The Burley tobacco growers, after months of labor, have evolved a plan which they think will place them beyond the reach of the tobacco trust. A new company, with a capital stock of $1,500,000, has been organized and a committee appointed to apportion the stock among the burley producing counties in the district. The new company will act as buying and selling agents for the farmers.

China's possible role in the peace negotiations is attracting some attention in St. Petersburg. ### Youtsey's Reply.

Frankfort, Ky., July 14.—Henry E. Youtsey, the only one of the Gabel murder conspirators to reach the walls of the State penitentiary, requested publication of the following signed statement in response to the latest attack of fugitive W. S. Taylor upon him:

Having seen the cowardly attack upon me by the arch fugitive from justice, W. S. Taylor, I wish to answer him through the same channel.

Now that he is certain that Powers will have a fair trial, he has no longer excuse for remaining away from Kentucky, and should come and face his accusers. I learned to love like a son because I was with him so much; and because he was a leader of the Republican party. Vice is a monster, of such hideous mien.

That to be hated needs but to be seen; Yet seen too oft, familiar with its face We first endure, then pity, then embrace.

No young man in Kentucky led a more honorable life or had a brighter future than I, until I met Taylor, and his assassins. I served him faithfully, for two years with out a penny, almost, and my reward for so doing is life imprisonment in addition to personal abuse. It was like a father leading his own son astray into paths of wickedness, and now he calls me a liar because I do not protect him in his crime. I did not kill Gobel, because I could not even if I had wanted to. Although the majority of Republicans hated Gobel, none of them would have been fool enough to kill him unless Taylor and his mob wanted it done. No honest man can remember Taylorism and the ruin of Republicanism in Kentucky and say Taylor is innocent, and I am glad I have no bogus Taylor pardon to my discredit. He is a convict before God this very day for his wickedness, and Kentucky is well rid of him.

"When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice; but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn."

I fall to see any comfort for Powers in Judge Cochran's decision, as nearly all the cases he cites were remanded to the State Courts, but if he has the right of freedom then the 2,000 prisoners here at Eddyville have the right to liberty. State Courts should be swept away, both penitentiaries razed to the ground, and penal institutions in Kentucky be a thing of the past.

THE DIAMOND CURE. The latest news from Paris is, that they have discovered a diamond cure for consumption. If you fear consumption or pneumonia, it will, however, be best for you to take that great remedy mentioned by W. T. McGehee, of Vanier, Tenn. "I had a cough, for fourteen years. Nothing helped me, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which gave instant relief, and effected a permanent cure." Kentucky Crop Report. The latter half of June was unfavorable for farm work of all kinds. Continued rains have retarded the cultivation of corn and tobacco, consequently these crops have suffered for want of proper cultivation. There is quite a number of complaints that wheat is sprouting in the shock. It is difficult to estimate the damage done in this way, as only a small part of it has been threshed. Barring the damage done by recent rains, the oat crop is a good one—probably the best for several years. The rye crop is a fair one. With good weather to cultivate the tobacco, it promises a good one. The acreage of burley seems to have increased over last year. There is a material falling off in acreage of the dark types. Grasses promise excellent results, except in a few counties, where timothy does not seem to have done well. The potato crop is full up to an average. Live stock, generally, in good condition, one county reporting "pink eye" in horses and one reporting some disease among cattle; only one county reporting any disease among hogs.

SHE TRIED FIVE DOCTORS. Mrs. Frances I. Sales, of Missouri Valley, Ia., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney trouble five years; had severe pains in my back and a frequent desire to urinate. When riding I experienced much pain over the region of the kidneys. I tried five physicians without benefit and then concluded to try Foley's Kidney Cure. After taking three $1.00 bottles I was completely cured." Sold by Louisa Drug Co.

Hot-Blooded Illinois.

Lawrenceville, Ill., may be found by a close study of a railroad map, north of the Ohio River, a stream which divides the same and humane North from the savage South, where the negro has no rights, and is continually mistreated by the white man.

A race war took place at Lawrenceville the other day, and according to an Associated Press dispatch, two negroes escaped more or less seriously wounded by bullets, and the sheriff destroyed a gallows erected for the accommodation of a third negro, who had caused the race war "by slapping a white man." The dispatches do not state whether the negro slapped the white man on the wrist, but as the trouble occurred at a carnival participated in by society persons of both races, the probability is that the wrist was the part of the white man's anatomy assailed.

Many lamentable lynchings have occurred in the South. Not infrequently the mob and enthusiasm displayed by the mob has seemed, in the light of the calm judgment of the morning subsequent, out of proportion to the heinousness of the crime which incited it. Negroes have been lynched for merely murdering white men, while the theory of lynching is that there is but one crime which can afford a possible excuse for resort to the rope without legal formalities. But a careful inspection of the records fails to show that there has occurred anywhere between the north bank of the Ohio and the mouth of the Mississippi a race war or a lynching due to a white man's having been slapped upon the wrist by one of his negro social equals at a ball. The hot-blooded gentlemen of Lawrenceville thus should be cooled in the local gallows, and if they cannot control themselves they should not be allowed to enter the best colored society.—Louisville Times.
