

THE LOUISIANA RETURN BOARD.

The Jury to try Anderson.

NEW ORLEANS, January 29.—At quarter past eight p. m., the last juror in the Returning Board case was empaneled, when the jury was locked up for the night. Anderson was retained in the Parish Prison, and the court adjourned until tomorrow. The jury is composed of ten whites and two colored men. The colored men are young and comparatively intelligent mulattoes, who stated they had never taken any part in politics. A bill of exceptions was taken by the defense, and Judge Whistler excused a colored book-keeper from jury duty whom the defense would have excepted as a juror. There were also a number of bills of exceptions taken to the courts ruling in cases where jurors had stated they had opinions formed which would require considerable testimony to remove, but on being questioned by the Court, stated they could go on and try the case impartially, notwithstanding their previously formed opinions. In casual conversation the case will go to the Supreme Court on a large number of exceptions. When the State, during the empaneling of the jury, had exhausted its six peremptory challenges the defense had two left, having only used one. The State, of Sheriff Houston General Anderson, special Deputy Collector of Customs, visited the Custom House. He is treated courteously by his prison keepers.

SETTING KNIGHT OF HIM.

The Philadelphia Times, after trying very hard to get the last juror out of President Hayes, by holding up to him the fact that he had pledged he had made to the people in his letter of acceptance and inauguration, is getting tired of the thing. The Times is now about ready to abandon him as a hopeless case. Hayes stands pledged, plainly and unequivocally, to reform the civil service, which has become very much politicized. In the last eight years, but more especially during the second term of Gen. Grant's Administration. Men were appointed to office solely for party services with little regard to fitness and less to honesty, and our entire civil service is thoroughly saturated with corruption.

NEW ORLEANS, January 31.—So far as known there is nothing new in the attitude of affairs in Louisiana. There is a universal opinion that both Anderson and Wells, if the latter can be caught, and also the two negroes of the Returning Board and sent to the penitentiary. There is also a general feeling that in such an event Governor Nichols would pardon them. The absence of trustworthy news is rather surprising, and there are all manner of reports of a sensational character to take the place of news. It is still said that Wells is somewhere in this city, but Keellogg and all other Louisiana demagogues deny it. Governor Packard is expected here to-night and also McMillan, who is now Pension Agent and would like to be Collector.

ANDERSON'S TRIAL.

ALTERING THE RETURNS OF VERNON PARISH.—The Supervisor on the Stand. NEW ORLEANS, January 31.—In the Anderson trial to-day Mr. Franklin, Supervisor of Registration in Vernon parish, testified to many alterations in the consolidated returns of Vernon parish, which were made after they had been signed by him. He said the record had been changed in the Second and Ninth polls; also, the total amount of votes cast. The totals for electors have been changed as follows: The Democrats received 647 votes, the Republican total was two.

THE LATEST FROM NEW ORLEANS.

TRING ANDERSON.

The Louisiana Returning Board's irregularities were examined. NEW ORLEANS, February 1.—The Anderson trial was resumed today. Mr. McGeeven, recalled, testified to the manner in which Democratic counsel were impeded in their work by the action of the Returning Board fixing for a day the returns of one parish, and then without notice to counsel, calling up another. He gave a synopsis of the proceedings from the printed record. Anderson was present and took a hand in those proceedings, and did not protest against any irregularities and improprieties committed by the board. He related the Eliza Pinkston case and the manner in which the examination of that case was carried on. Four witnesses were allowed the Republicans, while the Democrats were only permitted to examine two. The returning board kept the Democratic counsel in absolute ignorance, and several of the rules of the board were made to embarrass counsel and prevent all their efforts. The canvass was made from the consolidated statement of supervisor, and the protests which should have been filed within ten days were, in some cases, only filed the day before the returns were taken up. Witnesses were present when the returns from Vernon parish were opened. He is not sure if General Anderson was present, but recollects that he was present shortly afterwards. The minutes of the record mentioned that General Anderson was present.

THE ANDERSON TRIAL.

All the Evidence to be in to-day and the Case to go to the Jury. NEW ORLEANS, February 2.—In the Anderson trial to-day Sheriff Houston testified to the arrest of Anderson in the Custom House on Saturday evening after the receipt of a telegram from the United States Attorney General. This closed the evidence for the State. The defense called Charles J. Abell, secretary of the Returning Board in 1874 and 1876.
