The first book ever printed from movable types brought the highest price ever paid for any book. The prize was the Gutenberg Bible, the purchaser, Henry E. Huntington of Los Angeles, and the price $50,000. The sale was made in the city of New York.

Governor Glasscock has issued a call for a special session of the West Virginia legislature to enact a State-wide primary law, which shall include provisions for the popular nomination of United States Senators, and to amend the "corrupt practices act," so as to prohibit bribery and fraud at primaries, conventions and political meetings of all kinds as well as at elections. The legislators are summoned to convene at noon of May 16, 1911.
