

N-T-H-Co.

You Needn't Swelter

We have the things to keep you cool.

SERGE SUITS—fast blue and true—our guarantee behind them, $15 to $32.

UNDERWEAR—sleeveless shirts and knee drawers; unions that do not gap in the crotch, knee length and sleeveless at $1.00, stop at $5.50.

STRAW HATS, including the Bangkok, lightest head-piece in the world, and the Panama, $2 to $12.

Everything to wear for men and boys.

Northcott-Tate-Hagy Co.

"BETTER CLOTHES"
926-928 Fourth Ave., Huntington

WEBBVILLE.

Crops are looking very prosperous here since the rain.

Rev. Berry preached a very interesting sermon here Sunday.

Lyda Morris passed through here Monday on her way to her home at Blaine.

Willie Webb, who has been spending a few days with his parents has returned to school at Lexington.

Ruth Shepherd, who has been visiting her aunt at Huntington returned home Saturday.

Judge Woods, who has been very sick is no better.

Mrs. John Kitchen spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Quisenberry, of Jattle.

Ezra Woods, who has been working at Portsmouth has returned. Dr. M. N. Nickell, who has been west for a few months, is at home for a short time.

Lindsey Thompson of Jattle was calling here Sunday.

Sam Kiger of Ratcliff was calling here Sunday.

Dr. L. G. Nickell made a business trip to Blaine last week.

Mrs. Arizona Ison, of Portsmouth, is here to see her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Webb.

John Woods, of Ashland, is here to see his father, who is very sick.

Jim Conway, of Willard, was calling here Sunday.

J. T. Sweetnam, one of our prominent lawyers, was here Saturday in interest of his profession.

Mrs. L. J. Webb and daughter, Dorthy, are visiting relatives in Louisa.

James Woods, of McDaniel was here to see his father Sunday.

Miss Mary Gardner, of Saiyerville, who has been visiting Mrs. Sally W. Gardner left for her home Friday.

Mrs. Agnes Pennington, who has been sick for some time, is able to be out again and is now spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Verna Greene.

Cecil the little son of Mrs. Webb is very sick with pneumonia.

DUAE PUELLAE.

RICHARDSON.

Sunday school was organized at this place Sunday with a large crowd present.

Miss Gussie Riffe, of Ashland, who has been visiting friends at this place has returned home.

Mr. Frank Wiley, of Charleston, W. Va., was calling on Miss Herma Blevins, of this place Sunday.

Carl Cassell was visiting home folks last week.

Frank Matney, of Pikeville, was calling on Miss Georgia Preston of Graves Shoals Sunday.

Willie Warnick was calling on Miss Goldie Wilson, of Peach Orchard Sunday.

Misses Herma and Bess Waller, of Louisa were the pleasant guests of Miss Herma Blevins this week.

Mrs. W. W. Wray and Herma Waller spent Monday at Mr. A. Preston's, of Graves Shoals.

Mrs. J. W. Hinkle was visiting her sister at Alonzo last week.

U NO.

Given Away—Ladies' and Children's Hats at Pierce's.

KENTUCKY NEIGHBORS.

Mrs. J. Gould Hutchison died in Catlettsburg Thursday of last week after a long illness of tuberculosis.

Two white men, wanted for blowing a safe in the office of Wilson Bros., in Greenup were arrested in Russell.

J. W. Adams has been appointed postmaster at Jewel, Pike County; K. P. Daniel has been appointed at Sip, Johnson County.

Dr. Edward Rickets, a native of Proctorville, and one of the most noted surgeons in the Ohio valley, died in Cincinnati after an illness which covered several weeks.

Gov. McCreary has offered a reward of $200 for the arrest of Henry Bailey, who is charged in Magoffin county with murder. He has been a fugitive for five years.

Mrs. Vida Hatfield, one of Pike County teachers died last week after an illness of typhoid fever. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tolbert Hatfield.

Gilbert Bentley and Luther Fidler caught a forty-pound cat fish in the Big Sandy Monday. The fish measured 3 feet 10 inches. It was landed with a gig.—Pikeville Herald.

It is said that a new newspaper is soon to be launched in Jenkins, the Consolidated Coal Company's city on Elkhorn. John D. Campbell, postmaster and assistant store manager for the company will be its editor. It will be Republican in politics.

Carpenters are at work raising the depots along the C. & O.'s Cincinnati division to conform to the freight depot platforms, which are as high as freight car doors. When all are completed they will be of a uniform height the entire length of the railroad.

Two bills offered by Representative Langley, authorizing the Fiscal Court of Pike county to construct bridges across the Russell Fork of Big Sandy river at Marrow-bone and Millard, were passed by the Senate.

Elmer Maxie, express messenger on the Big Sandy division of the C. & O. road while at Pikeville, Thursday was greasing his gun when it accidentally went off and shot himself through the foot. Mr. Maxie was taken to his home in Ashland. Ommie Cox is running an express messenger in Mr. Maxie's place.

The jury in the condemnation proceedings of the Sandy Valley & Elkhorn Railway Company against John W. Bentley for right of way through about one acre of land in the Consolidated Coal Company's operations in Jenkins, tried in the Letcher County Court allowed Bentley $21,500, the largest amount of money ever offered for a similar piece of property. This price is said to be satisfactory to the railroad company.

Business men at Elkhorn City, Ky., stimulated by activities in connection with the extension of the Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio railway across the mountains from Dante, Va., to that Kentucky town, have organized at Elkhorn City the First State Bank. The bank will start with a capital of $25,000, and will be opened about July 1. The officers are: L. P. Polly president and Dr. C. C. Sanders vice president.

