

The Lancaster News.

VOL. 9, NO. 62, SEMI-WEEKLY.

LANCASTER, S. C., FRIDAY, MAY 8, 1914.

$1.50 PER YEAR

M'ADOO-WILSON WEDDING IS QUIET

Youngest Daughter of President Becomes a Bride.

ONLY A FEW PRESENT.

Less Than 100 Persons Assemble in the Historic White House Blue Room.

Washington, May 7.—Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson, youngest daughter of the President and Mrs. Wilson, tonight became the bride of William Gibbs McAdoo, Secretary of the Treasury, in the historic Blue room of the White House.

Less than 100 persons and but few officials heard the voice of Rev. Sylvester W. Beach of the First Presbyterian Church of Princeton as he united the two in marriage.

It was a simple ceremony. For the President and Mrs. Wilson it was a touching moment, as they gave away a daughter for the second time within a year. Around them stood their relatives and friends a small group—same kind of home wedding one would see in any American household—though the historic interior of the White House with its masses of lilies and ferns the uniformed maids and the presence of members of the Cabinet and the Vice President presided for the function an official aspect.

MARKED BY SIMPLICITY.

It was in contrast, nevertheless, to the wedding of last November. There were no uniformed diplomats, no members of the Senate or House, nor the Supreme Court. This was the wish of the bride and groom, carried out to the letter and except for an afternoon of gaiety among the young folks the day and evening moved along quietly and quickly.

The ceremony started at 6 o'clock sharp, and lasted but 15 minutes. The reception was brief, the wedding supper was followed by a brief dance, and at 8 o'clock, the bride and groom had left, the wedding guests had departed and the White House resumed its normal appearance, interrupted but a few hours.

All day long there had been busy preparations but officials Washington and the society of the National Capital had no part in the affair. Most of the guests were intimate friends of the family from other cities. Secretary McAdoo gave a luncheon to his colleagues in the Cabinet, attended also by Dr. Carey T. Grayson, U. S. N., his best man; Secretary Tumulty and Vice President Marshall.

The President and Mrs. Wilson motored with their three daughters. During the early evening small crowds peered through the fence and iron gates, but saw only the procession of carriages and automobiles as they brought guests or took them away.

THE CEREMONY.

Guests, relatives and close friends of the two families were grouped in a semi-circle. There was a hush of silence as the clergyman entered slowly from the main corridor and ascended the little altar with its pedieu covered with white satin. The Marine Band struck up the wedding march. Miss Sallie McAdoo, 10-year-old daughter of the Secretary, led the procession as a flower girl, followed by Mrs. Francis Bowes Sayre, sister of the bride and matron of honor and Miss Margaret Wilson, eldest daughter of the President, as maid of honor. Miss Nancy Lane, 12 years old, another flower girl, daughter of Secretary Lane, directly preceded the bride, who was escorted by the President. The groom, with Dr. Carey Travers Grayson, U. S. N., best man, met the bride at the altar.

The Presbyterian single ring service was used with the characteristic words "love, honor and obey." As the President gave the bride away there was an affectionate smile on his face. He stepped back from the altar beside Mrs. Wilson and as the words of the service were read, their faces were gravely solemn.

The bride and groom repeated the service unflatteringly and did not appear nervous. They smiled happily as they led the procession from the altar to the Red Room, where they receive the congratulations of the guests.

Supper was served at small tables in the State dining room, while the Marine band played. The bride cut the wedding cake with Dr. Grayson's sword, the young folks had a dance

TRIBUTE TO NATION'S HEROES.

President to Speak at Memorial to Marines Killed at Vera Cruz.

Washington May 6.—President Wilson will voice the nation's tribute to the Marines and bluejackets killed in the occupation of Vera Cruz at memorial services at the Brooklyn navy yards Monday. Secretary Daniels and his staff and Secretary Garrison and Admiral Dewey will be among the chief figures at the ceremonies.

The President will leave Washington for New York late Sunday night. Secretary Daniels will sail from Hampton Roads on the yacht Mayflower and escort funeral cruiser Montana to New York harbor. In the lower harbor the battleship Wyoming and the cruiser Tennessee will meet the Montana and Mayflower and convey them to the dock. The bodies will be sent to the home towns of the dead Monday. The Montana will continue to Boston with the three New England dead.

WILSON RECEIVES OLNEY'S REGRETS

Former Secretary of State Explains Why He is Unable to Accept the Offer.

Washington, May 6.—President Wilson today received Richard Olney's letter in which the former secretary of state declined the governorship of the federal reserve board. It was as follows:

"My dear Mr. President: I feel honored beyond words by your letter of the 30th ultimo—by the expression of confidence which accompanies the offer.

"But the act of Congress which very properly requires each member of the federal reserve board to give his entire time to his work I can in no way accept. In the course of a long life I have in various instances assumed duties and undertaken trusts which, from their personal nature, can not properly be devolved upon others.

