$75,000 TO BE PAID FOR 41,000 TREES

BIG DEAL IN EASTERN KENTUCKY WHEREBY OAK WILL BE MADE INTO BARREL STAVES.

One of the largest timber deals made in Eastern Kentucky in years, the purchase of 41,000 trees in waters of Shelby creek, Pike and Letcher county, for about $75,000 by the W. J. Fell Company, of Ashland, is announced by Vice President John W. Kitchen.

The trees, all oak, will be manufactured into barrel staves, in the mill, and shipped to the Fell Company's plant at Ashland to be finished ready for shipment.

The big block of timber was secured by the Fell Company from F. C. Mechling, trustee, of Pike-co. It will be cut up by the Fell saw mills, which are scattered through the mountains of Eastern Kentucky and Southern Virginia. Work on the cutting starts at once.

Speaking of the lumber market, Mr. Kitchen declared that while the demand for the general grades is poor, the barrel stave business has been considerably stimulated by the European war.

Mr. Kitchen said his company is selling all staves to oil companies which are shipping oil to the allies in wood. The lumber man pointed out that tank steamers in which oil is usually shipped cost several million dollars and for this reason the shippers fear to risk them on the seas because of torpedoes of Germany.

By putting the oil in barrels it can be placed on cheap vessels, which if shipped, are not such a loss at the steel tank steamers.

The fell plants are turning out 100,000 staves a day, according to Mr. Kitchen, and even at this tremendous rate of output are scarcely able to supply the oil companies' demand.

The timber shipping rates have increased from 300 to 450 per cent since the war started, according to Mr. Kitchen. He declared that the prohibitive rate has almost abolished exporting, thus ruining the lumber business.

There is considerable demand for railroad ties from abroad.

TWO SPENCERIAN EVENTS.

Last Thursday afternoon and evening were very pleasantly devoted by many society people of Louisa to the enjoyment of two autumn and festive events. One was the Finch party given to 14 lovers of the pleasant and innocent game. The handsome interior of the elegant home of Mrs. D. C. Spencer was bright with flowers and gay with the presence of handsomely gowned women. The nine or ten games were warmly contested, and at the finish coffee, cream and cake of delicious flavor were deftly served by the hostess, Mrs. Ethel Cain and Opal Spencer. "We've had a perfectly lovely time" was the expression of every guest as she said good by to her host.

Two or three hours later the same spacious apartments were gay with the presence of thirty or more of Miss Opal's girl and young men friends. On this occasion the Finch cards were relegated to the shelf and five Hundred and Rook furnished the cheerful crowd with its pastime. These games were played until the cards gave way to spiced lunch cloth, a token that something good to eat was coming. The token did not fail. Better ice cream, coffee and cake are not often served and better appetites were never found. In all particulars Miss Opal's party was a happy success.

DR. ALEX. PARSONS SLAIN.

Dr. Alex. M. Parsons, age 49, who formerly resided in Cattlettsburg, was shot and instantly killed Sunday evening at Branchland, W. Va., by an unknown assailant after he had shot and mortally wounded J. W. Breils, age 52, a prominent farmer of Branchland.

The double tragedy occurred, it is believed, over a doctor bill which Breils is alleged to have owed Parsons and refused to pay.

Daner Colver, 18, has been arrested in connection with the murder and the authorities are looking for Noah Breils, 20, son of the man who Dr. Parsons shot.

PAINTSVILLE JUDGE TO TRY TAYLOR MURDER CASE.

Somerset, Ky., Oct. 1.—Gov. McCreary has designated Judge A. J. Kirk, of Paintsville, to try the case of Frank Taylor, charged with the murder of a farmer in the Bourbon District of this county following a political argument last August. Taylor at the time of the murder was speaking in the killing and consequently was not eligible to sit in the trial.

Mrs. J. E. Bahan delightfully entertained with a miscellaneous shower in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles M. Scott. The rooms were effectively decorated for the occasion in fall flowers. Five Hundred was the chief diversion of the afternoon. After a delicious luncheon at five o'clock the guests proceeded to another room in which a clothes line was strung and on it were pinned many beautiful gifts for the bride.