Whitesburg, Ky., June 15.—The people of Jenkins, the Consolidated Coal Company's city in this county, are preparing to celebrate on July 15 the coming of the first regular passenger train on the Sandy Valley and Elkhorn into the industrial city. People for miles around, especially the country folk, many of whom never saw a railroad train, will be on hand to greet the coming of the train. Already freight trains are running into Burdine, a suburb of Jenkins, carrying out coal. Great progress is also being made on the track laying of the Lexington and Eastern building into the county from Jackson and trains are expected to be running into Whitesburg by August 1 to 15.

A wedding of interest took place when Rev. R. H. Tolle, the Baptist minister joined in matrimony Mr. Wm. Musie and Mrs. Virginia

B. Woolum, of Russell county, Va. A bit of romance is connected to the marriage of these contracting parties. Not many days ago "Uncle Bille" as he is familiarly known went to Virginia to see his bride's mother, who in former days was his sweetheart, and being apprised of the fact that she was now a lonely widow proposed matrimony. However being in feeble years, she very thankfully declined his proposal, but introduced to him her widowed daughter, "Uncle Bille" became "struck at sight" and before the lapse of many hours the date was set and arrangements definitely made.

Mr. Music is 78 years of age, and one of Boyd County's wealthiest and most prosperous farmers. His bride is 54 years old and is splendid looking Mr. and Mrs. Music are moving from the old Music homestead near Cannonsburg into their newly purchased home in the South side.—Catlettsburg Item—Independent.

ALONZO.

Sam Porter left this morning for Cincinnati to have an operation performed. He was accompanied by Dr. R. M. Akers.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Preston and two sons visited relatives at Buffalo Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Hinkle, of Richardson spent Friday with her sister Mrs. H. E. Compton.

Jim Prince, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Prince, who was kicked by one of the bank mules last Friday is able to be out again.

Mrs. Allen Ferrell returned home

Wednesday after spending a week with relatives at Kenova, W. Va.

Miss Kathryn Preston was shopping in Prestonsburg Thursday.

Miss Annis Harris and Mr. Wm. Vest was afternoon callers in Alonzo Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Leslie spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam May of Dwale.

Misses Lucile Bevins and Mattie May were down from Dwale Sunday evening.

Mrs. T. J. Leslie entertained a few of her friends Thursday evening. Those present were Misses Grace and Mary Vansant, of Sandy Hook, Lucile and Cora Bevins, Mattie and Tommy May, Lyla Johnson, Anis Harris and Kathryn Preston and Messrs. Banner and Johnnie May. A most delightful evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Preston and Miss Marie Daniel of this place attended church at Sugar Loaf Sunday.

The ice cream supper given at Chas. Williams Saturday night was largely attended.

Mrs. Nora Richmond, of Allen, was the guest of her cousin Mrs. H. E. Compton Friday night.

F. B. Preston was in Prestonsburg on business Friday.

Miss Annis Harris, of Woods, was the guest of Kathryn Preston Sunday night.

There will be an ice cream supper at Dwale Friday night for the benefit of the church.

TWO EYES

A new lot of silver mesh hank is all the latest styles just received at Conley's store.

STOCK UP ON ALPHA FLOUR
MADE FROM GOOD OLD WHEAT.
The new crop will not be so good, and a few barrels of ALPHA is a good thing to have in the house.
We are still making the best Meal and feed in the World. Quick Shipments. Send us your orders. WHOLESALE ONLY.
GWINN BROS. & CO., Huntington, W. Va.

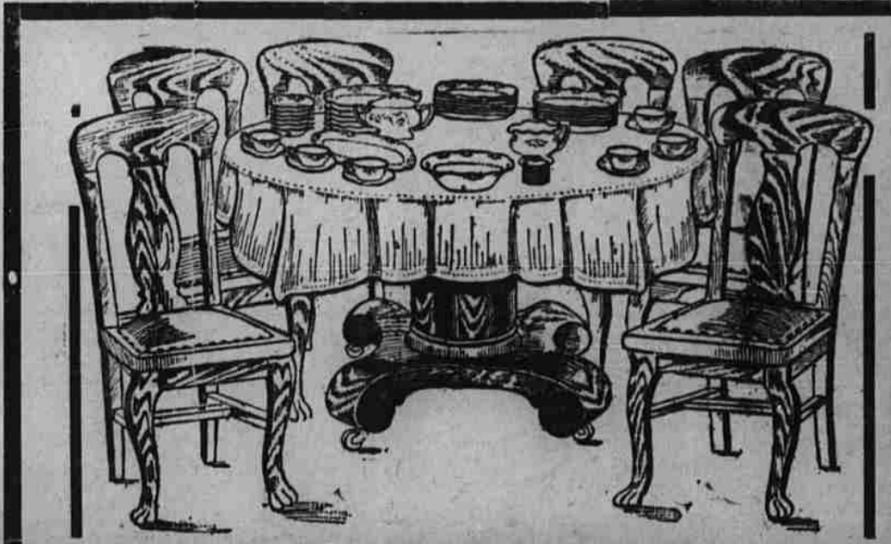

Now In Full Swing

GREAT COMPARISON SALE

PLENTY OF REAL BARGAINS IN MEN'S AND BOYS' CLOTHING, SHOES AND HATS, AND LADIES' SHOES

—BUY NOW AND SAVE MONEY—

This Complete Dining Room Outfit FREE

This Complete Set Free Don't Fail to Ask About It

NASH CLOTHING COMPANY "Na-Clo-Co." Louisa, Ky.