IN MEMORY OF MRS. CYNTHIA F. STEWART

In the death of Mrs. Cynthia F. Stewart, which occurred on February 20, 1922, the Methodist Episcopal Church South and its Sunday school have suffered a loss, the extent of which it is difficult to estimate.

For more than half a century she was one of the most devoted and substantial members of the Louisa church always ready to assist in the work in every possible way. Until incapacitated by the weight of years she entered into the affairs of the church with the same zeal that characterized her service in the home circle. Her pure life and the faith that caused her to walk in the way have left impressions that will last far beyond her day in our community.

The beautiful church edifice in which we are privileged to worship today is in a large measure, a monument to Mrs. Stewart, because of the extent of her contributions and those of the family that she reared to love and support the church.

Mrs. Stewart was a woman of high ideals. She loved the beautiful in nature and delighted in the glory of the Celestial. The flowers added joy to her life and the songs of Zion were the sweetest music that fell upon her ears. To the poor she was always a friend, and to the sick a benediction.

Leaving to the extreme age of 82, the usual infirmities of years had of late deprived her of the activities of former days, but to the last she was intensely interested in the church and all of its enterprises; and now that she has passed out of this world we realize more than ever what she was worth to us.

To the surviving members of the family we extend the sympathy of this church and Sunday school; and we offer the consolation that only they can have who know that heaven is the eternal home of their departed loved ones.

NAAMAN JACKSON ELECTED CHAIRMAN

Naaman Jackson, president of the First National Bank of Logan, W. Va., was unanimously elected chairman of number three group of W. Va. Bankers Association at the regular meeting of bankers held in Huntington last Wednesday and Thursday. The group also accepted by acclaim the invitation extended by Mr. Jackson to hold the next meeting in this city.

D. A. Hall, a Huntington Banker, was chosen secretary of the group. Messrs. Jackson and Hall will direct the meetings of the bankers in group number three for the next 12 months.

The State Bankers Association is divided into several groups, each of which holds frequent meetings during the year to discuss issues of vital importance in banking circles. Group number three is composed of seven counties: Cabell, Mason, Putnam, Lincoln, Mingo, Logan and Wayne. The city of Logan will give the bankers of these seven counties the glad hand when they come here to deliberate over the matters peculiar to the institutions which they direct.—Logan Democrat.

TWO MEN ROBBED.

The Ashland Independent says: Five masked armed men early today held up R. L. Price, 916 Prospect Place, and T. O. Webb, of Virginia, employees of the Sutton Construction Co., and made their escape with about $34 and a watch.

Price and Webb were coming from Price's home on Prospect early this morning preparatory to going to the C. & O. station to get on train number four when they were stopped on 14th street between Carter and Central avenues by four masked men who jumped out of a Ford car.

The four men were armed and forced the two would-be travelers to stop and undergo a search. About eighteen dollars were taken from each man and a watch was taken from Price.

They informed the police today that a fifth man stayed in the car which stopped immediately in front of the station about one o'clock in the morning.

Protection for Growing Feet

ALL the knowledge gained through thirty years' study of the human foot is represented in the lasts of "Little Queen" shoes—lasts scientifically designed to afford protection for the growing foot, allowing it to develop naturally.

And a sympathetic understanding of every little girl's love of going to school is shown in the attractive styles which have all the smartness one has learned to associate with the name Queen Quality.

Perfect-fitting, sturdily built, good-looking, long-wearing shoes—the "Little Queen" trade mark is an assurance of footwear satisfaction for both the wise mother and her daughters.

A dainty, perfect-fitting little pump with the smart instep strap just like the "grown-ups" are wearing.
