SPRING MILLS ITEMS.

Capt. Hasenplug had a run off. No particular damage.

Spring Mills is ahead of her sister towns—she has telegraphic communication already between the Station Building and the Post Office. So far, so good—but we want connections with the east.

Krumrine's Grain House is up and will soon be ready to take in all kinds of grain.

Mr. C. Barth is laid up with rheumatism.

We have two coal yards, and oh! my, how cheap we are getting our fuel. With somebody else would start another yard, as every additional one decreases the price about sixty cents a ton for the consumer.

YONEY.

Cornelius confesses with many regrets that we are a much better looking man than he. Everybody in Lewisburg who we spoke with on that point agrees with him exactly.

The Republican County Convention came off, Wednesday the 30th, and was a very successful affair—only thirteen delegates being present. Clement Dale, Esq., was nominated for District Attorney, and Gen. Beaver recommended for Governor.

The teachers' examination of the other Wednesday passed off very pleasantly, and we trust, profitably. Seven applicants were examined, all of whom received certificates, while two of our resident teachers—G. W. Kesa and Andrew Bishel—were not successful in securing a certificate. Supr. Meyer is the right man in the right place and ought to be kept there.

A good domestic Sulphur bath can be instantly prepared by taking a cake of Truax's Sulphur Soap and putting it in a tub. Such an expedient will, to use a slang phrase, "knock the spots off" any victim of cutaneous blemishes. Sold by all Druggists 25 cents.

Hill's Hair & Whisker Dye, black or brown, 50 cts. Aw.

FIRE.—On Friday night the barn of Mr. Daniel Long, near Hartleton, was burned to the ground. The cause was a fire in the stove. We can not give any particulars.

On Tuesday last, exactly one week the Foundry and Machine Shop of George Swartz, at Hulsburg, was totally destroyed by fire. Mr. Swartz's insurance had just run out a short time before the fire. Loss heavy.

The game laws of Pennsylvania limit the period for the shooting of game, as follows: Wild Turkeys, from October 1 to January 1; player, from August 15 to January 1; woodcock, from July 1 to January 1; quail, from October 1 to January 1; pheasant, from October 1 to January 1; r. all and red birds, from September 1 to December 1; rabbits, from October 1 to December 15; insectivorous birds not at all.

From the many flattering testimonials which we read, paying tribute to the Beatty Piano, and Beatty's Golden Tongue Organs, we are constrained to recommend them to any persons contemplating purchasing an instrument of either description. Address: Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, N. J., U. S. A., for any information respecting the same. See advertisement.

For the Journal.

MR. EDITOR:—I am over in your town last week, to see the sights and the people, and whether Hawke's hints had any effect for good. Well, I have seen more than I could have expected. The notes and checks of banks long since broken or defunct will not be made to appear as cash assets in the Treasury Accounts, if Col. Noyes is elected, as he assured me will be.

The contest hinges on the Treasury. The Radical ring politicians would today gladly barter away Judge Sterrett and Mr. Passmore, for the assured success of Capt. Hart. They see and feel that the people they so much abused in 1874, will support the dirty trick man, covered and frustrated, and the honest yeomanry of Pennsylvania will put their seal of condemnation upon him in a manner that will be unmistakable as it will be effectual.

Voluntary Slavery.—To what degraded state of feeling and thinking men are brought during the present severe times, is shown by the following, which we clip from an exchange. The persons offering to go into voluntary slavery are minors in the vicinity of Scranton and make their proposal to one of their wealthy neighbors.

"We will not ourselves to be your slaves, to tell early and late as your strength will permit for you, during one or five years, and never will ask you for one cent of wages, you will only give us and our families plain and sufficient food, such clothes as we really need, houses to live in, doctors and medicines when we are sick, and bury us when we die." The bargain was very profitable, but the proposition could not be accepted. The disease had enough; but the remedy is worse.

The headquarters of our Democratic State Central Committee is at the Millheim House, Philadelphia, Pa., under the chairmanship of Wm. V. McGrath, Treasurer; P. J. Pierce of Mercer, Sol. Foster Jr., of Schuylkill, and W. H. Eggle, of Lancaster, are Secretaries. From all parts of the State comes most encouraging news for the Democracy.

The Greenbackers held a sort of state convention at Williamsport, Pa., and nominated B. S. Bentley, of Supreme Judge, J. E. Emerson, for Auditor General and James L. Wright for State Treasurer. Now let the band play.

The House of Representatives, when assembled in October will have a Democratic majority of eleven. Randall seems to have the inside track for speaker.

