by fire yesterday with a loss of nearly $100,000. There was insurance of $50,000. About 300 men were employed making fire brick. The plant will be rebuilt.

Ironton, Ohio.—Mrs. Louis Dempsey, of Inez, Ky., who has been in Cincin- nati on business, returned to this city Monday, and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Golden. She, her husband and daughter were purchasing goods for their store.—Register.

Morehead, Ky., Nov. 11.—A telegram was received here announcing the sad news that Charles Dickey, formerly of Clearfield, had been killed in an au- tomobile accident at Seattle, Wash. He was the only son of Captain and Mrs. J. B. Dickey, of Clearfield. His mother left last month to make him a visit.

Campton, Ky., Nov. 15.—When Ollie Lykins, a 16-year-old boy, took a shot- gun out of the house to shoot a hawk, the gun was accidentally discharged, the load hitting him in his left hand, tearing off three fingers. It is thought that his hand will have to be ampu- tated.

Mayaville, Ky., Nov. 20.—A drove of 431 turkeys coming into this city for slaughter for the Thanksgiving mark- et was a veritable gold mine for the owner. They averaged $3 each, net- ting him $1,293. They are now bring- ing twenty-cents per pound on foot, thirty-five cents dressed.

Ashland, Ky., Nov. 18.—Donald Wurts, 17 years old, was the victim of a freak accident here to-day. He laid his gun on the ground, but the "safety" was not on. His dog ran over it and the weapon was discharged, the bullet going through the calf of Wurts' leg. William Perry, his companion, assist- ed him to his home.

Olive Hill, Ky., Nov. 21.—John Gil- bert, a barber of this city, was ser- viously injured when his automobile turned turtle on the street. He lost control of the machine in attempting to dodge some garbage buckets too near the right-of-way. Four others in the car were severely bruised. Gilbert was caught under the car and injured internally.

Hazard, Ky., Nov. 18.—A telegram was received here this afternoon an- nouncing the sudden death of Dr. H. P. Maggard, of this city, at French Lick Springs, Ind., to-day. Blood- hounds are on the trail of Wiley Miller, Spurlock, who was 65 years old, was shot nine times while driving in his wagon. Wiley Miller was seen running from the scene. No motive has been assigned for the killing other than Spur- lock had appeared as a witness against Miller on a penal indictment.

Hazard, Ky., Nov. 11.—Deputy Sher- iff Lyns Nolan, of Perry-co., was shot thru the breast and killed this morn- ing on Buffalo creek in a pistol battle with an unidentified negro and another negro known as Berry. The uniden- tified black is now in jail here while a posse is searching the surrounding country for Berry.

Deputy Nolan received a call to the Buffalo creek vicinity where some ne- groes were creating a disturbance. He had arrested the men and started to town when they turned on him and Berry. It is thought, shot Nolan thru the leg. Nolan returned the fire strik- ing Perry, but in the meantime the other had shot Nolan thru the breast mortally wounding him. He lived long enough to fatally wound his last as- sultant.

Both negroes are strangers in this country and are said to be a part of a recent shipment of laborers from Ala- bama for work in the mines near here.
