain local parties.
