SLIDING INTO THE LAST DITCH.

For the past week or more party strife has raged most fearfully in that high and august body—the United States Senate.

The Republicans, feeling that they are swiftly approaching their "last ditch," are making a last desperate struggle to retain the power they so long held and which for the last eight years they used almost exclusively for the advancement of party and personal interests.

The House is Democratic beyond the hope of recovery for the Republicans. His Eraululency, the President, is seriously defective as a politician. He is not at all particular whether he appoints Democrats, Excesses, or some drain upon the system, always cured by Hymphre's Homeopathic Specific No. 28.

It is a pity that the Senate are so farious over the loss of their power in making appointments. They can no longer foist their satellites and vassals upon the people, whether possessed of any fitness or not.

The suntuily Conkling and the pure Edmonds become surly and ill-tempered. They put their heads together to devise means which may for a while longer secure them a majority, and then find a remedy—temporary though it be—in the admission of the noble Kellogg as Senator from Louisiana.

While we congratulate the Republican party upon their glorious victory, we predict that Kellogg will be long and landed in a penitentiary, long before the "six years from March 4th, 1877, shall have expired."

THE CAROLINA CASE. The Senate has passed the bill for the removal of the judges of the Carolina case.

COLOMBIA, November 23.—Judge Townsend's court reconvened this morning. After the judgment of his honor was rendered upon motions of arrest of judgment made by counsel for Smalls and Cardozo about ten days ago, which judgment was adverse to the motion, sentences were passed as follows: Francis L. Cardozo of South Carolina, for conspiracy to defraud the State, two years imprisonment in jail and $4,000 fine, and one year's imprisonment added if the fine is not paid at the expiration of two years; Smalls, member of Congress, for accepting a bribe of $5,000 while a member of the State Senate, three years at hard labor in the penitentiary; L. Cass Carpenter, formerly proprietor of the Columbia Daily News, for publishing in raising amounts for publishing the laws in his paper, two years in jail and fine of one thousand dollars. Appeals will be made in all the cases.

Rioters Sentenced. PITTSBURGH, December 1.—Judge Kirkpatrick, in the quarter sessions court this morning, sentenced the following persons, convicted of participation in the railroad riots of July last: Daniel Moran and Alexander M'Allister, for malicious mischief, were each fined $500 and sentenced to six months in the work-house, the full term to continue until they have paid the fine. Moran tampered with a telegraph instrument at the railroad station and M'Allister tampered with a freight engine. J. M. Green, for diverting a switch, was fined $1,500 and sentenced to a year and six months in the penitentiary. James M'Call, for striking Assistant Superintendent Watt when the latter attempted to move the switch, was fined $1,500 and sentenced to an imprisonment of one year. James Carter, for making incendiary threats to burn the Susquehanna freight depot, was fined $2,000 and sentenced to one year and ten months in the penitentiary. Matthews Marshall, for firing a gun, was fined $5,000 and sentenced to six years and ten months in the penitentiary. All were drawn up at the time the offenses were committed.

The M. B. & L. Association will have its regular monthly meeting, next Monday evening. All ye that have dues to pay take notice.

Miss: A word in your ear. The next fine afternoon that you saunter out, buy a box of GLENN'S SUPERIOR SOAP. That admirable purifier will remove every one of those filthy spots that detract from your beauty. Sold by all Druggists. There is Youth in every bottle of GLENN'S HAIR DYE.

At Boyer's you can buy the finest Fur Hats at $2.00. Best style.

The Republican calls the good people of Kreamersville—the Kreamersville. Shame on him.

Later end of last week we had a real cold snap. Underwear and overcoats were in active demand.

Millheim now has three regular oyster stores and a fourth one in prospect. The several bosses all seem to be m-k-ing money.

Boyer sells the best Calico at 54 and 61 cent per yard.

Joseph Shafer, of Nittany Valley, butchered a young bull last week, 10 months and 12 days old, that had a hide weighing 35 lbs., 35 lbs. of rosted meat and 25 lbs. tallow. It was only common grade stock.

The Wichita in goss for one of our townsmen in this fashion: Mr. John B. Ford, a young man well known in Bellefonte, being a tailor of skill and taste, has opened a tailoring establishment in this city, in a place for the folks in that section to get elegant clothes, and cheap too.

Having obtained special rates on COAL OIL to Cornum Station we are now prepared to sell by the barrel to dealers at the same price they would be charged either at Sunbury or Williamsport.

SMITH & CO. A full line of Clothing for men and boys—at Boyer's. Very cheap.

