CIVIL SERVICE REFORM.

The President has addressed the following circular letter to all prominent Federal officers throughout the country.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, June 22, 1877.

Sir: I desire to call your attention to the following paragraph in a letter addressed by me to the Secretary of the Treasury...

Very respectfully, R. B. HAYES.

Views of the President's Order.

How it Strikes Our Local Politicians—Some who Approve and More who Laugh at It—Mr. William H. Kemble's Views—An Insincere Cabinet and a President who Has Much to Explain.

Among office-holders and politicians of high degree a TIMES reporter yesterday rambled all the day in the endeavor to get from them their opinions upon the Hayes civil service reform letter...

Mr. Kemble—Hayes had everything at stake in carrying Ohio in October of last year. Had he lost that State there would have been a Tilden whirlwind in November that would have swept not only Ohio, but Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Nevada, Oregon and California, and Ohio was saved by President Hayes and his friends appealing to us for money to put into the contest...

Report—Do you believe that the policy will be enforced? Mr. Kemble—Not long. The public will gladly sustain any administration in preventing officials from unwarrantable interference in politics...

THE GRAND CLOCK AT WASHINGTON.

At the naval observatory in Washington stands the clock that regulates time for the whole country. It is not beautiful, like many French clocks that noisily tick upon the parlor mantel...

Report—Do you mean that Mr. Schurz always requires pay for his political speeches? Mr. Kemble—Yes, I mean that. Some time ago, I think it was 1868, Mr. Schurz wrote out a fine speech, which he agreed to deliver three times a week for $500 per week for us...

Report—But how does that prove the President insincere? Mr. Kemble—The truth is that President Hayes is not satisfied with his own title to his office. He wants to avoid being called before the bar of public opinion to answer respecting it...

every four minutes. So, if the sun rises in Boston at seven o'clock, it will not rise in New York—two hundred miles west—till twelve minutes later, or seven o'clock will not come to them for twelve minutes after it has reached Boston!

HOW A YOUNG HUSBAND GOT WEAKED FROM HIS CUPS.

A young wife in Michigan had just got settled in her new home. All seemed fair and promising, for she did not know that her husband was a drunkard. But one night he came home at a very late hour, and much the worse for liquor...

VEGETINE IS MY FAMILY MEDICINE.

I WISH NO OTHER.

PROVIDENCE, April 7, 1876. Mr. H. R. Stevens—Dear Sir: When I was about seven years of age, I broke out upon me, which my mother tried to cure by giving me herb teas and all other such remedies as she knew of, but it continued to grow worse, until finally she consulted a physician and he said that the salt rheum, and advised me for that complaint. He relieved me some, but said it could not be permanently cured as the disease originated in the blood. I remained a great sufferer for several years, until I heard of and consulted a physician, who said I had the scrofulous humor and if I would allow him to doctor me he would cure me. I did so, and he commenced treating me with a course of medicine in effecting an external cure, but in a short time the disease appeared again in a worse form than ever. I was then advised to use your VEGETINE, and I did so, and I am now well and happy. I suffered the most terrible pain in my head, and was unable to see, and my friend thought I must soon die, when my attention was called, while reading a newspaper, to a notice of the death of Mrs. Waterhouse, No. 364 Athena Street, South Boston, and I formerly residing in South Boston and being personally acquainted with her and knowing her former health, I concluded I would try the VEGETINE. After I had taken a few bottles it seemed to force the sores out of my system, and I was able to see, and I continued to take the VEGETINE until I had taken about 25 bottles, and my health improved so much that from the commencement of the first bottle, and the sores have never returned. I am now well and happy, and I am sure that the VEGETINE is a most valuable medicine, and I am sure that it will cure all such cases. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, DANIEL F. BEATTY, No. 1 Joy Street, Providence, R. I.
