

THE HOME CIRCLE AND ITS INTERESTS. Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as They Join The Home Circle at Evening Tide.

Woman's Work. The quiet faithful way in which a woman often of superior intellect, and decided talent for higher things, will dish-wash her life away for her husband and children, is a marvel of patient endurance. Here the servitude of woman is the heaviest. No sooner is her work done that it requires to be done over again. Men take contracts of work on them, finish them, and they are over for all time. The prospect of ending them and drawing pay for the labor is alluring. And woman's work holds no such promise. She washes on Monday after Monday the same garments until there is no more of them to wash; then they are replenished by new ones like old, and the rubbing and wringing goes on until the worn-out hands are folded for their eternal and only rest. She mends stockings with tireless fidelity, week after week, and year after year. Every morning the same rooms are to be put in order, only to be in the wildest disorder by evening. The same stockings, the same washing, the same cleaning and cooking in endless rotation, which, if done promptly and properly, leaves no time for reading and self-culture which, aside from the pleasure it affords the woman, is the only means of fitting oneself for the intellectual culture of children.

What wonder that women are not thinkers, or that the daughters of successive generations are rapid, uncultured creatures, incapable of forming an opinion on the most important subjects of human consideration. The crowning grace of home is cheerfulness. In nine cases out of ten, man's life will not be a success if he does not bear burdens in his childhood. If the fondness or vanity of father or mother has kept him from hard work; if he always helped him out at the end of his row; if instead of taking his turn at pitching off the stowed away light always fell to him, and what was heavy about the same work to some one else if he has been permitted to shirk, until shirking has become a habit, unless a miracle has been wrought his life will be a failure and the blame will not be so much his as that of his weak and foolish parents.

Invite your friend to church. You invite him to your home, you invite him to your lodge, you invite him to your political meetings, your parties, your lecture courses and your entertainments why not invite him to your church? Tell your pastor to preach a little better and the choir to sing a little more sweetly next Sunday and then invite your friend to your church home to worship with you.

The life of the world is strenuous, and the door of the home should shut out the storms and stress but should not shut out new and wholesome inspiring influences. It should stand wide in hospitable welcome to friends. The home life this is narrow and selfish is dull and enervating. Why should hearts spend years on earth growing into one, knitting life into life, blending soul into soul, for a union that is not to reach beyond the valley of shadows? Husbands, you are the head of the homes, why not be the head of the home for eternity? As king over the stalwart oak and lofty pine, the fig tree would have been a dead failure and as much out of place as some of our politicians are in congress; but for bearing figs the oak and pine are its inferiors. Bearing figs is the grandest thing in the world for a fig tree. It shines in its own sphere, but stripped of its fig-bearing power it has no excuse for existence. Sometimes a mother, who reigns a majestic queen in her own household, forsakes her quiet sweetness of home rule for a noisy, rough, public career, for which she has not the slightest qualification. Of course there are no such mothers who are readers of this paper, but we have seen them and so have you.

On the shores of the Adriatic sea the fishermen's wives come down at sunset and sing to guide their loved ones home. On the mountains of Tyrol hundreds of women and children go out nightly and sing their native songs until fathers, husbands, brothers and sons answer on their return home. What a beautiful home-coming. Is it not polished citizens. A type of that welcome we hope every reader of this department will receive when they reach the golden gates of Eden.

The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world. This is a saying as old as the hills, but were it true our great men in our great cities would not be on trial and sent to prison pen for "hoodlums" and "graft." When the hand that rocks the cradle rules the world there will be "a school house on every hill top and no saloon in the valley."

In the race of life, in the contest of physical endurance, in the moral tests that come, that child has not a fair chance who has sprung out of the mud of the streets. To know the breath of blaes and the rustle of autumn leaves, to be up with the lark, to bathe one's feet in the dew of the pasture, to go to bed with the song of the whip-poor-will—those memories are like guardian angels.

