

Kin Folks And Friends!

I have ten fingers and ten toes. I can count that much, but I just can't count all my good friends down South here—they are far too many.

And I'm mighty proud of them. The men who make me, say you can tell real quality by the company one keeps.

Blood will tell. A good name and good breeding count most of all.

And that same, I reckon, applies to cigarettes, too. More and more gentlemen of the South are smoking me, SOVEREIGN, every day, because they know I come from good old Virginia and Carolina stock—the finest, grandest stock in all the world.

Quality is the thing, friend—you can't deny it. And I stand for Quality.

You Folks of the South KNOW good blood!
You Folks of the South KNOW good tobacco!

That's why I am so loved among you all down here So I am proud to say—

I am guaranteed by The American Tobacco Co. —Buy me. If you don't like me return me to your dealer and get your money back. I have said it. A Southern gentleman is known the world over for keeping his word, and I have given you mine.

THE HOME CIRCLE AND ITS INTERESTS.

Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as They Join The Home Circle at Evening Tide.

The Good Housewife. Employing all the shining hours in true domestic art, and using all her given powers to do her chosen part.

She sweeps and dusts and cooks and bakes, Without a minute's waste, Achieving all that living gauges, Just to her dear one's taste.

In habits and in person neat; In disposition kind, Her voice soft, tender, low and sweet, Bespeaks a balanced mind.

Her children, bright, polite and clean, And trained in wisdom's ways, Are sure to loathe what's false and mean In all their mortal days.

And she creates the air of home, The hearthstone's blessed light; And whoso'er her loved ones roam Her counsels guide them right.

'Tis heavenlike where she abides, The faithful, true housewife; And when the pilots, safely glides Along the bark of life.

A. S. Wrangle, in Good Housekeeping.

The Ordinary Woman. The husband of the ordinary woman has not the gift of making money. He works hard but is a poor manager and the wolf never gets far from his door.

The good wife sews, cooks and mends for the man who does not even give her a kind word for pay. One has most truthfully said that for each of her children she trod the Gethsemane of woman, only to go thru that slavery of motherhood which the woman endures who is too poor to hire competent nurses. For years and years she never knew what it was to have a single night's unbroken sleep. The small hours of the morning found her walking the floor with a sick babe, or putting water to thirsty little lips. There was no rest for her day and night. There was always a child in her arms or clinging to her skirts. Oftener than not she was sick and nerve worn and weary almost to death but never failed to rally to the call of "mother!"—as a good soldier always rallied to his battle-cry.

Nobody called her brave and yet, when one of the children came down with malignant diphtheria she braved death one hundred times in bending over the little sufferer, without one thought of danger, and when the little one was laid away under the sod, she who had loved most was the first to gather herself together and take up the burden of life for the others.

These ordinary women may not receive a Carnegie badge for bravery, but "He who marks the sparrow's fall" will certainly reserve for them the brightest jeweled crowns in His kingdom.

You cannot look into the cradle and read the secret message traced by a divine hand, and wrapped up in that bit of clay, any more than you can see the North Star in the magnetic needle. God has loaded the needs of that young life so it will point to the star of its own destiny; and though you may pull it around by artificial advice and unnatural education, and compel it to point to the star which presides over law, art, poetry or medicine, or your own pet calling until you have wasted years of a precious life, when, once free, the needle flies back to its own star.

About Your Boy.

One of our exchanges says that the father and son movement is one of the best and most sensible things we have heard of for a long time. That is because it proposes to accomplish results through using natural human instincts naturally. It appeals to the deepest of human feelings—love. It goes about to remind fathers of something they may have forgotten and to tell boys something they may not have known. You can get at this better if you sit down and talk confidentially with some other father's boy. He will tell you things your own boy cannot. In his wistful earnestness, you will discover that there are times when a boy has a real matter of grave importance to him that finds his father too busy to be bothered. It will make you stop and think as you realize that this little fellow couldn't come to any other conclusion than that his dad was indifferent. Fathers know better; fathers remember pretty well when they were boys but they don't remember just how sensitive a boy is to the worst of rebuffs, that of being thought silly. Now, the boys need to be told this about their fathers, that they are not indifferent. But after all the biggest thing is to tell fathers, for it is their business to understand and theirs is the responsibility.

Children are carefree and merry and seem not to notice much that passes before them, but they see deeper into life and people than we realize. They study expression; they weigh motives, they judge and honor or despise their elders according to their deserts. For better or for worse each child is being educated by his home surroundings and is receiving the indelible stamp that develops into the stable character of manhood. If the atmosphere of the home is cruel, cold, critical, deceitful, vulgar, ignoble—so will the child be who breathes and grows in the atmosphere. If the character of the home is kindly, gentle, sincere, honorable, truthful, charitable and high minded—so will the children be. It is difficult to believe, but we really are known by our children. It is not what we say, it is not what we wish others to think of us, but what we really are, that is discerned by the clear eyes of childhood.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels, or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach; remove the sour, fermenting food; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret to-night, straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love Cascarets because they never gripe or sicken.

GIRLS! THICKEN AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR AND STOP DANDRUFF

TRY THIS! YOUR HAIR GETS WAVY, GLOSSY AND ABUNDANT AT ONCE.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair—soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness, and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you can not find a trace of dandruff or falling hair.

But your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—growing out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

By Being Constantly Supplied With Theford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble."

A FEW FACTS ABOUT COUGHS AND COLDS THE PUBLIC SHOULD KNOW

Whether this Cold will prove a simple catarrh of the nose and throat or but short duration and mild character; whether dread Pneumonia, with its sharp and fatal sting, shall be the sequence; or whether the blighting blast of the White Plague shall sit spectre-like upon its victim no one can foretell; hence the great importance of treating all colds, however mild, promptly and energetically. In urban populations the services of a skilled physician is always within call, but in rural district, distance and inclement weather often act together to forestall the doctor's timely aid, so that valuable time is in this way lost. It was particularly for this latter class of sufferers that MEINHARDT'S GERMAN COUGH REMEDY was invented. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.
