

OF BREATHTAKING COUNTY, CANDIDATE FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL, THE ONLY DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR STATE OFFICE IN THE EASTERN THIRD OF KENTUCKY, COMPRISING 34 OF THE 120 COUNTIES. HE WAS BORN AND REARED IN HENRY COUNTY AND 22 YEARS AGO, AFTER SERVING A TERM AS COUNTY SHERIFF OF HIS NATIVE COUNTY, MIGRATED TO THE MOUNTAINS WHERE HE HAS SINCE LIVED AND HAS STEADILY RISEN IN HIS PROFESSION. HE HAS FOR YEARS BEEN A SUCCESSFUL LAWYER IN THAT SECTION AND TODAY RANKS AS A LEADER OF THE EASTERN KENTUCKY BAR.

WILL NOT THE NOMINATION OF THIS EASTERN KENTUCKY DEMOCRAT ADD THOUSANDS OF VOTES TO THE TICKET?

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

COLUMN DEDICATED TO TIRED MOTHERS AS THEY JOIN THE HOME CIRCLE.

This boy goes to his business and at his business begins by simply doing the things he is told to do, and does them in a common and ordinary way. If he stops here, he remains all his life long a drudge. But if he begins to see that business has a significance, that his life is not merely sweeping the streets, that his life is not merely sweeping the store, not merely selling goods, not merely writing letters; if he begins to see the higher life involved in business; if he begins to see that business is a greater instrument of beneficence, that trade is clothing thousands of men where charity clothes ten, that agricultural and milling industries are feeding thousands where charity feeds ten; if he begins to see how the whole history of the world is linked together, and is God's way of building up humanity and serving humanity as he gets this larger view, and enters in it, life is enriched and becomes itself the minister whereby love is enlarged and conscience is strengthened, the school wherein he is educated out of the lower into the higher.

Good breeding, like charity should begin at home. The day is past when children used to rise when their parents entered the room where they were and stand until they had permission to sit. But the mistake is now made the other way in allowing the small boys and girls too much license to disturb the peace of the household. We think the best way to train children in courtesy would be to observe toward them a scrupulous politeness. We would go so far that we would make as much of a point to listen them and to answer them sincerely and respectfully as if they were grown up. And indeed, many of th their wise, quaint sayings are far far better worth listening to than morning callers. Of course, to allow uninterrupted chatter would be to surrender the response of the house hold, but it is very easy. If children are themselves taught to respect the convenience of others, and to know when to talk and when to be silent.

What it shall be we do not know. How it shall come we cannot tell. Whether it shall come as the old prophets thought "amongst clashing of swords or wreck of matter," or as the gentle beauty of May morning we cannot see. But it will come. It will be just as easy for this world to and as it was for it to begin; and there is much greater reason for the ending than there is for the beginning. The inequality of this world must be somewhere adjusted. The wrong is sometimes triumphant, insolent power occasionally victorious and unblemished, virtue misjudged and misunderstood. As surely as the sun shines, the time will come when the one will be punished and the other rewarded, and when equal and exact justice, the most glorious phrase known to any language shall be meted out to all.

The idea seems to exist among us that to be polite to each other in the family circle is foolish and like putting on airs. We must rid ourselves of this notion and act on the principle that whatever helps to make our intercourse pleasant outside the family circle should be brought into use there. We should avail ourselves of any and everything that can be used to advantage in our daily intercourse. It is no exhibition of airiness to say "Thank you," or "If you please." These little courtesies are indications of refinement, and costing nothing, they help to make the wheels of life move more smoothly. It is not in elaborate attempts at politeness that true gentility consists. It is in the simple honest expression of the genuine feelings of the heart which is interested in the welfare of others.

Our men of wealth and influence did not start with any cash capital. They went to work with their plow, the hoe, the jack plane or axe, and in time their capital brought them a rich harvest. Ah! but there's the rub; you don't want to work. You want money on credit so you can play the gentleman, speculate and end your career by playing vagabond. You want to marry a rich girl who will support you, while you wear fine clothes, smoke cigars, and be a gentleman of leisure.

Young women have the same longing to get away from their native towns and live among new scenes and changed surroundings, that boys are possessed of. They feel the weight of local environment, even more than the opposite sex, and one frequently hears the remark, "I wish I were a boy, that I could have some freedom." This marks a critical period of a young lady's life. She needs, more than ever before, wise and loving counsel, and the sympathetic companionship of a true friend; and there is no friend like a mother in unselfish, untiring devotion. Girls, tell your mothers of your hopes and ambitions, and you are quite certain to receive advice which you can accept with profit, and which will do you good.

It is only too true that to refrain from showing affection makes the wife miserable. She does not care for present or lavish attention she wants those little tokens such as may be given even in a look, which will prove her husband's love. We wish some of the good things that some men are saying up to say concerning their wives after they are dead could be said now.

Have a bright bouquet of flowers in each room of your home to cheer and brighten it and its inmates.

A Charming Woman.
is one who is lovely in face, form, mind and temper. But it is hard for a woman to be charming without health. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation and kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. But Electric Bitters always prove a godsend to women who want health, beauty and friends. They regulate stomach, liver and kidneys purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion and perfect health. Try them. 50c at A. M. Hughes.

LAW FREQUENTLY VIOLATED.
It is not generally known that according to the Kentucky Statutes it is a heavy fine to catch for the purpose of placing in a cage, a redbird. Many people have these woodland songsters in cages about the house, and are not aware that the new laws of the State forbid such being a captive.

A Dreadful Wound
from a knife, gun, tin can, rusty nail, fireworks, or of any other nature, demands prompt treatment with Bucklen's Arnica Salve to prevent blood poison or gangrene. Its the quickest, surest healer for all such wounds as also for Burns, Boils, Sores, Skin Eruptions, Eczema, Chapped Hands, Corns or Piles 25c at A. M. Hughes.

THE "TATER BUG."
There is one created thing that is always on his job, and that's the potato bug. Like that other parasite, the gas meter, his industry is perennial and persistent.

A FACT ABOUT THE "BLUES"

What is known as the "Blues" is seldom occasioned by actual existing external conditions, but in the great majority of cases by a disordered LIVER.

THIS IS A FACT which may be demonstrated by trying a course of

Tutt's Pills

They control and regulate the LIVER. They bring hope and buoyancy to the mind. They bring health and elasticity to the body.
