

LOCAL DOTS

Secretary Ellison returned Saturday from Columbia, where he delivered before the State Teachers' Association the address published in full in this issue.

Rev. S. R. Brock will preach at Bethel Baptist church next Sunday morning, March 26th, at 11 o'clock. Robinson-Cloud's St. Patrick Day show window, with its shamrock, Irish linen and flags of Erin was a triumph of decorative skill and a most attractive display. It appealed to the Irish in every passerby.

There will be a box supper at Tizah Saturday night, March 25, for the benefit of the school. Everybody is invited to be present.

Mr. Jesse Sowell and brother, Mr. V. T. Sowell, will leave Friday, March 24th, for Wheeling, West Virginia, where they have accepted positions with the Sunnyside Electric company. Mr. Jesse Sowell has until recently been employed by an electric company of Barcelona, Spain, and Mr. V. T. Sowell has for several years been with the Electric and Construction company, of Madison, Wis.

Among the Lancaster county teachers, other than those already mentioned, who attended the meeting of the State Teachers' Association in Columbia last week, are the following: Miss Dora Jones, Kershaw; Prof. S. E. Miles, Miss Florence Peak, Miss Alma Murphy, Miss Ethel Davidson, and Miss Catoe, Heath Springs; Miss Fannie Pardue and Miss Lillian Magill, Taxahaw; Prof. Ray Faile, Charlesboro; Miss Inez Robinson, Jones Cross Roads; Rev. B. F. Carson, Rich Hill; and Prof. W. B. Carson, Fork Hill.

Barnette's 5, 10 and 25c store has added a millinery department and the opening of this department will be to-day and to-morrow. Miss Bertha McCall, of Charlotte and Miss Enola Barnette are the milliners in charge.

Mr. F. G. Query, of Columbia, special agent of the Union Central Life Insurance Company, of Cincinnati, is spending several days in Lancaster. Mr. Query is a son of the Rev. J. W. Query, former pastor of the Lancaster and Douglas Presbyterian churches and was born in the Douglas community, where he lived until the family moved away. His father's friends are glad to welcome Mr. Query to Lancaster, his childhood home.

Capt. D. E. Penny left Sunday for Greenwood where he has accepted the responsible position of yardmaster of the Seaboard Air Line railway. Capt. Penny, as conductor on the L. & C. railway made scores of friends because of his efficiency and his uniform courtesy. Lancaster regrets to lose Capt. Penny as a citizen and the friends he and his family have made are glad that others of the family will not leave Lancaster for several months at least.

Supt. Lingle, Supt. Wessinger, Prof. J. K. Connors, Mrs. R. R. Riddle, Prof. W. L. Feaster, Miss Agnes Bryan, Miss Johnnie May Lynch, Miss Rebecca Walker, Miss Elfreida Poag and Miss Bennie Culp have returned from Columbia where they attended the State Teachers' Association.

The following names comprise the roll of honor of the eighth grade of the Lancaster graded schools, which grade was omitted on the list given to us for publication last week:—Floride Perry, Katharine Wylie, Roy Biggert and David Crockett.

ESSAY CONTEST.

To Be Given Friday Afternoon at Van Wyck School.

There will be an essay contest at Van Wyck graded school Friday afternoon at 2:30. The subject of the essay is "Preparedness." The prize will be given to the boy or girl who has written the best essay on this subject. The public is cordially invited to attend and enjoy the reading of the essays.

A. B. Lindler, principal.

COURT ADJOURNS.

Judge Bowman and Stenographer McCaw returned yesterday morning to Lancaster for the session of the civil court. Calendar one was sounded and it being found that there were no jury cases for trial the jurors were discharged. Equity matters were then taken up and all business of the court was finished during the morning session to-day and the court adjourned sine die.

DEATH OF J. V. DUNLAP

Passed Away Suddenly of Heart Affection.

Mr. James V. Dunlap died suddenly Saturday evening at his home near Waxhaw. Although he had been in bad health since last May he was up and about as usual, when dropsy of the heart caused instant death.

Mr. A. J. Dunlap was on the way to see his brother and heard the sad tidings just before he reached him. Mr. Dunlap was a native of this county, son of the late Lawrence Dunlap and Mrs. Nancy Dunlap, of this place. He was a member of the Presbyterian church, a good neighbor and friend. Mr. Dunlap was 59 years of age. He leaves a wife, who was before her marriage Miss Mattie Sistare, his mother, who is eighty years of age, one sister, Mrs. Lula McDonald, of Chester, A. J. Dunlap, of this county, E. W. Dunlap, of Charleston and W. L. Dunlap, of City Point, Va.

The body was laid to rest Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Waxhaw cemetery.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT.

Mrs. Copeland Hair Painfully Hurt—Others Escape With Slight Injuries.

While Mr. Copeland Hair, his wife and son and Miss Dees were on their way by automobile from the home of Mr. Copeland's son-in-law, Mr. John Ogburn, in turning suddenly out of the road near Mr. W. U. Clyburn's, to avoid running into a dog, the machine turned turtle, throwing the occupants out. Mrs. Hair sustained painful, if not serious, injuries and the other occupants of the car were considerably bruised. Mrs. Hair was taken back to Mr. Ogburn's and Dr. L. T. Gregory, of Kershaw, was summoned to attend her. Sheriff Hunter was passing the scene of the accident in another automobile soon after it happened and rendered assistance to the party. The sheriff says that if the top had not been up one or more of Mr. Hair's party would in all probability have been killed.

SOCIAL NEWS.

Miss Belle Williams' music class enjoyed a happy evening at her home Wednesday when she entertained for them at a congenial rook party. The twenty-four girls who compose the class and a few other girls of the younger set had been asked to invite the boys and all enjoyed the hospitality of this popular and efficient teacher. There were eight tables in the two rooms which were decorated in carnations. Miss Mary Hough scored highest at rook and won the prize, a bouquet of carnations. In an interesting contest Miss Lillie McManus captured the other prize, a box of stationery. Late in the evening the hostess served delicious ice cream and cake.

St. Patrick's Day did not pass unheeded in the social world of Lancaster, but was celebrated appropriately at several interesting parties. One of these was the delightful affair at which Mrs. Ola P. Gatling entertained Thursday afternoon. There were four tables of bridge and one of rook, and attached to each of the cards which marked the places of the players was a white carnation. The decorations were in green and white, which note of color was carried out effectively in the refreshments, a salad course, followed by leeks, each bearing a harp of Erin, cake and mints. The bridge prizes, gold hatpins engraved with the date were won by Mrs. Ernest Moore, Mrs. Reece Williams, Mrs. Leroy Springs and Mrs. J. K. Connors, while Mrs. M. J. Perry was the winner of a similar rook prize.

Mrs. L. C. Payscur was the cordial hostess of the Friday afternoon Book Club at a delightful meeting last week. An interesting program devoted mainly to the colonial painters and poets of New England absorbed the attention of the club during the study hour and the current events were also quite interesting. The refreshments in two courses emphasized the St. Patrick Day idea, the leeks showing the shamrock and the cakes and mints carrying out the scheme of green and white. Mrs. W. Gill Wylie, of New York, was a visitor at this pleasant meeting.
