JOHN N. FRENCH DEAD AT 97 YEARS

John N. French, one of the best old citizens of this county, died Thursday night of this week at the home of his son, Tohe French, at Vessie, where he had made his home for 11 years. Had he lived until Christmas day he would have been 97 years old.

He was born in Mercer county, Va., and came here just after the Civil war. He was twice married and there were three children by the first union and nine by the second. All are living except one son, Carl. The last wife died about four years ago.

The surviving sons and daughters are Mrs. Hiram Howell of Denton, Mrs. Bud Davis of Mavity, James French of South Portsmouth, Mrs. Stephen Curran of Catterburg, Mrs. Wm. Taylor and Mrs. Joe Stewart of Ashland, Mrs. Julia Lambert of Zella, Tohe French of Vessie, Mrs. Elliott Billups of South Point, Ohio, Mrs. Cora Compton of Vuletta, Robt. French of Charleston, W. Va.

The funeral will take place Saturday and the burial will be in Buchanan chapel near Zella. Revs. Hewitt and Campbell will conduct the services.

Mr. French was a fine type of citizen. He was a man of the strictest integrity, industrious and always steady in the right. He had been a member of the M. E. Church South for a good many years. He had been able to get around quite well until about a month ago, when he became sick and was confined to his room.

ELLIS AND JACK Ellis Motook and Jack Tahnoose will close out their merchandising business here and go to Detroit, where 12,000 Syrians live. They are doing this because their wives want to get amongst natives of their home country. They do not mind going and have been in America only a few months and are therefore quite lonely here. Ellis and Jack have spent several years in America and have learned English very well. They think America is the greatest of all countries. More than a year ago they returned to their old home in Syria, where there was and is much distress. They remained there a few months, helping relatives to get in position to live. Some of them had died of starvation along with the thousands whose lives ended that way. Before returning to America Jack married Ellis' daughter and the two couples came over together.

Jack lived in Louisa for quite a while previous to the World war, going from here as a soldier, and serving in France through some of the hard fought battles.

FAITH HEALER. Normal, Ky., Oct. 21, 1922. Mrs. Price Searberry of Normal, Ky., is our faith doctor, certainly makes good success. The number of patients is about three hundred. She treats cancer, growths, tumors, goiters or any other sickness. I would advise all that are sick to hunt for her house. Mrs. J. H. Preston has been healed of cancer when she had give up to die. C. D. Silvers Marries in Middlesboro, Ky. Louisa friends of Mr. Claude D. Silvers will be interested in the following account of his wedding which took place in Middlesboro, Ky., October 25th. Mr. Silvers, a Louisa boy, having been reared in the home of his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Atkinson. He left here a few years ago for Middlesboro and has been at Kitts, Ky., since returning from army service. He is in possession of a coal company there. He is a young man of sterling qualities and has many friends here all of whom wish him and his bride a long life of happiness.

Middlesboro News: The marriage of Miss Henry Etta Rash to Mr. Claude D. Silvers was solemnized at 11 o'clock this morning in the First Presbyterian church. The Rev. J. V. Logan of Louisville performed the ceremony, assisted by Dr. J. A. Gray. The church was decorated in ferns and potted plants and the choir left was backed in green foliage. Mr. Richard M. Rash acted as organ, playing "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" as a prelude, "Lohengrin's Wedding March" as the processional, "Call Me Thine Own" during the ceremony and Mendelssohn's wedding march as a recessional.

Eight bridesmaids of the bride, were choir girls, entering the church just before the ceremony to take their place in the choir, and rising when the strains of the wedding march began. These were Miss Carrie Lee Temple, Miss Frances Fitzpatrick, Miss Della Richards, Jennie Buchanan, Miss Henrietta Gordon, Miss Mary Frances Davidson and Miss Kathryn Burch. The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, Warren P. Rash and was given away by him.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Ellen Rash, Dr. as matron of honor. The bridegroom's best man was his brother, Everett Silvers of Fork Ridge. The bride was dressed in a suit of dark blue velveteen with a squirrel cellular, a blue hat faced in silver, and gray gloves and shoes and she carried a bouquet of Columbia roses.

The bride, one of Middlesboro's prettiest and most popular girls, is the daughter of Mrs. Alice Rash. Mr. and Mrs. Silvers left on the noon train for Louisville and from there they will go for a honeymoon trip in the south. They will be at home at Kitts, Ky.

