OUR NEIGHBORS.

Andrew Berry, one of the most popular engineers on the O. and B. S. division, celebrated his 44th birthday in Ashland, on Thursday, and the event was not forgotten by his neighbors, who gave him a most happy surprise.

Maysville, Ky., Oct. 6.—Dr. Charles M. Beach was acquitted in the Lewis Circuit Court at Vaneburg this morning of the charge of murder. He shot and killed Mall Carrier Luman two years ago at his place at Esculapia Springs, and after a trial lasting a week the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

The editor of the Huntington Herald is a "liar" and a "dirty black-guard" of the deepest dye, besides, he ought to be sent to the lunatic asylum where he should have been years ago. We never sent that office a newspaper, nor did we have anything to do with the writing of the article he refers to. The article referred to was written by a republican who will beat the life out of the decrepid scribbler, if he don't watch out.—Bluefield Leader.

George Spence, who hails from Martin county, Ky., came to Kenova on a freight train yesterday. As it is against the law for people to ride those vehicles without a permit Special Officer S. Mays thought it best to take him in. The officer called to George to vacate the box car, but George refused to do so. Strother then climbed to the top of the car after him. Upon seeing his predicament the Kentuckian reached for his Harrington, but, before he could get it out of his pocket, he was looking into the muzzle of the officer's Smith & Wesson. Mr. Mays took the prisoner before Squire Crossen, who fined him $25 and sentenced him to 30 days in jail.

Grayson Bugle - Herald: Why was our Grayson post-master turned out? He was a loyal captain in the forces that kept together the north and south. He "faced the enemy," and his comrades say there never was a braver soldier. Ask Mr. Bennett why he "fired" him, and what it was he appointed.

Girard Lanhon, the 19-years-old son of Mrs. Sue Lanhon, of South Catlettsburg, met with sudden death Monday morning at 8 o'clock, when he was struck by a C. and O. west-bound passenger train. The little fellow had come over to the Hampton City tower to watch the soldier trains pass, and rushed out on the west railroad track to see the soldiers as they passed east, just as the west-bound passenger train turned the curve. He stood with his back to the coming train, and thus did not see it; nor, on account of the noise made by the soldier train did he hear it.

Farmer, Ky., Oct. 5.—The Green Hotel, owned by J. H. Ramey, here, together with all the furniture, stock or groceries, $175 in money and Dr. F. M. Carter's stock of drugs, were totally destroyed by fire early this morning. Total loss $4,000; insurance $1,300. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Owingsville, Ky., Oct. 3.—William Ingram, son of John Ingram, of Preston, this county, was shot and killed by his father-in-law, Robert Shroat. Ingram, it is alleged, had trouble with his father-in-law over family matters. The shooting took place between Mt. Sterling and Winchester. Shroat was arrested and lodged in jail here.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 3.—The State Prison Commission to-day granted paroles in two cases. The beneficiaries were:

David Hall, of Boyd county; sent up in March, 1903, to serve eight years for manslaughter. W. Candill, of Letcher county; sent up in February, 1906, to serve three years for manslaughter. Both men were inmates of the hospital.

Morehead, Ky., Oct. 8.—Bradley Bros' store at Brady Switch, one mile from here, burned last night at 12 o'clock. It was supposed to have been set on fire. Bloodhounds were brought to the scene early this morning, but so many persons had been on the ground no definite trail could be struck. The building was insured for $2,200, which partially covers the loss.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Oct. 7.—A sensation was created at Owingsville late Saturday night when Circuit Judge Alle W. Young, discharged the grand jury or failure to perform their duties and chose a new grand jury to meet the 15th day of this month to investigate the alleged sale of whisky which has been going on in Bath county, in violation of the local option law.

Judge Young says that he proposes to show the people that prohibition will prohibit, at least in the Twenty-first judicial district and has summoned United States Commissioner Wood to this city to appear before the grand jury and give testimony regarding arrests made by Deputy Marshal Jackson for illegal whisky selling a few days ago.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 5.—Diamonds have been found in the hills along Ison's creek, a branch of the Little Sandy river, in Elliott county, Ky.

This fact became known here today when James A. Malone, a dentist, of Grayson, Ky., brought to Cincinnati a number of diamonds in the rough that he had gathered along Ison's creek.

A local diamond cutter, after testing in value from a few dollars to thousands is a genuine diamond, ranging value from a few dollars to thousands.

A goodly number of Masons met at Wayne in reunion last Saturday and spent a very enjoyable day in hand shaking, speaking and feasting. Dinner was served on the ground in bounteous quantities, and of a quality most palatable, with an invitation to all to share in the good things. Immediately after dinner the Order of the Eastern Star degree was conferred on some forty or fifty Master Masons and their wives, daughters and widows. There were more Masons present for the reunion than the committee in charge hoped for, considering the threatening weather on the morning of the event, and all seemed to enjoy themselves to the fullest extent.

Vesuvius street is still burning. It will be two years next month since it started. Prof. Mooney, of Tacoma, Wash., while visiting in the city made several examinations of the locality and he believes that the fire is caused by natural gas. The Professor thinks that there is a deposit of natural gas in that locality and he fears that subterranean fires may reach the deposit causing a terrific explosion that may do a great damage to life and property in that end of town. The fact that this fire has been burning incessantly for nearly two years, lends color to the professor's views. Many people think that our City Council should take action at once about the matter.—Ironton Paper.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Oct. 8.—The Clearfield Lumber Company, of Clearfield, Pa., are pushing the work on the West Liberty and Morehead railroad which they recently purchased and have 300 men at work on the road. Since beginning on the road three miles out from Morehead the workmen have cut through two big hills and are moving rapidly ahead. There has now been graded and ready for ties about twelve or fifteen miles of road, and track-laying is going on. The work will be pushed very fast and the contractors hope to have the road completed to Bud Brown's in Morgan county, by January 1, 1907, and trains running on schedule time.

The Clearfield Lumber Company owns about 17,000 acres of timber lands at the terminus of the road, and it is not known whether the line will be built on to West Liberty, a distance of ten miles, now or not. The new road will open an outlet for an immense amount of coal and timber, which until now has been hidden and valueless. The length of the road will be about eighteen miles, and will mean much to Morehead and surrounding territory.