THE HOV STRANGER takes up much space in the newspapers just now. The Millheim Telegraph gives nearly a column of close and logical reasoning on the matter, winding up by confessing that it is willing to take a box of about 200 on subscription.

Mr. Sammy K. Faust is determined to be up to time in all matters pertaining to the business of Coach and Sleighmaking. He has just completed a fine lot of sleighs as were built in Centre county. If you want anything in that line, really good and neat you had better give Sammy a call.

The Burlington Huckleys chap, the Sprague Steward man, and brother Meek, of the Wagonman, each think he has the prettiest wife in creation. Always the case—the uglier the man, the more vain and jealous he is of his better half. Meek, (what there is of him,) is even yet the best looking of the lot!

Linn's Annals of Buffalo Valley. Copies of the above valuable local history of the far-famed Buffalo Valley may be obtained of R. F. Brown, Lewisburg, Daniel Dorr, Bellefonte, or at the JOURNAL BOOK STORE, Millheim. Price $2.

After December 1st the subscriber will be prepared to carry express packages and small bundles and boxes of goods, from Cornum Station to Millheim. Advertisers Woodward, and all points along the line, at reasonable charges. The patronage of the public respectfully solicited.

J. WILLIS MUSSER. All colors in Two Fly Maroon Heading Fringe, silk tied, at 30 cts. a yard, at Boyer's.

At Coopersburg, Lehigh county, on Wednesday night, twelve tramps were arrested by citizens of that town. They made stout resistance, firing a number of pistol shots at the citizens who invested the old house in which they had taken refuge. Large quantities of stolen goods were found in the "dove." The desperadoes were lodged in jail at Doylestown.—Ez.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher has been engaged to deliver a lecture in Bellefonte, Tuesday evening, January 1st. Think we won't go—first because of financial reasons, and secondly because the Republican threatens that the influence of the lecture will be so "elevating and refining" that we fear we would be of but little practical use in this rude and sinful world thereafter.

The Middleburg Post says that on Saturday, Nov. 16th, while the teacher, Mr. Weidensaul, and his pupils were cleaning the Troxelville school house, a falling iron, weighing 150 lbs., and falling upon a daughter of Josiah Kluse, injured her so badly as to cause death in a few hours. She was about 12 years of age. The directors were in the same day, making efforts at repairing the half-broken building.—Lebensberg Journal.

Matchless Cloaking for ladies at Boyer's, $2.75 per yard, very latest style.

Of course that 650 worker of Gen. Wolf's was a socker, sell to go, and we fear it is all that any of our readers can do to beat it; but we butchered three hogs last week (i. e. we got others to do it,) each one of which would have weighed more than the General's, had they been and even then they would have been a toger, the whole hog question, led down to a proper conclusion, is one of corn and time, more than of merit.

J. Newman, Jr., of the Eagle Clothing Mill, Bellefonte, Pa., keeps up his reputation as the boss clothier in Centre county. Newman understands his business thoroughly and sells lower than any other house in his line in Central Pennsylvania. Overcoats, winter suits, gloves, boots, hats, underwear, and in fact everything in the line of Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, of the best quality and at the lowest prices. Patronize Julius—he will do the square thing by you.

One of the meanest acts ever heard of was committed in Nittany Valley the other week. While Mr. William Shafer was lying on a corpse, his store at Washington Iron Works was forcibly entered and robbed of all the groceries and many other goods, by some unknown God forsaken rascals. If we had control of the general disposition of things, we would send the devil after these low, dirty, and wicked, and the biggest, ugliest and sharpest hood that could be scared up, and give him orders to seek it into their foul carcasses and drag them to—where they couldn't annoy decent people any more.

Don't buy the old style Bail Fringe, when you can get the Two Fly Fringe, at Boyer's, for only 30 cents per yard.

A KIND REQUEST. It is now about the season of the year that people think of paying their small debts, such as taxes, shoe-maker's and tailor's accounts, subscriptions to preachers, and— we fondly hope—their printers. We have labored industriously and according to the best of our ability to give our readers a good, readable local paper, and have received but a small sum on subscription, during the year. Make up your mind when you read this, to pay your subscription between now and Jan. 1st, and do it. We need money—constantly—for current and living expenses, and if we get what is due us we can get along well enough considering the times. Please remember—between now and Jan. 1.

