

Democratic State Ticket

FOR SENATE JUDGES, JOHN TRUNKY, OF VERNON COUNTY.

Democratic County Ticket

FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY, D. F. FORTNEY.

Digest of Election Laws

Election—Tuesday, Nov. 6th. Polls open at 7 A. M., and close at 7 P. M.

Democratic County Committee

The following persons will constitute the Democratic County Committee for the ensuing year.

A Democratic meeting will be held in the Town Hall, Millheim, on Saturday evening.

TO THE POLLS!

The election is almost at hand and the FREEMEN OF PENNSYLVANIA are called upon to decide whether the RADICAL CAMERON RING shall continue to rule the

NEXT TUESDAY

KEYSTONE STATE

of the Federal Union, for an indefinite time longer.

It will depend upon you,

DEMOCRATS AND CONSERVATIVES,

whether this question shall be decided in favor of a set of pampered OFFICE HOLDERS and RINGSTERS,

THOUSANDS OF REPUBLICANS

through the state are ready to help you break down the

CAMERON DYNASTY.

The probable appointment of Simon, the elder, to the high office of Minister to the Court of St. James, will cost the Ring Five THOUSAND VOTES IN PENNSYLVANIA.

TRUNKY, for Supreme Judge, SCHELL,

for Auditor General, NOYES, for State Treasurer,

are men of positive abilities and rigid honesty.

TRIUMPHANTLY ELECTED,

if you do your duty.

DAVID F. FORTNEY, our candidate for District Attorney, is a gentleman entirely qualified for so important an office.

THE GREAT POLITICAL CRIME

of counting in a President against an adverse majority of a QUARTER MILLION of votes and an honest majority of TWENTY THREE in the Electoral College, is before you

Let your verdict be such that no Supreme Judges, no Senators or Congressmen will ever dare to repeat so great a wrong against the liberties of a FREE PEOPLE.

These are the GREAT QUESTIONS which you are to decide NEXT TUESDAY.

TO THE POLLS THEN!

Come early and bring your neighbors along.

VOTE FOR TRUNKY!

VOTE FOR SCHELL!

VOTE FOR NOYES!

VOTE FOR FORTNEY!!!

Don't miss a vote for the snow!

Don't miss a vote for the rain, snow or storm, and we will redeem the

GOOD OLD KEYSTONE

from Radin's Ring Rule, by a MAJORITY OF 20,000.

IN A SNARE.

Our amiable reform President has just succeeded in getting himself into the very awkward snarl. Recently he took it upon himself to call Ohio had a card through officers for a shift and that he had better give Pennsylvania some little attention.

The English Mission to let a Pennsylvania bill be, but who?

The President and Mr. Evans could not fix on any one of the many prominent Republicans of Pennsylvania, and so they submit the matter to the Republican members of Congress from the state, promising to appoint from the delegation would recommend the delegation, true to its vassal instincts, unanimously recommended Simon, the old Winnebago

Chief, to the great consternation of Hayes and Evans. Mr. Hayes is thus placed in a very embarrassing position. If he means to give an anxious nation any proof of the sincerity of his profession he can not appoint Simon Cameron, whose the very embodiment of political trickery and corruption, and if he does not appoint the old politician he must go back squarely upon his pledges to the Pennsylvania Republicans in Congress, and take the consequent odium. Either path is about as thorny as even a real President could desire.

VICTORY SURE!

The Democrats and conservatives of Pennsylvania have but to will it, and victory is theirs. For many years the prospects have not been so favorable as now. We have candidates who are deservedly popular.

They enjoy the confidence of the people to an unusual degree. As public servants they have been tried and never found wanting.

These things we have the prestige of an ever victorious party.

They are the only party in the world which have the confidence of the people to an unusual degree. As public servants they have been tried and never found wanting. These things we have the prestige of an ever victorious party. They are the only party in the world which have the confidence of the people to an unusual degree. As public servants they have been tried and never found wanting. These things we have the prestige of an ever victorious party. They are the only party in the world which have the confidence of the people to an unusual degree.

As public servants they have been tried and never found wanting.

These things we have the prestige of an ever victorious party.

