How Do They Do It?

The following editorial from the Cincinnati Enquirer causes us to stop and think of the enormous burdens of the world leaders of to-day.

It would be a strangely apathetic and indifferent mind which did not often, in these days of mental and spiritual strain, bestow at least a passing thought upon the men whose shoulders are bearing the almost unendurable burdens of this war.

We do not envy them ourselves. It is too much like having to stagger up another hill of Calvary with a heavy cross upon our shoulders—a cross on which we were all but certain to be crucified.

We have read that Kerensky—that youthful miracle of physical, mental and volitional energy (a youth of 33) was heard to sigh that he must work harder! How can he do what he does?

Geneva Wilks was shopping here last week. Opal Webb and Jay Thompson were on Twin Branch recently.

There will be church here the fourth Saturday and Sunday. Come, one and all.

HENRIETTA AND PATRICK.

Misses Mary Dawson of Fort Gay is spending a few weeks with her sister Mrs. Lon Footh at Henrietta.

Mr. Tommie Preece, who has been working for Phillip Preece, visited home folks near Crum, W. Va., Sunday.

The Phillip Preece timber job is progressing nicely. Tommie Boyd of Stafford, visited his parents at Patrick Sunday.

Cyrus Preston, son of Rev. Ed Preston, was badly injured while at work in Whitehouse coal mines last week.

Miss Gertrude Meade and sisters, Lizzie and Olga, were taking in the sights around the famous "Roll Over Gap" Sunday. MOHEA.

War of World Conquest

REPORT MADE BY DEWEY TO NAVY DEPARTMENT FIFTEEN YEARS AGO.

Washington, Sept. 24.—Prediction that Germany would wage a war for world conquest in about fifteen years was made to the late Admiral Dewey at Manila in 1898 by Capt. von Goetz of the German Imperial Navy. Senator Lewis to-day told the Senate.

Quoting a report from Admiral Dewey to the Navy Department, the Illinois Senator said that Von Goetz told the American naval officer that Germany would capture Paris as the first step to subjugating England.

The wiping out of the Monroe Doctrine and the control of South America by Germany also were predicted by the German officer, declared Senator Lewis, who was discussing peace negotiations.

For some reason the Government had not given the report wide circulation, Senator Lewis continued, but in the face of it now, "any Senator who speaks here or elsewhere against any measure of his country lends himself to the enemy."

Characterizing the German reply to Pope Benedict's peace note as "Prussian peace hypocrisy," and an affront both to the Pope and President Wilson, Senator Lewis scored what he termed "laggardism in patriotism" and those who argue against the war.

"The country guarantees free speech to every American," the speaker said, "but that man who uses free speech against America is not the American to whom free speech is guaranteed. In this country there can be no free speech to any man to destroy the freedom of his fellowman."

"There can never be liberty of speech to an American citizen to destroy the liberty of the American nation."