Mr. Jonathan Harter bought the Gramy property on Penn Street and five acres of land above town, on Saturday at public sale, for $2300

Our neighbor, John D. Foote, is building a fine new parlor to be strictly true—he is getting it built. Never knew John to do anything of the kind himself—he is altogether to kindhearted for that.

SCHOOL TAX NOTICE.—The time for paying school taxes with the benefit of an abatement of five per cent., is extended one month, or until Nov. 11th, of which tax payers will please take notice. FRANK KNARR, Treasurer.

There was quite an excitement at the Millheim Hardware Store this week, over the arrival of a large quantity of Parlor Heaters, Double and Single Parlor Heaters. The prices are astonishingly low. Any one wishing to purchase had better call and see these stoves. They are perfect beauties.

On the 20th inst., Mr. John Danberman, residing near Centre Hill, had the misfortune to get his left hand into the threshing machine, while threshing at Mr. George Goodhart's. The hand was terribly lacerated and the little finger had to be amputated. We are informed that it may yet become necessary to amputate the arm.

J. Newman, Jr., of Bellefonte, understands the true secret of success in business. He advertises and the more he advertises the more he sells—and the more he sells the more he advertises. The rule works both ways and works well. N. B. Overcoats as low as $3. Suits from $1 up. Hats, 75 cents. Underwear, 25 cents. Don't forget the place, J. Newman, Jr.

The Telegraph says Samuel Schoch of Millifburg has a squash that weighs 144 pounds, and impudently asks us whether we can beat it. Beatty's has a question to ask: "What is your weight? Why just give us a good stick, about five minutes time, and 'clear the law' for us, and we'll beat squash and add to our list of records." That's what we can do.

A HEAVY FIRM.—J. P. Gephart and D. A. Musser have associated themselves into a firm for the purpose of dealing in Grain, Cloverseed, Feed, Coal, Plaster and Salt. They are a heavy firm and exactly in the line of business. Their financial success, that is to say they have the spondulics, the rocks, the stamps, the nervous system, the em—in short they have the cash and are active, practical men besides, which makes up a combination that must be largely successful. But they are fully competent to speak for themselves, and so you had better read their advertisement in another column.

While at Spring Mills the other day we crossed the Store and Hardware of T. A. Hicks & Bro., and were surprised to find an establishment so extensive and complete, filled with every possible variety of goods, that defy competition—ought to insure a large success in business. Hicks & Bro. are one of the most enterprising and liberal business firms in Centre county, and fully deserve the patronage of the public.

The Centre County Fair at Bellefonte and the Union County Fair at Lewisburg, commenced yesterday, and we hope both will be largely successful. Excursion trains are running to Lewisburg on Tuesday and Friday, leaving Spring Mills at 8 o'clock, and Cohorn at 8.25, in the morning—fare not stated. Excursion trains should also run to Bellefonte, via Centre Hill and Lemont, but we suppose—no Bellefonte friends could get their arrangements completed in time.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.—Michael Maize, living with D. A. Musser, Esq., as a hired man, shot himself through the left leg, early on Tuesday morning. He got up a little before daybreak and went to his dinner in the bed-room to get something which lay on a little shelf in the back part of the desk. On the same shelf also lay a loaded pistol, which he accidentally moved with his hand when it fell to the bottom of the desk and discharged. The ball passed through the front board of the desk, which is an inch thick, through Mr. Maize's thigh, and hit the wall, where it glanced. It is not known why the pistol was there, or whether it was the one he is injured, or not. He is a young man, and of good character, industrious and well-behaved, and has much sympathy in this misfortune.

ROAD MATTERS.—On Friday of last week the reviewers on the road leading from Millheim to the Depot attended to the duties of their respective offices. The review was in the Prothonotary's office, a copy of which was sent, as follows: "That the said road is located upon the cheapest and most favorable route, and that there is no occasion whatever for any change. Let us have peace." The review was on the proposed road from Aaronsburg to Swartz's saw mill, and we are reliable informed that the jury report against the road.

NAMING THEM.—For the information of those not well acquainted in Millheim, we give the names of the streets as recently fixed.

The Turnpike leading through town east and west, is Main Street; the leading to French Valley, North Street. Texas is merged into Millheim, and the school house there will hereafter be known as the North Street School. The street from the crossing in town to Daniel Ulrich's, is Penn Street; and from Ulrich's to Elk Creek—a street with a prospective extension westward to Long Lane—South Street.