Miss Rash was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower and also at a shower and luncheon given by friends.

The Knoxville Journal and Tribune of Sunday published a picture of Mrs. Silvers with the following comment: "The prettiest girl in town" was the description used by Middlesboro admirers of Miss Henry Etta Rash, who Friday became the bride of Mr. Claude D. Silvers of Harlan, Ky. The many friends of the bride in her home city where she had lived the most of her life, regret that her marriage takes her to another place of residence.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hatten and daughter, Constance, and Mr. Oliver Wheeler motored over from Huntington Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Hatten.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH. "The Church of Friendship." Say, where do you attend Sunday school? Do you know that you are missing an opportunity if you do not attend somewhere. This church invites you to come and join one of our classes. We have teachers who can hold your attention.

The pastor is well pleased with the welcome we are giving him. He promises that you can not get out of, or into the church without someone shaking hands with you. Try it next Sunday and see.

A religious survey of the city will be made next Sunday afternoon. Now, do not leave home until after the visitors have called on you. They are not hunting money, but after finding out your church relation.

Do you enjoy good, live music? That is what we have, the best orchestra in Eastern Kentucky and a choir that cannot be surpassed.

The pastor is teaching the Sunday school lesson each Wednesday at the prayer service. Come and study with us. Thirty odd present last Wednesday evening. Make it fifty this week.

We are making fine progress in our Senior B. Y. P. U. Come and join this bunch of the young people. They are going to have a turkey party Friday night, November 24th.

The pastor is going to preach on one of the most vital topics of today, next Sunday night. Come out and see how you came about.

Thanksgiving Service. The ministers of Louisa have agreed to hold a union Thanksgiving service on the 30th at the M. E. Church South. The sermon will be preached by Rev. Frank Brant, the Baptist pastor. Instead of holding the service in the morning as usual, it will be held in the evening, seven o'clock.

Quarterly meeting, the first of this conference year will be held the last Sunday evening in this month. Presiding Elder Slaughter will be at Fallsburg on the morning of that day. Come to the Sunday services and to prayer meeting. You will enjoy them.

Money Raised by Churches The Literary Digest says: "Despite the fact that the aggregate wealth of the United States is said to have increased ten times per capita during the same time, the steward of a large membership of his denomination 'is contributing only one cent more a week compared to forty years ago.' Yet the half billion dollars contributed during their last fiscal years by the various church bodies is generally regarded as cause for congratulation, and the Albany Journal remarks that 'notwithstanding many evidences of frivolity and worse that have been conspicuous in this country of late, this figure proves that religion maintains a strong hold on the people.' The reports gathered by the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America show that the combined Methodist bodies lead with contributions of $139,739,479; the Catholic Church is second with $75,568,244; and the combined Baptists are third with $60,798,534. The Methodists combine the Methodist Episcopal Church (North) and the Methodist Episcopal Church (South), while the Baptists have the Southern Convention and the Northern Convention. The standing of the combined Presbyterians is $26,281,170; of the Protestant Episcopal Church, $34,873,221; of the Lutherans, $22,770,719; of the Congregationalists, $21,233,412. The number of church members in the United States, it is estimated, is 46,242,136, and by the average, computes the Journal, each one gives at least $10 a year to the support of his church and its work. Episcopalians, it notes, are the most generous of the larger communions, their average being $31.59 a year, while members of the Presbyterian Church (South) are second, with a per capita gift of $30.54. An important point, remarks the Kansas City Star, is that the contributions are not spread out evenly among the church members.

"It has been shown many times that the raising of money in a church, as well as the main work of the organization, must be done by a comparatively small number of the members. Where large numbers of children are included in the membership this condition especially prevails in the matter of giving. It is reasonable to suppose, therefore, that in numerous instances the support of religious work of various kinds may entail a real sacrifice, if not a burden, on the part of certain church members.

"The condition might reasonably be changed, both with respect to the few contributors and the combined total, by more general giving. A survey of a number of churches in Middle West-

General Pershing Goes And Gets 'em

Gen. John J. Pershing would have been quite a boy in the front line trenches with a rifle--had he not been busy bossing our A. E. F. in France. Last week on the lower Mississippi he went duck hunting with Gov. Parker and Bernard Baruch, using a 10-gauge gun, dropping his first eight birds without a miss. Then he posed for this exclusive photo.