"If the conclusion I have come to is a disappointment to you, I greatly regret it. But you can hardly be sorrier than I am that I am unable to do so little in aid of an administration whose first year of achievement makes it one of the most notable the country has ever known.

"Trusting you will not suffer your health and strength to be impaired by the strain of the unusual difficulties now attending the duties of your great office, I am sincerely yours, The letter was dated Boston, May 4, 1914.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE DEFEATED.

House of Lords Rejects Bill by a Vote of 104 to 60.

London, May 6.—The woman's suffrage bill was rejected tonight by the house of lords by a vote of 104 to 60.

Baron Courtney of Penwith, the Earl of Lytton and Baron Willoughby de Broke, spoke for the bill, while Baron Weardale, the Marquis of Crewe and Viscount St. Aldwyn spoke against it.

Viscount St. Aldwyn said demands for the extension of the parliamentary suffrage to women which were based on the results obtained in those states of the United States where it had been tried, did not apply in the United Kingdom because in the states men were in the majority while in the British Isles they were in the minority.

Consequently, he said, the granting of the parliamentary vote to women of the British Isles would mean the handing over of the destinies of the country and of the empire to a female electorate, which, he said, was a perilous step to take.

Among those who voted for the bill were Viscount Morley of Blackburn, the archbishop of Canterbury and the bishops of London, Hereford, Bangor and St. Asaph.

Those who voted against the bill included the Marquis of Lansdowne, Viscount Escher, the Marquis of Salisbury and the Earl of Hereford.

in the Blue Room, and in an unsuspected moment Mr. and Mrs. McAdoo slipped into a waiting automobile and motored rapidly down Executive avenue.

They will be away on their wedding trip about two weeks and will not go abroad as has been reported. The secretary expects to keep in close touch with the work of his office.

TWO MEN BRAINED WITH BASEBALL BAT

King's Mountain Distillers Killed by Men They Halted.

FUSILLADE OF SHOTS FIRED

Alleged Moonshiners Mistook Fishermen for Officers and Battle Follows.

Yorkville Special to Charleston News and Courier, May 6.—J. K. Wells, aged 22, and Pink Dover, aged 37, both white, were killed in a fight with J. Ed Turner and his son, Thad E. Turner, at the home of Jim Mack, colored, about three miles from King's Mountain battle ground, in this county last night at about 11.30 o'clock. Both the dead men were brained with a home-made baseball bat about three feet long, made of cedar. They are said to have been engaged in manufacturing and selling illicit whiskey. Both the Turners are in jail, having surrendered to the sheriff early this morning. An inquest was held to-day by Magistrate A. J. Quinn, of Clover.

None of the witness examined testified as to actually having seen the killing and several who were present seemed to know little or nothing about it. From such as could be obtained it seems that the deplorable affair was due to the fact that Wells and Dover were both more or less under the influence of whiskey. It is said they had previously asserted that they proposed to kill the next officers of the law who undertook to interfere with the business or arrested them and that they mistook the Turners for officers.

HAD GONE FISHING.

The Turners are farmers and live on the public road about eight miles above Yorkville. After a heavy rainfall in that section on yesterday they decided to go fishing, and drove to the home of Jim Mack, and left their buggy there and went to the creek near by to fish. They returned to the house a short time before the killing and found Dover and Wells, who mistook them for officers, and are said to have drawn pistols on Ed Turner and ordered him to hold up his hands. Mack testified that four shots were fired, and stated that Turner fired twice and that the other parties fired twice, but stated that he was not near enough to see the movements of all the parties.

After the shooting was over it was discovered that both Wells and Dover had been brained and were practically dead, and that Dover had been shot in the right leg below the knee. The jury returned a verdict that Wells and Dover had come to their death by reason of blows on their heads inflicted by Thad E. Turner.

BLEASE LEADERS TO BACK M'LAURIN

Former United States Senator is Selected as Candidate for Governor at Administration Caucus.

Columbia Special to Spartanburg Herald, May 6.—That John L. McLaurin will be the out and out Blease candidate for governor was the statement made in Columbia today. It is reported that a caucus of administration leaders was held here last night and that sentiment among the rank and file of the faction is in favor of the former United States senator.

No announcement has been made from the administration as to what will be done with Charles Carroll Simms of Barnwell.

It is said that some of the leaders in the movement are against McLaurin.

Senator McLaurin came to Columbia along with other Blease men following the utter defeat in the county convention.

"Some" Cow.

Philadelphia, May 6.—Nearly ten tons of milk, the equivalent of more than 1,250 pounds of butter in a year, is the world's record production of the Guernsey cow "May Regina," owned by E. B. Cassett, at Beaverton, near here. For the 355 days ended yesterday, the cow's record was 19,573 pounds of milk or 1,073.41 pounds of butter fat. The gross earnings of the animal for the year were nearly $2,200. Lots of heroes

FLAG RETURNED TO THE OHIO REGIMENT

Confederates Are Having Great Meeting in Jacksonville.

