

Local Department.

Job work of all kinds done at the Journal Office at prices as cheap as the cheapest.

A splendid private residence with the good will of a medical practice for sale. For particulars apply at this office.

The Lewisburg banks have $288,000 on deposit, subject to check; but it must not be forgotten that not just anybody's check can draw it.

We are gratified to learn that Rev. J. G. Shoemaker's sale was well attended and that satisfactory prices were generally realized for his goods.

Two new and good plank sidewalks on Penn Street were constructed this week—Israel Confer's and Mrs. Maria A. Weaver's.

Hon. S. R. Potts, of Lock Haven, and Hon. C. T. Alexander, of Bellefonte, are among the ablest speakers in the state. By all means go and hear them next Friday evening.

We had the first snow of the season on Friday morning, and a blustering, frosty fellow it was. It was cold on Friday and Friday night, but on Saturday it was real pleasant again.

By all means read the address of Chairman Fortney, in our editorial columns, and then go to work for the success of the Democratic party in November.

Guess Elias Lose thought he had made about enough lay windows for others, for a while, and so he makes two at once for himself. It will beautify his fine home on Penn Street very much.

We are having more frequent rains now and at rather short intervals, though not enough yet to affect the streams. On Tuesday morning we had a fair-sized thunder gust.

Penn Hall Academy opened on Monday with a brand new principal, in the person of Wm. P. Hosterman, A. R., a graduate of Franklin & Marshall College. Rev. D. M. Wolf, the gentleman who for years so successfully taught the old Penn Hall school, takes charge of the first grade public school, in Grenoble's Hall, Spring Mills.

Last Saturday and Monday evening, Prof. J. H. Sharp, of Flemington, the well-known and celebrated Ventriquist and sleight-of-hand performer, gave splendid entertainments in the Town Hall. The house was pretty well filled and the Prof. managed to keep the audience in a jolly spirit during both performances. Hope he'll come again.

Mr. Jared B. Kreamer, of Spring Bank, one day last week husked 121 bushels of corn. He was at it from six in the morning till six in the evening, consuming about one hour for dinner. Of course Mr. Kreamer is a good, sound Democrat, for we never saw or heard that any Radical "son of a gunny" could do any such solid day's work as that.

The MILLHEIM MARBLE WORKS are turning out some very fine work this season. Monuments, Couches and Headstones of any possible design and price are made here, equal in workmanship and as low in price as can be had anywhere in the state. If you need something to mark the last resting place of a departed friend, you can do no better than by staying right at home and patronizing the Millheim Works.

We have thud it a rule not to publish obituary or marriage notices unless the correct data is furnished us by the officiating minister, or we can obtain the same with reasonable correctness. It must be gratifying to the feelings of surviving friends to read what are intended as obituaries, but wherein every fact is erroneously stated.

Ministers of the Gospel who take the Journal will oblige us by sending such notices seasonably.

A party of our sporting gentlemen started on Monday morning before daylight for the Seven Mountains to take a week's hunt for deer. As far as we could learn the party is composed of the following named persons: D. A. Musser, F. P. Musser, J. G. Musser, J. B. Musser and Ex-Sheriff Musser, of Millheim; J. C. Harper and A. Williams, of Bellefonte. We wish them abundant success.

A Musical Convention will be held in the Reformed church, at Millifburg, commencing on Tuesday evening, Nov. 25th, and closing Saturday evening, Nov. 30th. Concerts on Friday and Saturday evenings. Prof. W. F. Sherwin, Conductor; Miss Emma J. Haus, Pianist. All singers are most cordially invited to participate. Board will be furnished to persons from abroad at a very low rate, on application to the committee. Ladies, who are actual singers, will be entertained free of charge, if they inform the committee on or before Nov. 15th. The gratifying success of the convention held last March under Prof. Sherwin's direction, leads us to expect the best convention ever held in this part of the state. Music books will be furnished free.

Membership Tickets, Cents, $1.00 Ladies .50 L. W. ANSFACH, EXCHG. MILLER, Com. ALBERT FOSTER, J.

—Corn husking is pretty well over and the yield is an extraordinary good one in this section.

