PAINTSVILLE

Rivers-Rice. The wedding of Mr. Alger H. Rice and Miss Bertha M. Rivers, of Denton, Ky., came as a surprise to their many friends. They were quietly married at the home of the bride on Middle Fork, June 25th, by Rev. R. M. Miller, of Ivyton. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm Rivers and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Rice.

Holbrook-Johnson. Married, June 23, at the home of the bride, Miss Beulah to Mr. Hatler Johnson, of Weebury, Ky. The bride is a daughter of L. D. Holbrook, of Red Bush. She has resided with her brother, P. T. Holbrook, of this city for the past three years. She was a student of the Paintsville High School and a popular teacher of this county. Mr. Johnson is a young man of fine character and business ability. They left Friday for Weebury where Mr. Johnson has a good position.

Another New Truck. County Judge W. H. Vaughan sent to Frankfort last week and got a new truck for Johnson county which will be used on the roads. This will give the county two of these large trucks and we can now do more and better work on the roads. If these trucks are kept busy for the summer and fall months the roads of the county will be in a better condition.

Fitzpatrick-Rice. Last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Wood, Miss Lillian Fitzpatrick and Mr. Sterling Rice were united in marriage by Rev. W. C. Stewart of the M. E. Church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burns Fitzpatrick and is a graduate of the business department of the Jno. C. C. Mayo College. For the past few weeks she has been employed by the Big Sandy Drug Co. She is a popular young lady. Mr. Rice is a progressive young business man and has been successful. He is now employed by The Consolidation Coal Co. at Jenkins as bookkeeper and the happy couple will move to Jenkins where they will reside in the future.

Mrs. Preston Dead. The death of Mrs. C. W. Preston occurred Wednesday morning of last week. She had been seriously ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Brown for the past few weeks. She leaves one son and one daughter, husband and a number of relatives and friends.

County Agent. County Agent R. A. Hensley is in Lexington attending a meeting of the Eastern Kentucky County Agents. He informs us that there seems to be a misunderstanding as to the work that he is to do in the Jno. C. C. Mayo College this year, as some have the impression that he is to teach exclusively this year. Mr. Hensley will continue his work as County Agent and will only give some time to work in the college in order to help out those who are coming in from the country preparatory to teaching, as Agriculture is now required of all teachers.

Parsonals. Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. D. Tate and Mr. and Mrs. Rufus C. Smith and little son, Lee Tate Smith, returned to their home in Huntington Friday after a visit here with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Preston. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Ethel Howes and little daughter, Anna Wallace, who will spend some time the guests of Huntington relatives. Miss Ora May Preston, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A.

Kirk for the past few weeks, left last Friday for a short visit with her home folks at Ashland. She will attend the summer term of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music in Cincinnati. Miss Preston has had charge of the Music department of the Jno. C. C. Mayo College for a number of years and is considered the best instructor in music in Eastern Kentucky.

DeWitte T. Stafford was the guest of friends in Huntington, W. Va., where he met his sister, Miss May Stafford, who was returning to her home here after spending a year in Richmond, Va., taking treatment. She is much improved in health.

Mrs. Clarence Hager and son Jack are visiting Mrs. Ida L. Hager and family in Lexington. They were accompanied to Ashland by Mr. Hager.

Russell Hager will leave this week for Bardonia to visit Mrs. Hager and son who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Halstead. They will return home soon.

Miss Hester Ward is spending a two week's vacation with relatives in Louisa. Miss Ward has a good position with the North-East Coal Co. and will return shortly to resume her work.

Miss Alka McKinster, of Louisville, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. E. Buckingham here this week. Miss McKinster is studying in the Norton Infirmary to be a trained nurse.

Born, June 27, to Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Lauson, of Huntington, W. Va., a baby girl. Miss Lauson will be remembered as Miss Mayme Elliott of this city.

Misses Winifred Buckingham and Musette Sowards left last week for a summer camp in the East where they will spend a few weeks. They were accompanied by Rev. and Mrs. H. G. Sowards who will visit in West Virginia for a few weeks before returning to Paintsville.

Mrs. Henry Caudill returned to her home in Panhaska, Okla., Friday after spending a few days here the guest of Mr. Caudill and Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Meade. She was accompanied as far as Cincinnati by Chas. Caudill and Cecil Yaddon. Mrs. Caudill and little son will return to Paintsville shortly to make their future home.

Mrs. W. W. Burchett, of Akron, O., is here this week the guest of Mrs. Garfield Butler. She and family moved from Paintsville a few years ago but they have many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kirk were in Louisa Monday where they consulted Dr. York at the Riverview hospital. Mrs. Kirk has been in poor health for the past few years.

Attorney M. C. Kirk was in Louisa Tuesday for treatment at the Riverview hospital.

Miss Flora Virginia Dare and brother John Columbus, returned Sunday from Baltimore where they spent some time.

Mrs. Eugene Davis, of Auxler, was the guest of friends in Paintsville Saturday.

Chas. Howes, of Frankfort, spent the week end here with relatives and friends.—Herald.