Born in Williamson, W. Va., recently to Dr. and Mrs. George Conley, a son—Patrick Henry.

FATAL SHOOTING AT MATEWAN.

Tom Chafin died Monday in the Miners hospital at Welch from pistol wounds sustained at the hands of Flem Munciey. It is stated that there were no eye witnesses to the shooting although a number of people were in the neighborhood, the scene being the West Virginia side of the bridge leading to R. W. Buskirk's booze joint opposite Matewan.

Chafin was struck three times, two of the balls penetrating his intestines, the other passing through the liver. Dr. Wm. H. Triplett rendered medical attention and also accompanied the wounded man to the hospital, assisting later in the operation which was performed in the hope that the young man's life might be saved.

Before the operation was attempted Chafin's dying declaration was taken and it is stated it tends to establish Munciey's slayer a strong case of unwarranted murder. The dying boy declared that some weeks before he and Munciey had a difficulty in Kentucky but that they had met later and apparently had made friends.

On Sunday night, shortly before 12 o'clock, Chafin states that Munciey came up to him near the bridge and said, "You had the advantage over in Kentucky but it is my turn now." With this Munciey fired. Chafin claims that he attempted to run. Munciey made no attempt to escape but proceeded to Matewan where he found A. D. Hatfield and gave himself up. He was brought to jail here and so far no effort has been made to secure bail for him.—Mingo Republican.

INJURED IN A MINE ACCIDENT NEAR PAINTSVILLE.

Two victims of a mine accident at Stambaugh, near Paintsville, George Burchett and Willard Akers, coal miners, were taken to the Keller hospital, Ironton, last night. Both had sustained compound fractures of the right and left legs, and were in a serious condition. Burchett's injury is especially serious, and it is feared that amputation will be necessary, although everything possible will be done to save the limb. It was announced at the hospital.

The young men were brought to Ashland on the C. & O. train and were met there by ambulances and taken to Ironton. They were accompanied by Dr. Harry Stambaugh, who resides near the scene of the mine accident, which occurred Thursday afternoon.—Independent.

TO GREET REV. AND MRS. KEITH.

The reception given by the Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, South in their Sunday school room on Friday evening was a brilliant success, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather.

EASTERN KENTUCKY AWARDS ROAD CONTRACTS

ROAD CONSTRUCTION BEGUN IN MOUNTAIN SECTION OF THIS STATE.

Whitesburg, Ky., Sept. 25.—The real beginning of a good roads campaign was launched here yesterday, when the Letcher Fiscal Court let contracts for several miles of good roads leading out from this city in several directions.

J. J. Brady, a contractor of Jackson, Ala., was awarded the contract on a mile and a half leading from Whitesburg toward mouth of Colly creek, which is to be built by State aid, this being the first piece of road in which the State appropriated aid to be built in the Eastern Kentucky coal fields.

This aid came about through the persistent efforts of County Judge Henry T. Day and the members of the Fiscal Court, who prevailed upon the State Department to start the work in the new Kentucky coal fields.

The large increase in population and the extensive development work under way the development of the vast coal and timber wealth, they insisted, made it the more imperative that this section receive State aid.

This will be the beginning of a great amount of road building to be done by the State throughout this rapidly-developing section, as a number of counties, including Perry, Knott, Pike, Harlan, Leslie, Breathitt, Lee and Powell, are likely to vote bonds necessary to get this aid from the State.

The Letcher Fiscal Court here yesterday also awarded contracts to Nat Hale of Colson, Ky., for the construction of a good-sized stretch of model roadway in the vicinity of Kona Station on the Louisville & Nashville Railroad above here, forming a connection with the five-mile section recently built between Mayking and Kona. The work on all the road-building in the county is to start off immediately, so as to gain as much headway as possible before the advent of bad weather.

Eastern Kentucky, including Bell, Knox, Whitley and Laurel, which have already voted bonds, will spend several million dollars in good-road building within the next few months, the work in these counties having already gained much headway. Other counties are falling into line with the work—others with the enthusiasm and determination that is sure to result in a system of good roadways for the near future.—Manufacturers Record.