Daisy McDowell was calling on Gertrude Casady Saturday. F. D. Belcher and wife were calling on Nancie H. Harmon Sunday. Sunday school is progressing nicely at McDaniels. Mr. and Mrs. Tobe French and Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Shortridge were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Collinsworth Sunday and enjoyed their dinner fine. Ice cream and helons were served after dinner. All enjoyed the day fine. Rob Johnson and Grover Thornsbury passed down our creek Sunday. Jesse Clay attended the ice cream social Saturday night. Miss Mary Smith was calling on Victoria Woods Sunday. Fred Stewart and wife and sister and little Dora visited Mr. and Mrs. Orville Rice Sunday. Beulah Collinsworth is visiting in Pike county. Edd Taylor and wife were calling on Jeff Collinsworth Sunday. Victoria Woods and Laura Collinsworth contemplate a visit to Pike-co. in the future. Mrs. Bill Rice and children were calling on Mrs. Ben Rice Sunday. MONKEY.

YATESVILLE. The Drilling in of well No. 1 on the land of Mary Kelly has been completed and the well has been shot and proves to be another very good producer. The machinery is being placed for well No. 8 on the land of William Savage. Oil well drilling and coal mining and stock trading are the leading industries here now. Doctor Carter and Jack Collinsworth bought a nice bunch of cattle of G. J. Carter. Jeff Collinsworth of Little Catt, was here a time or so last week looking after some cattle and hogs. Lige Rupe made a business trip to Catlettsburg on business for James Woods. All the drummers that were here last week report high prices now and higher prices coming on all goods and chattels. Lige Rice and Clem Short have the contract for furnishing the coal for drilling the well No. 8 on Wm. Savage's land. Burch Huletto, our blacksmith, is doing a good business. E. M. Ramey and wife of Radnor, W. Va., passed here Saturday on their way to visit Judge Ramey. E. G. Rupe is opening up a new coal bank on the lands he recently purchased. M. F. Crank is opening a new mine on Mill Carter's farm. Soon there will be enough mines running to supply the demand. Misses Bird, Loda and Jessie Carter were in Louisa Monday having some dental work done. COUNTRY GREENHORN.

ZELDA. There will be a S. S. Convention held at Buchanan chapel the fourth Sunday in September. The improvement league meets at Zelda school house every Tuesday night with large attendance and is getting along fine. Mrs. B. H. Cooksey and daughter were guests of Mrs. Lafe Cooksey this week. The infant babe of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bryant was buried at Zelda cemetery Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Layne are visiting Mrs. R. B. McDonie of Buchanan this week. G. B. Rickman spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Atkins. J. E. Dillon was a pleasant guest here Tuesday last. Kay Frazier was calling here Sunday. Mrs. E. B. Curnette and Miss Marie Roberts were visiting Mrs. Lafe Cooksey Sunday. E. B. Curnette was in Louisa Saturday. Church at this place every Wednesday night. SUNSHINE.

BUCHANAN. The Kavanaugh Sunday School Association held its fifth annual session at Kavanaugh church on Sunday, Aug. 27. Services began at 10:30 a. m., Rev. J. H. Dawson, preacher in charge, and president of the association conducted the services. Opening song "Let a little Sunshine in," followed by prayer. A call of roll of schools showed that all the schools were represented by a total of one hundred and seven delegates. The chair appointed the usual committees, a committee of three to examine the records of each school and award a medal to the secretary keeping the most complete record. A committee of three to ascertain what school was entitled to become the banner school. A committee of three on nominations for the coming year. Committee of two on rules and regulations. Committee of two on resolutions and publications. An offering was taken amounting to $7.15. An adjournment was called for dinner, which was served on the grounds, with plenty of ice water, Adam's beverage, the best of all. The association convened at 1:30 p. m., and the secretary's report was called for. A very complete report had been placed on a blackboard by Bros. Dawson and Wright, which was fully explained. The report showed an improvement in general of the schools. The treasurer's report showed a healthy condition. Committee on nominations reported, and officers were elected for coming year. Committee on banner awarded the banner to Kavanaugh school, who won it last year. Committee on records awarded the medal to the secretary of Kavanaugh school. Kavanaugh church was selected as place of meeting for next year.