THEY WOULD FIGHT AGAIN

Southern Boys Would Respond Quickly to Call to Arms if Needed in Mexico.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 6.—Welcome addresses and responses, the return of a captured battle flag to a delegation of Ohio Union veterans, and a multiplicity of social diversions were features of the formal opening here today of the United Confederate Veterans' twenty-fourth annual reunion. Bright weather prevailed throughout the day and thousands of visitors poured into the city to participate in and witness the reunion.

No feature of the day surpassed the simple ceremonies attending the presentation tonight of a Seventy-sixth Ohio battle flag to personal representatives of Governor James M. Cox of Ohio by Col. J. M. Scott, commander of Camp Jones, United Confederate Veterans of Alabama and Mrs. T. Randolph Leigh of Montgomery. The flag was captured by the First Arkansas Regiment of Confederate soldiers at the battle of Ringold Gap in 1863, and later was turned over to the Alabama veterans.

Governor Cox sent George F. Burba of Columbus, Ohio, and a delegation of five Union veterans to receive the flag. In the letter which they brought from the governor of Ohio an invitation was extended to the Confederate veterans to hold their next reunion on the state house grounds at Columbus.

Governor Cox's letter in part follows:

"I regret that the exigencies of my office are such that it is impossible for me to be with you at this time. The state of Ohio is, however, sending a committee of boys of the days of 1861-65 to receive at your hands a battle flag which you secured from them at Ringold Gap, Ga., in 1863. They have been instructed to bring it to the state house here at Columbus, where it will be forever preserved as an emblem of their heroism in defending it and your bravery in winning it.

"In the name of the people of Ohio, I thank you for the return of this battle flag. Should you see fit we will welcome you to hold your next reunion on the state house grounds and we will conduct you to the shrine where will hang this priceless fabric."

Veterans and members or allied organizations were welcomed to the city and state by Governor Park Trammell, Representative Frank Clark and Mayor Van C. Swearingen. Responses were made by Gen. Bennett H. Young, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, and Gen. George P. Harrison, commander of the Department of Tennessee.

Reference to the impending crisis in Mexico was made in the welcoming speeches of both Governor Trammell and Representative Clark. The former assured the veterans that "our men would at a moment's notice gladly rally to the flag, and again, undaunted, face death upon the battlefield."

Representative Clark declared that the "boys of the South are only waiting for a summons, and if it should unhappily come, a full quota will be promptly furnished and no braver troops will march to the attack of the Huerta soldiers than the sons of those who 50 years ago, unflinchingly followed the fortunes of the Stars and Bars."

In his response Gen. Bennett H. Young, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, paid high tribute to the soldiers of Florida who participated as Confederate soldiers.

"Proportionately headed," he said, "no state sent more men into the armies of the Confederacy. In 1860 Florida had only 78,000 white people and yet she sent 11 regiments of infantry and organized for local defense almost as many more."

"It is a great pleasure for the survivors of the Confederate army to meet here in the metropolis of Florida. We cannot forget that Florida proportionately gives more money for pensions to the Confederate soldiers than any other state.

"The splendid hospitality extended to this twenty-fourth reunion, the glad and joyous welcome which is everywhere accorded, will make your visitors, always, feel kindly to the citizenship of your entire state."

Many social features of the reunion took place today. One of the most spectacular events was the parade of the maids and sponsors.

Routing business sessions were held by the Sons of Veterans.

Valiant Soldier Dead.

Chester Special to Charleston News and Courier, May 6.—G. D. Heath, a prominent citizen of Chester, died today. He was a cadet at the Arsenal in Columbia during the Civil War and enlisted in Company K, First South Carolina Cavalry, and later became a courier for Gen. P. G. T. Beauregard. Mr. Heath was a prominent member of the Methodist church and was one of Chester's leading citizens.

KERSHAW CHAMBER NOW FULLY FORMED

Completes Organization by Electing Officers and Adopting Constitution and By-Laws.

Kershaw Special to Columbia State, May 6.—At a meeting of the chamber of commerce last night the membership committee reported a membership of 180 with probability of increase to 200. A constitution and set of by-laws submitted by E. V. Truesdel, J. W. Hamel and J. G. Richards, the committee on constitution and by-laws, was accepted and adopted.

Charles D. Jones and J. H. Witherpoon of the Lancaster chamber of commerce made very interesting and instructive talks.

At a meeting of the board of directors this morning, J. W. Hamel was elected secretary and J. Gardner Richards treasurer. G. C. Welsh and J. C. Massey were elected executive committee members. J. R. Faile and C. B. Blackmon were appointed members of the auditing committee. The chamber has been put on a good financial basis and will begin at once under the direction of J. W. Hamel to boost Kershaw and the surrounding country.

