Surveying Routes. Surveyors are in Johnson county this week surveying the route of the proposed Mayo Trail through the valley. It is said that a number of routes will be surveyed and later the route selected...

Candidates. Johnson county has two candidates for the unexpired term of Judge Fred A. Vaughan as county judge of Johnson county and two candidates for Commonwealth's attorney in the Johnson-Martin district to fill out the unexpired term of the office of Commonwealth's attorney, caused by the death of W. E. Litteral. The office of Commonwealth's attorney has been vacant for several months.

Water Works. It is said that a proposition will soon be made to the city council and the city of Paintsville for a system of water works. Let us hope that a system of water works be installed in Paintsville. It is the only town on the river without water works and the town needs a water system worse than it needs anything else.

CATLETTSBURG

Hinkle-Boller. The following from the Ashland Independent is of interest to our readers, the bride being a member of a prominent family of this county:

A lovely wedding was consummated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cassell on Oakland avenue, Catlettsburg, at 11:44 o'clock Tuesday night, when Miss Tennie Hinkle, sister of Mrs. Cassell, was united in marriage with Mr. Charles Ray Boller. The impressive ceremony of the Presbyterian church was pronounced by Rev. G. M. Howerton. The happy couple came here from Richardson, Ky., the home of the bride and were accompanied by Mrs. O. E. Hinkle, a sister-in-law and as the next train was far behind schedule the wedding was consequently late. The bride who is pretty and charming was never more so than on the occasion of her marriage. She wore a blue traveling suit with accessories of a corresponding shade. The groom was tastefully attired and looked quite handsome. No one enjoyed the merry making attendant on this wedding more than the jolly brother-in-law of the bride, Mr. Carl Cassell. The bride is a member of a prominent family, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Hinkle, of Richardson, and the groom is an oil speculator and hails from Marion, Ind. They are cultured and popular young people. The groom has been at Richardson for some time in the oil business. They spent the day following the wedding with Mr. and Mrs. Cassell and accompanied by Mrs. O. E. Hinkle they returned to Richardson last evening but will leave in a few days for Marion, Ind., and other points and will be absent for several weeks when they will return and make their temporary home at Richardson. May joy light their pathway on their journey through life.

A telegram was received here bearing the news of the tragic death of Harry Vanhorn, which was caused when he was filling a saw at his place of business in Cincinnati, Saturday. Mr. Vanhorn was born and reared in Hampton City. He was thirty-six years old and leaves his wife and three children. He was a son of James and Rhoda Vanhorn, of Catlettsburg.

Prominent People Here. Richard Cooper and wife, of Coffeeville, Texas, are here for a few days on their return from a visit to relatives in Magoffin county, where they were both reared. Mr. Cooper is a son of the late Lee Cooper and Mrs. Cooper is a daughter of Samuel Rice. They are visiting Mrs. Frank Conley here and Mrs. Cornett, both of whom are sisters of Mr. Cooper. They went to Texas about 27 years ago, and have become very wealthy. They have many friends throughout eastern Kentucky.

Marriage Licenses. Claude Jarvis, 26, New Boston, Ohio. Charissa Thompson, 25, York, Ky. George F. Hertel, 42, Maud, Ohio. Mary Maynard, 15, Inez, Ky. Penn Robinson, 22, and Miss Johnnie Peiry, 18, of Adeline.

Ben Moore, 31, Lawrence county, to Miss Martha Thompson, Elliott county.

To Attend Convention. Rev. Roscoe Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Damon and Alonzo Stratton left Ceredo, W. Va., the first of the week for Buffalo, N. Y., where they will attend the sessions of the Northern Baptist convention.

Visited Relatives. Mrs. Milton Barnett, of the south side, had as her dinner guests her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Yates, of Fallsburg, Ky., and cousin, Mrs. M. V. Yates and daughters, Martha and Emma, of Mt. Vernon, Va. In the afternoon Mrs. J. W. Yates accompanied the latter to Kenova where she left for her home in Virginia. The former lady returned to Fallsburg on the evening of 8 & B. S. train. Mrs. M. V. Yates has been on an extended visit with relatives at Fallsburg.

Engagement Announced. Wide interest has been occasioned by news of the engagement of Mr. Pearl Bardin, of Catlettsburg and Huntington, to Miss Betty Barr, of Marion, Ind. The wedding takes place July 19 at the bride's home. Mr. Bardin is one of the best known and most popular young men of the tri-state region and is prominent in both business and social circles. He is identified with the Alschire Harvey Company with offices in Huntington. During the war he served overseas as a first lieutenant of infantry. Following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Bardin will reside with the groom's mother, Mrs. J. S. Bardin, Sr., in Catlettsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Sellards, of Prestonburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Elkins, of Portsmouth, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Elkins for a brief visit last week.

Mrs. J. Mynes, of Huntington, stopped here Tuesday afternoon en route from Paintsville to Charleston, W. Va., being called by the serious illness of her daughter. Mrs. Mynes has been spending several weeks camping with her husband near the mines at Paintsville and Van Lear.

John McConnell, of Louisville, is the week-end guest of his parents, Judge

Bob Shank to Fly at Kyle Farm. Bob Shank, famous aviator, who dropped down on the old home town the other day coming out of the clouds in his big Curtis by-plane, plans to offer his acquaintances, old and new, a touch of high life this week. He is to spend the week at the Kyle Farm, near Dam 77, on the Ohio River road. The aviator has made a careful survey of the fields about Huntington, and he says the Kyle farm is the best of all and that flights made from there will offer almost 100 percent safety.

Wayne Veteran Dead. Octavian Cromwell Plymale, 77, a Confederate veteran and former resident of Wayne county, died last Friday afternoon at his home in Huntington. He was a member of Camp Garnett, and moved to Huntington in 1905. A man of upright character and sterling qualities, he held the respect of all who knew him. He was a lifelong member of the Baptist church at Buffalo.

Mrs. Ben Lockwood of Paintsville was an over Sunday guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Turman. Miss Myrtle Estep is up from Catlettsburg visiting her sister, Mrs. T. P. Ross.

GRIFFITH CREEK

The first of the tractors for the Hollandworth Lumber Co. has arrived. It will soon give a tryout; it is a Cleveland-Catepillar, supposed to make 4 miles an hour hauling as much as four teams. Others are soon to follow if this one proves a success. We neglected to note last week the arrival of a fine son to Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Sammons—Millard McClellan. Miss Jessie Maynard of Donihon was the week-end guest of the Misses Sammons.

Russell, foster son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harris, who has been sick for quite awhile, is getting better. A good lot of much needed work has been done on our roads the last two weeks.

Miss Jessie Vaughan spent Sunday the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. Victor Back.

J. W. Harris' lower mill is out of commission. The engine has been sent to Ashland for a general overhauling. Neil Thompson spent a few days with his brother-in-law B. Hays at Ledocio who is very low with typhoid. John Preston of Georges creek has moved to our creek and has taken charge of the Hollandworth club house. Whooping cough is prevalent on our creek this summer.

Cleveland Baisten of Drift is here this week the guest of his brother, Sam McHenry.

U. G. Sammons left Tuesday for Ledocio to be with his relative, B. Hays, who is very low with typhoid.

Melvin James is down from Inez looking after United Fuel interests.