JNO. S. MARCUM MAY RUN FOR PROSECUTORSHIP.

It has been reported quite often of late that none other than Hon. John S. Marcum, prominent Huntington attorney, will enter the race for prosecuting attorney of Cabell county. Consequently, on Wednesday, Col. Marcum was asked whether or not he expected to become a candidate.

"It may be," was his answer, indicating that while he has not fully made up his mind, he is at least considering the possibility of entering the race.

It was recently suggested in the Norfolk & Western district that he become a candidate for governor. The other alternative is much more likely, Mr. Marcum said. He is known as one leading criminal lawyers of the state and is a forceful prosecutor.—Herald-Dispatch.

BOOZE GETS A PAYMASTER INTO TROUBLE.

A stranger, who said that he was paymaster for a West Virginia coal company, was arrested Monday night on a disorderly charge. When searched $24.50 was found on him, as was also a pay roll calling for $1698.

The man stated that he had come to Ashland from Kenova, where he had missed his train, and after reaching this city had taken several drinks, and that he had left a big roll of money in one of the saloons for safe keeping.

An investigation proved that he was telling the truth. He had left the roll of bills with Orlando Hammonds, who had thrown it in a drawer without counting it. The roll contained $1580, which Attorney C. R. Levi expressed to Focahontas last night.

The paymaster paid the usual fine and costs this morning and was released.

Prior to his arrest he was found loitering against the Merchants Bank building by S. J. Click, whom he told about leaving his money in a saloon, the location of which he had forgotten.

Although the man's story sounded more like the imagination of a drunk man than the truth, Mr. Click was impressed with the stranger's personal appearance and was trying to get him sober so that he could hunt for his money, when Officer Green arrested him, complaints having reached police headquarters about his actions before Mr. Click took him in charge.—Ashland Independent.

A VAN LEAR INCIDENT.

A Pollock from Van Lear, applied to Judge Kennedy last evening for a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Frank Morinsky and Tom Morinsky, claiming that they had left Van Lear while his friend, the woman's husband, was busy at work in a coal mine, and that the woman had checked $200 out of the bank where her husband had deposited it.

The accused and the woman's young child were in the court room at the time the request was made. Both denied any wrong doing, and claimed that the young man was enroute to Cleveland and the woman to her home in Pennsylvania.

The woman, who was unusually pretty and attractive, did not deny leaving her husband, but claimed the money she had taken had been made by her keeping boarders. She said she had left her husband because he was cruel to her, and that they had divided the children, she taking one and he two.

Judge Kennedy held that he had no jurisdiction in the case and advised the complainant to permit the couple to go their way in peace and to watch for developments.—Ashland Independent.

SHOOTING AFFRAY AT WHITEHOUSE.

On last Thursday afternoon, Chon Layne, a merchant at Whitehouse, shot and wounded Green Bartram of Martin-co. The trouble originated in the store of Mr. Layne with no one present except Layne and Bartram.

THREE PROMINENT YOUNG COUPLES MARRIED

LOUISA PEOPLE ANNOUNCE WEDDING WHICH OCCURRED IN JULY.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Waller announce the marriage of their daughter Herma Louise to Mr. Fred Dixon on Thursday, July first. Nineteen hundred and fifteen Louisa, Kentucky.

The identity of the bride is made known in this announcement. The groom is a well known watch maker and jeweler of this city and is the son of postmaster and Mrs. Robt. Dixon. The bride is one of the pretty daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Waller, of Fort Gay, W. Va., and was a popular teacher in this county. Both are worthy and highly respected young people and take with them in their new relation the best wishes of their many friends.

The Rev. Lave Walter, a well known Baptist minister of this county and father of Dr. C. B. Walter, of this city, had a rather odd experience on the 22nd of last month. He had gone to Virgie, Pike-co., and while there he united in marriage his niece, Miss Lexie Lenore Walter, and Mr. John Johnson, of Pike-co. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's father, Dr. E. P. Walter. The preacher then took the down train, expecting to get off at Whitehouse, but on the train he met another niece, Mrs. Elizabeth Walter Williamson, and Mr. Harry Stambaugh, who were matrimonially inclined. So they all came to Louisa and went to the home of our Dr. Walters where they were made one. They remained at the doctor's until the next day, when they returned home.

