WHAT THE PEOPLE EXPECT.

Now that the Democrats have succeeded in electing their state ticket the people expect the Treasurer to perform the duties of their office honestly and faithfully.

Thousands of honest Republicans, tired of ring rule and maladministration, voted for Messrs. Schell and Noyes in order to wrest the state treasury from the hands of a set of men who have so long abused their high trust, and then shut out the light from their nefarious acts.

PENNSYLVANIA OFFICIAL MAJORITIES.

Table with columns for Majorities and Minorities, listing names and counts for various offices.

A TEST CASE.

It has been a test in the Republican faith that race, color, or political condition should not affect the social or political standing of any man.

In the strong Republican county of Lawrence the Republicans nominated a colored man named Stewart for the office of Associate Judge.

$11,000 in Gold Stolen.—A German came to Williamsport some fifty years ago and invested a few thousand dollars in real estate.

Our neighbor, Mr. Lukenbach, at the old Miller mill, means business not only on the first floor but on all the floors.

After December 1st the subscriber will be prepared to carry express packages and small bundles and boxes of goods from the Coburn Station.

Don't fail to read J. W. Stam's advertisement in another column. The doctor is just packing a large and splendid stock of new goods.

HEAVY SHIPMENT.—Gephart & Musser, grain dealers, recently received two hundred tons of best No. 1 Pennsylvania Flour.

Some of the Republican papers want singing schools started while others suggest debating societies—now that election is over.

A KIND REQUEST.

It is now about the season of the year that people think of paying their small debts, such as taxes, shoe-maker's and tailor's accounts, subscriptions to preachers, and—

REBERSBURG FRAGMENTS.

An unpleasant visitor, known as an ass, is with us and is especially odious to our youth, confining them to the house for some time and thus depriving them of school privileges.

The sickening season is upon us and porkers are ready to die of cholera. The disease proves fatal in every instance.

Rev. G. W. Heiser, of Millburg, is to preach a series of sermons in the Lutheran church at this place on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Verison may soon be plenty, as some of our sportsmen have left for the Alleghenies to remain for three weeks.

Mrs. Roush has opened up a new Millinery Shop in North Street. All kinds of Hats, Bonnets, Hat Frames, Ribbons, Flowers, Feathers, Trimmings, neat and cheap.

A little 2 year old son of Morris Furey, living near Pleasant Gap, came to a dreadful end a few weeks ago.

Lost.—On Monday of last week the subscriber lost a very fine two foot reel—somewhere on North street, this side of Campbell's mill.

Mrs. L. Leitze has just received her fall and winter stock of Millinery Goods, popular styles of Ladies and Children's Hats, and Bonnets.

Now recommendations freighted with praise and entire satisfaction, are constantly being tendered to Daniel F. Beatty, proprietor and manufacturer of instruments of rare merit.

Dr. Karsner's Catarrh Remedy is fast establishing an enviable reputation. The manner of introducing it is such as to commend it instantly to the afflicted.

Dr. Karsner's Catarrh Remedy is fast establishing an enviable reputation. The manner of introducing it is such as to commend it instantly to the afflicted.

CHANGE OF MAIL ROUTE.—From and after December 1st, our new route will be sent free to the person in every town who may be troubled with this loathsome disease.

ROPE WANTED.—A good, strong rope is wanted with quality to hoist Abs. Harter's wheat.

The Slifer, Walls & Shriner Manufacturing Company have a word to say to our readers, in another column, or the subject of stoves.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. Perry D. Winter had his leg broken, last Thursday, while engaged in extracting stumps on Mr. J. P. Frank's farm, near Rebersburg.

Remember that the sign of the Big Eagle, Allegheny St., Bellefonte, Pa., is the sign of Newman's sells Beaver overcoats as low as $7; genuine all wool fur Beavers, $10; Chinchillas, $5. Overcoats for $8.

Harry Tomlinson is the most enterprising merchant in town. He is determined to keep it before the people that he keeps the best and cheapest goods in these parts.

ILLUSTRATION BY PICTURES.—One of the great contrasts between the School Books used by the fathers and mothers of the land, when young, and those now used by our youth, is the use of pictures.

REPORT OF ELK CREEK SCHOOL, FOR MONTH ENDING NOV. 20, 1877.—Whole No. on roll—50. No. in attendance during month—25. Average attendance—50. Percent. of attendance—75.

Sallie Bame, Abbie Braucht, Oly Geary, and Samuel Bame were present every day. As regards behavior the School ranks second to none in the county.

Some of the Republican papers want singing schools started while others suggest debating societies—now that election is over.

WE HAVE MADE ARRANGEMENTS with Messrs. Gephart & Musser by which they give us the ruling market prices every Wednesday just before we go to press.

Boyer of Aaronsburg, has established for himself a reputation second to none in the valley as an enterprising and successful merchant.

They have bored a hole into the earth at Hyner, Clinton Co., 1500 feet deep and no oil yet.

The Lock Haven National Bank is now paying out its first dividend—ten per cent.—to depositors.

Samuel Greeninger at Coburn Station, sells the celebrated Williamsport Boots—cheap for cash.

J. B. Ford has removed his fall shop to Zeigler's building, two doors west of Stam's store.

Having obtained special rates on COAL OIL to Coburn Station we are now prepared to sell by the barrel or by the ton.

Thanksgiving is close at hand and not even a sign of a turkey for us has as yet been found.

Now is your time to buy cheap at the Millheim Hardware Store. A car load of patent wheels just received and sold as low as ten dollars per set.

Judge Frank is just unpacking a large stock of fall and winter goods. The Judge is an old veteran in the mercantile business and is just as much at home behind the counter as he is on the judicial bench.

Mrs. Roush has opened up a new Millinery Shop in North Street. All kinds of Hats, Bonnets, Hat Frames, Ribbons, Flowers, Feathers, Trimmings, neat and cheap.