They are the only party in the world which have the confidence of the people to an unusual degree. As public servants they have been tried and never found wanting. These things we have the prestige of an ever victorious party. They are the only party in the world which have the confidence of the people to an unusual degree. As public servants they have been tried and never found wanting. These things we have the prestige of an ever victorious party. They are the only party in the world which have the confidence of the people to an unusual degree. As public servants they have been tried and never found wanting. These things we have the prestige of an ever victorious party. They are the only party in the world which have the confidence of the people to an unusual degree. As public servants

they have been tried and never found wanting. These things we have the prestige of an ever victorious party. They are the only party in the world which have the confidence of the people to an unusual degree. As public servants they have been tried and never found wanting. These things we have the prestige of an ever victorious party. They are the only party in the world which have the confidence of the people to an unusual degree. As public servants

they have been tried and never found wanting. These things we have the prestige of an ever victorious party. They are the only party in the world which have the confidence of the people to an unusual

degree. As public servants they have been tried and never found wanting. These things we have the prestige of an ever victorious

party. They are the only party in the world which have the confidence of the people to an unusual degree. As public servants

they have been tried and never found wanting. These things we have the prestige of an ever victorious party. They are the only party in the world which have the confidence of the people to an unusual

degree. As public servants they have been tried and never found wanting. These things we have the prestige of an ever victorious

party. They are the only party in the world which have the confidence of the people to an unusual degree. As public servants

they have been tried and never found wanting. These things we have the prestige of an ever victorious party. They are the only party in the world which have the confidence of the people to an unusual

degree. As public servants they have been tried and never found wanting. These things we have the prestige of an ever victorious

party. They are the only party in the world which have the confidence of the people to an unusual degree. As public servants

they have been tried and never found wanting. These things we have the prestige of an ever victorious party. They are the only party in the world which have the confidence of the people to an unusual

degree. As public servants they have been tried and never found wanting. These things we have the prestige of an ever victorious

party. They are the only party in the world which have the confidence of the people to an unusual degree. As public servants

they have been tried and never found wanting. These things we have the prestige of an ever victorious party. They are the only party in the world which have the confidence of the people to an unusual

degree. As public servants they have been tried and never found wanting. These things we have the prestige of an ever victorious

The extensive grain house of Walls & Smith, at the Depot, is going up.

Greiner's store building at the Forks nearly completed, next in order—new goods.

Wm. S. Mason mends a new brick sidewalk in front of the Millheim Hotel. Bravo, Villum!

Judge Hartman's Constable

Lamy's houses went up this week. Next—the Miller boys.

Hon. W. K. Alexander has returned to the city. He is already beginning to look a little 'semblingly.

Have you got your winter supply of coal? Better get them if you have not already done so. They will be higher after a while.

James C. Smith has the honor of having bought the first copy of the Journal Book Store. A very good beginning for James.

It is not Hebersburg, but Troxelville, Shyler Co., where Dr. Oliver K. Forster expects to locate and practice medicine.

Our old friend and School mate,

Dr. C. B. Wagner, of Lebanon, Pa., sends us a paper once in a while. Dr. Wagner seems to be getting along down there.

HEAVY SHIPMENTS.—Gephart &

Musser have received one hundred tons of plaster and have ordered another hundred. The half of it goes to Spring Mills.

Next Monday the Sheriff of Philadelphia will offer some fifteen hundred properties for sale. It will be the largest Sheriff's sale ever had in Pennsylvania.

Just received at the Journal Book

Store, Diaries for 1878, Mottoes, Gold and Silver Paper, Pocket Ink Stands, Ornamental Flowers for Splint Baskets, &c., &c.

The firm of Musser Brothers &

Sons are out on a hunting expedition. If they don't manage to bring home at least several deer—in addition to a few rabbits for pot roast, we'll get them at the whole blamed posse of them.

Mrs. Roush has opened up a new Millinery Shop in North Millheim. All kinds of Hats, Bonnets, Hosiery, Ribbons, Flowers, &c., &c. Trimmings, neat and cheap. Give her a call.

Matters are getting lively on the new road to the depot. Superintendant H. H. H. has ordered twenty men on it daily. We understand that a work is to be pushed rapidly as long as the season is favorable.

Maj. J. B. Fisher has just received the largest stock of Dry Goods, Hardware, Stoves, Queensware, Boots & Shoes, Groceries, Drugs, &c., &c. brought to the depot. The Major is always up to the times.

Our Spring Mills neighbors are quarreling over the location of a new station on the pike to the Depot. Gentlemen, don't spend precious time in disputing—quite and make your road before winter sets in.

We feel particularly anxious that our district, by which we mean the townships of Haines, Penn, Miles, and Gregg, where the Journal most does circulate, should give a good account of itself on election day. If it does, as we hope and believe it will, we will not arrogate to our selves the honor of having done the work, but that we tried to do our share of it.

