Resolutions of Respect.

Jake Rice Lodge, No. 606, A. F. & A. M., Blaine, Ky.

Whereas, on the 16th day of May, 1909, the Tyler, Death, again invaded our ranks and summoned our beloved brother, B. B. Morris, to appear in the Celestial Lodge above to receive the wages of a well-spent life as his reward to rest from his labors and to partake of refreshments prepared by the Supreme Architect of the Universe; therefore be it

Resolved: First, that our lodge has lost a good and true Mason, the wife of his home has lost a loving and dutiful husband, the church has lost a faithful minister of the Gospel, our community has lost an upright and useful citizen.

Second, That while the lodge, the people, the church and community are so sadly bereaved, we are consoled with the hope that we may meet him again in a mansion, in the temple on high, that house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens, whose maker and builder is God.

Third, That these resolutions be recorded upon the pages of the lodge records, that a copy be sent to the Big Sandy News for publication, and a copy to the family of our deceased brother.

Signed,
H. C. Osborn,
S. B. Wellman,
T. O. Johnson,
Committee.