Work has been commenced on the paving of Kershaw's main business streets by W. N. Cooper and his force. The foundations are being laid at present, while the materials are being unloaded from the cars.

Two handsome homes have just been completed on Church street, one of which will be occupied by T. K. Fletcher and the other by Dr. E. J. Jones.

Another pretty home has been recently completed on South Minor street, belonging to and to be occupied by W. O. Croxton.

Several dwellings are to be erected in the near future. W. L. Croxton will erect on South Minor street, Henry W. Pace on East Hart street, J. R. Hayes on South Hart street, L. J. Truesdel on South Minor street and John W. Ingram on East Richmond street.

Kershaw was visited by a severe windstorm which lasted all yesterday and which, according to all reports, has damaged crops to a considerable extent. This was the highest wind that has visited this section during the planting season since 1911. The dry wind made the already dry land so dry that it is feared that crops which have not already come up will have to be replanted.

Spartanburg Festival Begins With Big Crowd.

Spartanburg, May 6.—With Ricardo Martin, Charles W. Clark, Madame Cecile Talma and Mrs. A. G. Blotcky as soloists, the first performance of the twentieth annual South Atlantic States Music Festival was given at Converse College tonight. "Cavallera Rusticana" and much of "Pagliacci" were presented in concert form. The Converse College Choral Society of 230 voices and the Metropolitan Opera House orchestra with Richard Hegeman, conductor, assisted in the performance. The audience was drawn from half a dozen states. The festival will continue through Friday.

In a game of five innings at Heath Springs yesterday afternoon, the Heath Springs high school defeated the Lancaster high school 7 to 0.

TWO BRITISH AND ONE AMERICAN KILLED

Others Reported Cut Off by Bandits at Guadalajara.

AEROPLANE DROPS BOMB.

Aeronaut Over Mazatlan Throws Deadly Machine in Streets of Besieged City, Killing Four.

Washington, May 7.—Development in the Mexican situation went steadily forward today, although the White House wedding somewhat eclipsed other events in official Washington circles.

The two chief reports from Mexico announced the killing of two British subjects and one American at Guadalajara, and continued heavy fighting at Mazatlan, on the Pacific coast, where the rebel aeroplane dropped a bomb, which killed four persons and injured eight in the streets of the besieged city.

The state department also was informed by Consul Hamm, at Durango, that the Constitutionalists had been marching against Saltillo and Zacatecas.

Information from the Argentine, Brazilian and Chilean mediators was that they were preparing to begin work in Niagara Falls, Ontario. They declared that, despite General Carranza's self-elimination, the Constitutional side of the Mexican problem would be fully considered by the mediators at the coming conference.

MEN OF ABILITY.

President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan have determined to appoint as delegates to the mediation conference men of judicial ability and, if possible, those familiar with the proceedings of arbitral tribunals.

A man close to the President said today it would not be surprising if a justice of the supreme court of the United States should be one of the representatives of the American government. Justice Mahon Pitney, though a Republican, is a close friend of the President and may be chosen. Justice Day was a member of the Paris peace conference. George Gray, of Delaware, also personally intimate with the President and an American delegate to The Hague, is another who is considered likely to be chosen. Counsellor Robert Lansing, of the state department, busy with his duties at the department, may not be in a position to act, but if satisfactory arrangements can be made to take care of his work he may be selected. Henry D. White, former ambassador to France, also is spoken of as a possibility.

O'SHAUGHNESSY ARRIVES.

Nelson O'Shaughnessy, former charge d'affaires at Mexico City, arrived in Washington today. He is Secretary Bryan only for a few minutes and deferred his call on the President and Secretary Daniels until later.

A report from the Brazilian ambassador at Mexico City stated that a trainload of refugees, 500 to 600 in number, left for Vera Cruz in two sections yesterday evening. General Huerta promised soldiers to accompany the trains. Among those of the train was Dr. Edward Ryan, the American physician, who had been arrested on a charge of being a spy and released on strong representations by the Brazilian ambassador.

MISS ANN HAMPTON DEAD.

Sister of Late Gen. Wade Hampton Passes Away.

The following was taken from Thursday's State:

Miss Ann M. Hampton, second sister of the late Gen. Wade Hampton died early yesterday at her home on the Camden road. She was 88 years of age. Her surviving sister, Miss Kate Hampton, is 90 years of age.

The funeral services will be held this afternoon at 1 o'clock at Trinity church. The interment will be in the much attention to the subject of good sleep several generations of Hamptons.

Miss Hampton was a sister of the late Wade Hampton, lieutenant general, Confederate States army. Her father was Col. Wade Hampton of the War of 1812. Her grandfather rode in their annual conventions, and with distinction in the war of the Revolution.