LICK CREEK. Sunday school is progressing nicely at this place with large attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Marion Wilson were visiting their daughter, Mrs. V. H. Artrip Sunday. Elbert Payne of Williamson, was visiting here Saturday and Sunday. Mr. George Thompson was calling on Louisa friends Sunday. Carl Burckett was calling on Miss Maud Burton Sunday. Green Hall was calling on Miss Mattie Asch Sunday. Quite a crowd from this place attended church at the tabernacle Sunday evening. Miss Gypsy Thompson was visiting home folks Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Spencer of Garred, are the guests of Mr. Spencer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis Spencer. NOBODY'S DARLING.

GRIFFITH CREEK. Mrs. Leonard Childers and children have returned to their home at Catlettsburg after a weeks visit with relatives on this creek and Donithan. A broken staple in the wrist joint of Wilson Bros. big engine at their sawmill on the Walker fork caused the engine to be blown to atoms last Friday afternoon, no one being hurt seriously, only one man, Mr. A. Wilson being struck by the flying pieces. The engine was completely demolished. Andy Cripple, who was so badly hurt a few weeks ago, when a loaded wagon ran over him, had another accident last Thursday while working for the Harris company on a mountain side. A large rock was started by an ox team above him, a clump of tall briars prevented him from seeing the rock, but partly checked its headway, but it struck him in the back with force enough to knock him fifteen feet on his face. The mill crew saw the accident, ran to him and after some work revived him. He is cut very badly about the face and ears from the blow, but able to be about. George O. Chapman, who works at Huntington, was home Sunday. Mrs. Mart Sammons, of Huntington, is here the guest of Mrs. J. G. Sammons. The Rev. Hill is in Berea attending Conference. Mrs. C. Victor Back and little sons spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Rex Vaughan of Cherryville, it being the occasion of David Harold's first visit to grandma's. Miss Nannie Carmel has pneumonia. Charley Sammons, W. R. Humphrey and Wm. Williamson left Monday for New Richmond, O., to work on the carpenter force in the government work there. An infant son of Walter Mitchell is on the sick list. Several from our creek attended the association at the mouth of Yellow creek Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Will Stewart, of Catlettsburg, are here the guests of Mrs. Stewart's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Owens. Simon Bartlett of Pollard, passed here Saturday enroute to his farms on Nat's creek. J. W. Harris has bought another sawmill and set it on the upper end of the boundry. He is sawing on the Walker fork. Horn, since our last letter, to J. H. McClure and wife an eight pound heir. A small daughter of Wm. Cole of Chapman, has been sick for the past week and is today developing symptoms of typhoid. MUTT.

DUN SCALDS, OHIO. Mrs. Malisa Pack and son, of Newport, who had been visiting relatives at this place returned home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sodaro, of Portsmouth, spent last week with London relatives. Anna Louise, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Reed, who has been sick, is improving. Mrs. Mary McKinster and children spent last week with her mother in London. William O'Bryan and sister, Delta, were shopping in London Saturday. Last Thursday while Mr. Burrell was attending the London fair a certain party took a team and went into Mr. Burrell's woods and simply loaded his wagon with poles and drove away. I guess they settled afterwards. Lewis O'Bryan is laid up with rheumatism. Miss Beesie Sparks spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. John Gallagher. William O'Bryan spent Sunday with his cousin Haskel Miller. Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Miller spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis O'Bryan. We would like to read Charley and Ledocio news. A fine girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller last week. Corn cutting will begin about the 15th of this month. Our new school building is about completed. School will begin the last of this month. Let us hear from all of our Kentucky friends. LONELY GIRL.