One of the new brides is a daughter of the Rev. Walter's oldest brother, and the other a daughter of his youngest brother.

MRS. HOWARD SENT TO THE PENITENTIARY.

Last week Sheriff J. E. Maynard, of Martin-co., passed through this city, having in his charge Mrs. Columbia Howard, who had been sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of 7 to 15 years, for the murder of her husband, Jack Howard, on the night of the 13th of June last.

The crime was committed on Wolfe creek, in Martin-co., Ky., and was the outcome of alleged jealousy. Mrs. Howard claims to have done the killing accidentally, when her husband threw a poker against the gun. The gun was discharged of its load, the full charge entering Mr. Howard's head tearing off the top of his skull which was found in the yard.

HOSPITAL NOTES.

Mrs. Thomas Deskins, of Johns creek, who has been at Riverview hospital for several weeks for treatment, was Wednesday operated upon for the radical relief of her trouble. The surgeon, Dr. L. H. York, thinks her entire recovery is assured.

Mrs. Goble, of Prestonsburg, was taken to the hospital Wednesday, suffering with typhoid fever. She is a daughter of Brownlow Huff, of this city.

Contrary to all expectations, Mack Thompson, the young man who was so badly wounded in a shooting affray at Kermit Sept. 27, seems to be in a fair way to recover.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

City Council met in regular session on last Tuesday evening. Outside of the routine business not much was done. Several claims were allowed and ordered paid. Eldorado yearly theater licenses was raised from $15 to $30. When the admission is more than 10 cents the fee is $2.50.

COURT OF CLAIMS.

The magistrates of Lawrence county were in session this week sitting as a Court of Claims. Some other matters were also considered. Among them was the question of purchasing the old C. & O. bridge at Three Mile for a County Bridge, free of toll. There was much discussion of the proposition. On Wednesday the Court visited and viewed the bridge, the approaches, right of way, etc.

At the time this was written the court had not arrived at any conclusion.

WAR ON ILLITERACY.

Sam J. DeFord, who is ever interested in the welfare of the prisoners and has been instrumental in having prisoners of scholarly ability instructed the unlettered unfortunate, is taking active interest in the literacy campaign here, and especially the jail. He is going to determine the number of illiterates now in jail and take steps toward their enlightening. He was active in the matter of having the famous quintette of Halls, who were incarcerated for so long on the charge of killing the revenue men Ramey and Sloan, instructed. Mr. Gardner of Magoffin-co., being their chief instructor. They proved to be apt pupils, not even knowing the alphabet when their tutelage began. They were soon able to write their own letters home and to read the ones they received. So much for the "gaslight" school instructed by Mr. DeFord in the jail, and 'tis to be hoped the moonlight schools will be as productive of good.—Independent.

A NEW DEPOSITORY.

A new depository for the storage and consumption of high-class food-stuffs was opened Tuesday night in the building next below the residence of Mr. R. L. Vinson, on Madison street. This place did a rattling good business on the opening night and the proprietors are much pleased with the outlook for the future. To drop figures and get down to facts, the place of business is the paragon of the M. E. Church, South, and the proprietors are the new pastor, the Rev. L. E. McElDowney, his good wife and three healthy boys, four of a kind when the other one, the young collegian, comes from Harboursville. Mrs. McElDowney and the boys arrived by the evening train from Ashland, and after supper the "patrons" of the firm began to arrive. They came singly, by twos and by squads, each bringing something good to eat. The articles were placed on tables and on chairs until the place resembled the inside of a first-class grocery and provision store. Nothing had been left out which might add to the inside comfort of the family or that thoughtful kindness could provide. Nearly all the donors had met the popular pastor, but his attractive wife was a stranger to all. But not for long. He gentle, refined manner, her evident pleasure at meeting so many of her husband's congregation, and her warm hand-clasp made instant friends of all.

It was a very pleasant occasion to all concerned.
