

Men may differ about preparedness for war, but all of us believe in preparedness for most things.

It is preparedness that sends the runner over the tape ahead of his rivals. It is preparedness that enables the advocate to sway judge and jury with his logic. It is preparedness that enables the manufacturer to out-distance his competitors. It is preparedness that has made the General Roofing Manufacturing Company

The Big Gun of the Roofing Business

The General's preparedness consists of the three largest and best equipped roofing and building paper mills in the world. Each is a complete producing unit, manufacturing the full line of the General's products. Each is advantageously located in the territory it serves, has cheap fuel and favorable transportation facilities. The General buys raw materials in enormous quantities and far ahead. This means favorable buying and the pick of the market. With manufacturing so perfected and cheapened, the highest quality is produced at the lowest cost. This preparedness enables the General to make one-third of all the rolls of roofing used. All over the civilized world you will find

Certain-teed Roofing

The quality of roofing cannot be determined by looking at it, nor by twisting or tearing. Its durability can not be tested except in actual use over a period of years. Contrary to popular belief, roofing does not wear out—it dries out. CERTAIN-TEED Roofing is especially made to defeat this process of drying out; as it is thoroughly saturated with our properly blended soft asphalt and coated with a blend of harder asphalt, which keeps the soft saturation—the life of the roofing—from drying out. This produces a roofing pliable, yet durable, and impervious to the elements. CERTAIN-TEED products are made under the supervision of our board of graduate chemists, and are the result of long experience in mining, refining, and blending of these materials. CERTAIN-TEED Roofing is guaranteed to hold "its place in the sun" for 5, 10, or 15 years according to whether it is 1, 2, or 3 ply, respectively. Behind this guarantee stands the responsibility of the world's largest Roofing and Building Paper Mills. Past experience has proved that our guarantee is conservative, and that the roofing will outlast the period of the guarantee. There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED, and a proper method of laying it, for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roofs, from the largest skyscraper to the smallest structure. CERTAIN-TEED Roofing is sold by responsible dealers all over the world at reasonable prices.

FRIDAY. President Wilson, in his first "preparedness" speech, delivered in New York City, said he was "always ready to accept an invitation to a fight." He advocated peace, but declared the prospects of the United States might not be so bright to-morrow as to-day; and he warned marshall and selfish politicians that they must maintain a nonpartisan attitude. Crowds cheered him in the streets and during his address.

Before the House Military Committee yesterday Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood declared the United States in the war-torn world was like a ship in peril of typhoons, and that an army of 229,000 men with 2,000,000 reserves was indispensable to adequate national defense.

SUNDAY. President Wilson declared at Cleveland that the United States is "not afraid of anybody" but that it is "afraid of the danger of shame" if not properly prepared for defense. He said he could not promise to avoid the war and maintain the nation's honor. The address was the most solemn he has yet delivered on national preparedness. Earlier in the day, at Pittsburg, he had said that the country must rely on its youth to re-enforce the standing army in time of need. This was businesslike—not militarism—the point out.

While President Wilson is entering to the country his appeal for adequate national defense, one of the vital elements of the programme he has recommended to Congress—the continental army—faces serious opposition in both the Senate and House Military Committees.

TIRED OUT.

There's many a farmer's wife sits on the porch in the growing shadows of a summer evening, knowing to the full what it is to feel tired out; as if there was not another ounce of effort left in her. But she knows how sound her slumber will be and how refreshed the morning will find her. That's the tiredness of a healthy woman. But it's another thing for the sick woman to feel tired out. Rest only seems to increase her suffering. Just as in profound silence a discord jars the ear morosefully, so now that she has stopped moving about, this tired woman feels more acutely the aching back and throbbing nerves.

Sick women, thousands of them right here in Kentucky, have been made well by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, heals inflammation and ulceration.

A strong, healthy woman instead of a tired and ailing one! Sounds like a miracle, doesn't it? But it isn't. It's only the ordinary, every-day work of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—just the work that it was made for.

It's a woman's medicine, carefully compounded for her by an experienced physician, and adapted to her delicate organism. It makes weak women strong, suffering women well.

WHAT CATARRH IS

It has been said that every third person has catarrh in some form. Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the body; and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors do little, if any good.

To correct catarrh you should treat its cause by enriching your blood with the oil-food in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal food and a building-tonic, free from alcohol or any harmful drugs. Try it. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

Word of an experience, which, had it not been so severe, might be considered ludicrous, was brought to Huntington by M. N. Offutt, general manager of the Rockcastle Lumber company, on his return from the company's operations at Ives, Ky. Mr. Offutt was riding horse back on Monday morning, when the thermometer even in Huntington, was hovering around the zero mark, and was much lower in the mountains. He found it necessary to pass through the icy water his horse sank into quicksand up to its sides. Mr. Offutt waded to shore. The water was comparatively shallow, but of course, icy cold, and when he struck the air his overcoat and trousers froze stiff. The horse, after resting a moment, extricated itself, and Mr. Offutt went to the nearest farmhouse to dry his clothes and warm himself.

He had no opportunity to secure a change of anything but his socks, no hope in fact, but he did ask the farmer's wife if she could let him have a pair of her husband's socks. She replied that he had none in desperation he asked if she couldn't let him have a pair of her own stockings. This she did. The stockings were of thick homespun and not of the thin silk variety which Mr. Offutt might have had to accept, if he had made his trade nearer the big department stores. Mr. Offutt left his wet socks and a dollar to boot, and continued his homeward journey through the nipping cold—Herald-Dispatch.