KILLED ON THE RAIL.—Benjamin

B. Thomas, of the firm of Haines, Thomas & Co., Howard Iron Works, went on the platform of a car to throw a letter off at Costeville, when his foot slipped; causing him to fall from the train. His head struck the ground first, fracturing the skull and causing his death immediately.—Clinton Democrat.

It is really astonishing to see the amount of coal hauled away from the depot daily. The cars are lined with teams from Brush Valley, Sugar Valley and our own valley. Everybody is going to burn lime for fertilizing purposes, and in a few years the productivity of our valleys will be much increased. For coal alone the rail road is of great benefit to our people.

In the Journal Book Store can be seen a capital portrait of that first class Photographer and artist, Mr. J. West Cornelius, of Lewisburg. The picture is a gem of its kind, and the border is ornamented with letters drawn by hand, highly artistic and very beautiful. If any of our friends go to Lewisburg and desire a true life portrait of themselves, Mr. Cornelius is the man to serve them.

We clip from the Clinton Democrat, a letter from Gunton, Ind., under date of Aug. 13, 1877. The writer, Rev. A. D. Rowe, is a son of Squire Rowe, living near Booneville, Clinton Co., and has been laboring in the Gunton District for several years as a Lutheran missionary. Mr. Rowe's letter should be a most effective cure of our chronic complaints of "hard times."

Remember that the sign of the Big Eagle, Allegheny St., Bellefonte, is the place where Newman sells Beaver overcoats as low as $7, including all wool fur Beavers, $10, $15, $20, $25, Overcoats for $8. Suits from $5 upward. Hats for 75 cents. Underwear, 25 cents. Everything from an overcoat down to a necktie at bottom prices. Call and see.

They had a very lively Democratic meeting at Madisonburg, the other Wednesday evening. That matter, bustling little man, Sammy Fausch, aged President, assisted by such old veterans as John Hazel, Samuel Lambert and Jacob Hawk, for Vice President, and B. F. Miller and B. F. Royer, Secretaries.

W. C. Heine and D. F. Fortney,

Esq., made speeches, which are highly spoken of, especially that of the latter. Mr. Fortney justly ranks as one of the ablest political stump speakers in Central Pennsylvania. His election as District Attorney is a foregone conclusion.

New recommendations freighted with praise and entire satisfaction, are constantly being tendered to Daniel F. Beatty, Esq., proprietor and manufacturer of instruments of the Reform Church, Aaronsburg, next Sunday morning, German.

EXECUTORS NOTICE.—Letters testam-

entary on the estate of Michael F. P. M. Smith, deceased, having been granted to the undersigned, he requests all persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same to present them duly authenticated, according to law, for settlement.

J. H. REINHART, Executor.

EXECUTORS NOTICE.—Letters testam-

entary on the estate of Jacob Hart, late of Penn Township, deceased, having been granted to the undersigned, all persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same, to present them duly authenticated for settlement.

J. H. REINHART, Executor.

With a cake of GLENN'S SCOURING

SOAP and a commodious bathtub, the victim of chronic cutaneous eruptions can improve a sulphur bath, which no professed bathing establishment can supply. Sold at Drugstore, Hill, or at Whisker Dye, black or brown, 50 cts.

A WORD TO THE UNEMPLOYED.

Your attention has been called to a new cooking stove, recently invented, which makes a pleasure, instead of a burden, to cook. It is a small stove, with a confining an everlasting blessing upon every housekeeper. We refer to the Patent Cook Stove, which is a small stove, with a confining an everlasting blessing upon every housekeeper. We refer to the Patent Cook Stove, which is a small stove, with a confining an everlasting blessing upon every housekeeper.

It is not Hebersburg, but Troxelville, Shyler Co., where Dr. Oliver K. Forster expects to locate and practice medicine.

Our old friend and School mate, Dr. C. B. Wagner, of Lebanon, Pa., sends us a paper once in a while. Dr. Wagner seems to be getting along down there.

HEAVY SHIPMENTS.—Gephart & Musser have received one hundred tons of plaster and have ordered another hundred. The half of it goes to Spring Mills.

Next Monday the Sheriff of Philadelphia will offer some fifteen hundred properties for sale. It will be the largest Sheriff's sale ever had in Pennsylvania.

Just received at the Journal Book Store, Diaries for 1878, Mottoes, Gold and Silver Paper, Pocket Ink Stands, Ornamental Flowers for Splint Baskets, &c., &c.

The firm of Musser Brothers & Sons are out on a hunting expedition. If they don't manage to bring home at least several deer—in addition to a few rabbits for pot roast, we'll get them at the whole blamed posse of them.