A great newspaper in every sense of the phrase is the Journal of the Philadelphia Press. Not yet a year old, this weekly paper has achieved a success in circulation as well as in influence that is without parallel. It contains eight pages or fifty-six columns, full of overflowing reading matter, embracing all the news of the day, embodying every and independent judgment fearlessly expressed by the press of the Home of Liberty, Society and the Farm and Garden makes it welcome to every freeman, and offer from week to week temptations that are irresistible to the readers of an editor-in-chief who has the courage to venture half a place in every number. But the great distinctive feature of the Philadelphia Press is its series of chapters on the University of the West. Every one of these is a gem in its own right, and the late conflict between the States, and describes some phase of the war that came to this his own personal observation, no newspaper ever before presented such an amount of news as appears in this department. Among the contributors are Hon. Carl Schurz, Hon. A. G. Curtis, Gen. Joseph Hooker, General James Longstreet, Hon. John W. Forney, General T. B. Hearn, General Sherman, General Sherman, Hon. John H. Reagan, Hon. Simon Cameron, General Richard Taylor, General John C. Fremont, and such other names as are well known to the people of the West. The prospectus of the Weekly Press appears in another column. At this season when people are selecting their newspapers for the next year, no one should fail to send for and examine a specimen copy of this truly remarkable journal.

This time it is Isaac Crider, son of Phillip Crider, of Lock Haven, who accidentally shot and killed himself while on his way home from a shooting party on the Houch Creek. He saw a pheasant, went to the back of his wagon and caught hold of the muzzle of his gun to draw it out. The trigger caught, the gun discharged its load into his breast and he expired instantly.

The Laurel Wreath, single or double, is the best parlor stove, and the Economy and Zenith the best cooking stoves to use. They are all made at Lewisburg by the Silfe, Walls & Schirmer Company, and if by accident any part or piece gets broken, you can get another in a day. Just read the advertisement in another column.

At the Millheim Marble Works a magnificent monument is now being built, to mark the last resting place of A. Dutwiler, Esq., deceased. When completed we will give a full description of it in the Journal. This makes the third monument built by Deininger & Musser, during the present season, and they all give entire satisfaction. It would be well for people who need anything in this line, to see first what they can get at home.

The way in which Senator Dill would say "That is all, sir," after he had examined a witness in the Knouff trial, spoke volumes. To one it would say, "your evidence is true and important," to another "your evidence in this case is not so important to me," to a third, "your opinion of your character for truth and veracity is not very high." And you could almost always tell the Senator's opinion of the witness by the way he uttered those four words. "That is all, sir." And as small things have their effect, too, we have no doubt that the Senator's variation in articulating these words had some influence in this case on the jury.—Sunbury Democrat.

THE SUN.

1878. NEW YORK. 1878.

As the time approaches for the renewal of subscriptions, THE SUN would renew its friends and readers everywhere, that it is again a candidate for their consideration and support. Upon its record for the past year it needs no commendation. It is again a candidate for their consideration and support. Upon its record for the past year it needs no commendation. It is again a candidate for their consideration and support. Upon its record for the past year it needs no commendation.

Who does the Weekly Sun? It circulates throughout the United States, the Canada, and beyond. Ninety thousand copies are printed every week, and it is sold at a price of ten cents per copy. It is sold at a price of ten cents per copy. It is sold at a price of ten cents per copy.

REPORT OF MILLHEIM GRAMMAR SCHOOL FOR THE MONTH ENDING NOV. 20th, 1877.—No. of pupils in attendance during month, Males—16, Females—20, Total—36. Average attendance, Males—11, Females—14, Total—25. Per cent, Males—69, Females—70, Total—69. General progress—Good. Conduct—Good. Quite a number have not all the necessary books, which is a great disadvantage. No directors have visited the school during the month. No visits by patrons of the school thus far. The progress should be better, and would be, if the parents would take more interest, and have their children at home during the evening preparing their lessons, instead of allowing them to be out on the streets until a late hour, or spending their time uselessly on Bristol board, which after all does not aid them intellectually or morally. A radical change is anticipated. D. L. ZENY, Teacher.

BELLEFONTE ITEMS. By Dick. Masquerade parties are all the go here.

The second snow of the season on the 25th ult.

The Teachers' Institute is to be held here during the Holidays, commencing Dec. 29th, and to continue one week.

The holidays will soon be upon us and already everybody is flocking to the Book and Stationery stores for Christmas presents.

Thanksgiving was observed with more than usual interest here, especially at St. John's Episcopal Church. Services were conducted by the Rector, Rev. John Hewitt, who preached a very able and stirring sermon.

A literary society has been started here under the name of Pythian Social Club. May it have abundant success.

The Young Men's Christian Association holds regular meetings on Friday evenings and Sunday afternoons. These meetings are highly interesting and beneficial, and should be largely attended.

The lumbering business has improved rapidly last week, caused by the swelling of the river in consequence of the recent heavy rains. Friday evenings and Sunday afternoons are daily loaded with lumbermen returning to their homes in Clearfield county.
