

CAMP CREEK ITEMS.

Our educational rally and picnic on last Friday was a grand success along all lines. Our speakers failed to show up but we had some good substitutes. R. E. Wylie and John T. Green of Lancaster and Rev. Hogan, pastor of Camp Creek church and County Farm Demonstrator McManus gave us some very pleasant and instructive talks.

At 12 o'clock one of the best and most bountiful dinners was spread by the good ladies and everybody seemed to enjoy it except a few gentlemen whose names are withheld at their request—overloaded their carts. There was plenty left to have fed a similar crowd. Our Camp Creek ladies certainly do know how to provide a tempting dinner.

After some time spent all went to their homes feeling good and no doubt proud over the great success of the day.

Our invited speakers, Judge Jones and County Superintendent Lingie, we understand, were absent on account of matters over which they had no control. We don't why our State representative failed to show up.

We claim to have one of the best, if not the best, rural school buildings in the county which is a fair index to the educational spirit among the people and is a monument to their loyalty to the great educational spirit of the day. Such a building cannot be built without men behind it who are determined to give their children a chance to make men and women. With a little more work on the house, with an additional four mill tax, which is coming in the near future, with a spirit of harmony and unity among the people, with every man's shoulder to the wheel, with co-operation of trustees and patrons with our teachers, for we believe we have the right teachers in the right place and our school will be second to none in the county.

Our school opened a six-month's session October 30th, with about 60 pupils with a daily increase. In an experience of over twenty-five years of teaching in different communities I never began a school where the patrons appear to lend a more helping hand and gave the teachers a warmer welcome than they have so far at this point. Everybody seems to be pleased. All these things help largely in the success of the school.

The students will give an entertainment next Saturday night for the benefit of the school and only a small fee will be charged. Everybody is invited and we guarantee value received for your money.

No other special news in the neighborhood. No serious sickness. Our good friend, Mr. Morris is quite unwell, but we trust he may soon improve.

The farmers are busy gathering and sowing.

If the war would stop, if Woodrow Wilson is elected, if cotton remains high priced, if we can have a good fair and a few more good things would happen, well may we call ourselves the happiest people on earth.

If you, Mr. Editor, will pardon these lengthy, scattering items you will hear from us again. Will try to keep you and your readers posted as to the happenings around Camp Creek. C. A. PLYLER. Nov. 6, 1916.

"Gets-It" Never Fails for Corns!

There's Nothing on Earth Like It For Corns and Calluses.

"Whenever you get corns and calluses, don't experiment—just use 'GETS-IT' and nothing else. Easiest and simplest thing I know to use—just a few drops on in a few seconds—"GETS-IT" does the rest." The old way is to bundle up your toes in harnesses and bandages, use salves that make toes raw, cotton rings that take your corns pop-eyed, knives and "diggers" that tear your heart out and leave the corn in. No wonder they make you limp and wince. Forget all those—use "GETS-IT" the simplest corn remedy in the world, easiest to use, never fails or sticks, painless. Your corn loosens, then you lift it off. You can wear smaller shoes.

"GETS-IT" is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price, by B. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Lancaster and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Lancaster Pharmacy and J. F. Mackey Co.

WHAT SORT OF A FELLOW ARE YOU?

Why censure, condemn, or e'en criticize the faults you may see in another? Just take out the beam found in your own eye.

The mote will leave that of your brother. You talk of his weaknesses, follies and sins:

He has them—that is doubtless too true. But here is a question I'd like to propound.

What sort of a fellow are YOU?

Do you hug to yourself the delusion absurd That in you perfection is found? Do you think yourself faultless? You know you are not:

Then why pull the other man down? It will keep you quite busy safeguarding your thoughts.

Without troubling what others may do. You'll agree that it will, knowing others will ask, What sort of a fellow are YOU?

Oh, the sins and the follies we find in ourselves; Then why should we censure our brothers?

Though they have their weaknesses, many of them. In ourselves we shall find there are others.

Look not for the man who possesses no faults, For we all have them, many or few.

When condemning another don't forget 'twill be asked, What sort of a fellow are YOU?

—DeWitt McMurray.

CLAIMED PARRAL IS SAFE

New York, Nov. 3.—Andres G. Garcia, inspector general of consulates for the Mexican government, now in New York, today received a telegram from the Mexican consul at El Paso denying the report that Villa had captured Parral. The telegram from El Paso said Carranza troops were in full control of the place.