Mrs. Roush has opened up a new Millinery Shop in North Millheim. All kinds of Hats, Bonnets, Hosiery, Ribbons, Flowers, &c., &c. Trimmings, neat and cheap. Give her a call.

Matters are getting lively on the new road to the depot. Superintendant H. H. H. has ordered twenty men on it daily. We understand that a work is to be pushed rapidly as long as the season is favorable.

Maj. J. B. Fisher has just received the largest stock of Dry Goods, Hardware, Stoves, Queensware, Boots & Shoes, Groceries, Drugs, &c., &c. brought to the depot. The Major is always up to the times.

Our Spring Mills neighbors are quarreling over the location of a new station on the pike to the Depot. Gentlemen, don't spend precious time in disputing—quite and make your road before winter sets in.

We feel particularly anxious that our district, by which we mean the townships of Haines, Penn, Miles, and Gregg, where the Journal most does circulate, should give a good account of itself on election day. If it does, as we hope and believe it will, we will not arrogate to our selves the honor of having done the work, but that we tried to do our share of it.

KILLED ON THE RAIL.—Benjamin B. Thomas, of the firm of Haines, Thomas & Co., Howard Iron Works, went on the platform of a car to throw a letter off at Costeville, when his foot slipped; causing him to fall from the train. His head struck the ground first, fracturing the skull and causing his death immediately.—Clinton Democrat.

It is really astonishing to see the amount of coal hauled away from the depot daily. The cars are lined with teams from Brush Valley, Sugar Valley and our own valley. Everybody is going to burn lime for fertilizing purposes, and in a few years the productivity of our valleys will be much increased. For coal alone the rail road is of great benefit to our people.

In the Journal Book Store can be seen a capital portrait of that first class Photographer and artist, Mr. J. West Cornelius, of Lewisburg. The picture is a gem of its kind, and the border is ornamented with letters drawn by hand, highly artistic and very beautiful. If any of our friends go to Lewisburg and desire a true life portrait of themselves, Mr. Cornelius is the man to serve them.

We clip from the Clinton Democrat, a letter from Gunton, Ind., under date of Aug. 13, 1877. The writer, Rev. A. D. Rowe, is a son of Squire Rowe, living near Booneville, Clinton Co., and has been laboring in the Gunton District for several years as a Lutheran missionary. Mr. Rowe's letter should be a most effective cure of our chronic complaints of "hard times."

Remember that the sign of the Big Eagle, Allegheny St., Bellefonte, is the place where Newman sells Beaver overcoats as low as $7, including all wool fur Beavers, $10, $15, $20, $25, Overcoats for $8. Suits from $5 upward. Hats for 75 cents. Underwear, 25 cents. Everything from an overcoat down to a necktie at bottom prices. Call and see.

They had a very lively Democratic meeting at Madisonburg, the other Wednesday evening. That matter, bustling little man, Sammy Fausch, aged President, assisted by such old veterans as John Hazel, Samuel Lambert and Jacob Hawk, for Vice President, and B. F. Miller and B. F. Royer, Secretaries.

W. C. Heine and D. F. Fortney, Esq., made speeches, which are highly spoken of, especially that of the latter. Mr. Fortney justly ranks as one of the ablest political stump speakers in Central Pennsylvania. His election as District Attorney is a foregone conclusion.

CHURCH DIRECTORY.

Rev. J. M. Smith will preach in the U. B. Church, next Sunday morning.

Rev. J. G. Shoemaker will preach in the Reformed Church, Aaronsburg, next Sunday morning, German.

EXECUTORS NOTICE.—Letters testam-

entary on the estate of Michael F. P. M. Smith, deceased, having been granted to the undersigned, he requests all persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same to present them duly authenticated, according to law, for settlement.

J. H. REINHART, Executor.

EXECUTORS NOTICE.—Letters testam-

entary on the estate of Jacob Hart, late of Penn Township, deceased, having been granted to the undersigned, all persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same, to present them duly authenticated for settlement.

J. H. REINHART, Executor.

With a cake of GLENN'S SCOURING

SOAP and a commodious bathtub, the victim of chronic cutaneous eruptions can improve a sulphur bath, which no professed bathing establishment can supply. Sold at Drugstore, Hill, or at Whisker Dye, black or brown, 50 cts.

A WORD TO THE UNEMPLOYED.

Your attention has been called to a new cooking stove, recently invented, which makes a pleasure, instead of a burden, to cook. It is a small stove, with a confining an everlasting blessing upon every housekeeper. We refer to the Patent Cook Stove, which is a small stove