LUKE M'LUKE SAYS: Every girl is fond of sports until she happens to marry one. If a stranger were treated like one of the family in some families, he'd want to fight. Once in a while Nature makes a mistake and gives a man a sweet soprano voice and gives a woman a voice that sounds like a horse coughing. A coat of paint may make other things look like new, but it merely attracts attention to a woman's age. What has become of the old-fashioned woman who used to hoist her skirt and sit on her petticoat in order to save the skirt. Nature isn't such a bad old cuss, after all. The women would do heaps more crying than they do if crying didn't make their noses red. Wives are patient waiters. Some of the brides of ten years ago are still waiting for the piano they were to get as soon as the honeymoon trip was over.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

SMOKY VALLEY. The camp meeting has closed at the Bethel camp ground. The sick of our community are improving. Miss Marie Bradley was in Busseyville Thursday, the guest of the Misses Holt. Miss Irene Pickrell spent Sunday night with Martha Roberts. Oma Fletcher and Gluzer Buskirk took supper with the Misses Cyriz Sunday. Misses Emma, Myrtle and Laura Carter, of Little Blaine, have been the guests of their sister, Mrs. Blaine Meade. Misses Mabel Vanhorn and Marie Muncy spent Saturday with Misses Ida and Emma Muncy. Miss Gertrude Pigg of Busseyville, was the guest of Marie Bradley Friday. Willie Muncy is visiting home folks. Mont Rose of Orie was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Roberts Sunday. Andy Fletcher spent Sunday evening with Ola Hayes. Leo Branham filled his regular appointment here Sunday. Wade Muncy is expected home soon. Shelda Diamond was in Louisa recently. Mrs. Grant Roberts continues very ill at the home of J. N. Roberts. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Muncy were visiting relatives on Blaine Saturday and Sunday. TULIP.

WHY HE BOUGHT FROM MAIL ORDER HOUSE. (From the Natchez News-Democrat.) Recently a merchant of Natchez happened to see a farmer receive a box at the depot and noticed that it was from a mail order house. He also noticed that the goods were right in his line and the same as he carried for years. He immediately approached the farmer and said: "I could have sold you goods you have here for less money than the Chicago house and saved you the freight." "Then why don't you do so," said the farmer. "I have taken the local paper or years and have not seen a line about you selling these or any other goods. This mail order house sends advertising matter to me asking for my trade, and they get it. If you have any bargains, why don't you put them in the paper so we can see what they are." MORAL—If you have anything to sell that you are not advertising, START NOW, in the Big Sandy News.

LOVELAND, OHIO. Being interested in your paper, thought I would write you some news of your Big Sandy people from here. Dr. W. H. Hatcher, a well known dentist of Catlettsburg, Ky., and his friend, Mr. Barren, a prominent hardware dealer of Catlettsburg, were on a touring trip through Ohio and Indiana and on their return Dr. Hatcher stopped over a few days with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hatcher, of Loveland, O. Dr. Hatcher and his friend, Mr. Barren left for the speedway and after the auto race they will return home. They announce a pleasant trip as they have driven about three thousand miles without even a puncture. A. B. & C.

DASHING DESIGN. An Italian army officer's coat was the model for this unique and interesting garment, which is posed by the actress Helen Raymond. The fabric is navy blue velours, cut with a deep cape, full skirt and a voluminous front that serves as a most picturesque drape. This front is edged with a dull gold braid, and one big army button closes it at the neck.

LOOK OUT FOR THE CARS. DO YOU know of anyone who is old enough to read, who has not seen that sign at a railroad crossing? If everyone has seen it at some time or other, then why doesn't the railroad let the sign rot away? Why does the railroad company continue to keep those signs at every crossing? Maybe you think, Mr. Merchant, "Most everybody knows my store, I don't have to advertise." Your store and your goods need more advertising than the railroads need do to warn people to "Look Out for the Cars." Nothing is ever completed in the advertising world. The Department Stores are a very good example—they are continually advertising—and they are continually doing a good business. If it pays to run a few ads 'round about Christmas time, it certainly will pay you to run advertisements about all the time. It's just business, that's all, to ADVERTISE IN THIS PAPER. DO IT NOW. Subscribers for THIS PAPER.

You May Talk to One Man. But an advertisement in this paper talks to the whole community. Catch the Idea?

Active at Seventy. Many people at seventy attribute their good health to SCOTT'S EMULSION because its concentrated nourishment creates permanent body-power, and because it is devoid of drugs or stimulants. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 13-22