You can not find a more clever man to deal with, nor a better line of boots and shoes, nor cheaper prices anywhere than at Jacob Kamp's in Lock Haven. For example, he now sells the Elmira double sole and tap—Kip boot for only $2.50. He once of Mr. Kamp and you are almost sure to be a regular customer. Read his new advertisement in another column and when you go to Lock Haven don't fail to go there for your Boots & Shoes.

—Just read the big fall announcement of HARRIS' STANDARD STORE, Lewisburg. This is a first-class Millinery, Notion and Fancy Goods establishment and our readers who visit Lewisburg on business or pleasure should not fail to visit the STANDARD STORE. You will leave it much pleased, we feel sure, and more probably will have bought a bill of the best and cheapest goods in Central Pennsylvania.

—On Tuesday morning the following persons left this neighborhood for Kansas: Rev. J. G. Shoemaker and family, P. B. Stover and Ambrose Vonada, of Haines township; Uriah Spangler, Shem Spigelmeyer and Isaac Kinney and family, of Rebersburg. Of these Rev. Shoemaker and Mr. Kinney and their families, expect to stay, while the rest go to see. May their best hopes be realized.

CHURCH DEDICATION.—The new Evangelical church near Greenville, in Sugar Valley will be dedicated to the service of God, Nov. 16th, 1879. Service will begin in the morning at 10 o'clock. The following ministers are expected to be present: J. Boas, E. Stambach, W. H. Stover and — Landes. All are invited.

D. P. KLINE, Pastor.

WANTED. We need about 12 to 15 cords of good wood, about 20 bushels of choice apples and about 20 bushels of nice potatoes. Now we are willing to receive all these on subscription and are not particular who our subscribers will furnish them. If you have more wood, apples or potatoes than money and you owe us on subscription—one, two or more years,—bring them right along and don't wait to be supplied by others. Any of our subscribers who prefer to pay us in this way can do so until further notice.

—Mrs. Michael Ulrich had a very painful if not severe accident on Monday morning. She was engaged in making preparations to go to house-cleaning, and looking over some little packages done up in paper she concluded they were useless and threw them into the stove. One of these packages, unfortunately, was filled with powder and an explosion followed. All the doors of the room were burst open by the force of the explosion and Mrs. Ulrich's face and hand were very badly burned. She suffers much pain.

—Dr. Apple's lecture on Saturday evening came up fully to our highest expectations. The Doctor is very proficient in Astronomy, as far as we are able to judge. Coupled with this he is a very plain agreeable speaker and has much experience as a lecturer. His description of the moon, its composition, surface, mountains, &c., as well as its various phases and aspects, were all very interesting and instructive, illustrated as they were by exceedingly fine views on a screen. It was a treat such as small towns but rarely have the pleasure to enjoy, and we are very glad to add that the Reformed church at Aaronburg, in which the lecture was held, was well filled.

—Everybody should read the "Annals of Buffalo Valley" an intensely literary and historical work compiled by Hon. Jno. B. Linn, our ex-Secretary of State. The title itself, which it would seem to comprise the history alone of a particular part of Union County extends in its compass into Centre, Lycoming, Northumberland, Snyder and Mifflin Counties. It is particularly interesting to those who now live, who have lived and had ancestry in old Buffalo Valley. The work is a large compact volume of over 600 pages, neatly bound and printed in a becoming type on a smooth and well polished paper. The agent Mr. Frank Chamberlin is now in our valley soliciting for the book. We hope he will be well received as he is making great efforts, to sell a book that should be a bedside companion in every family.

What's the Matter?

The other Monday morning we were present at the opening of two of our schools; just to see how they would start up, and to give the teachers an encouraging word, if possible. North Street school, W. H. B. Eisenhuth, teacher, started with 15 male and 20 female pupils. This is at least a tolerable beginning, and so is that of the Primary, J. R. VanOrmer, teacher. Here there were 18 male and 20 female scholars. The attendance in this school might have been better too, yet it was pretty good. When we came to the Grammar School it mortified us to find only eight pupils—4 boys and 4 girls—present, although we heard that a few more were present in the afternoon. Why is it that our first grade school is so woefully neglected? Do our citizens, or at least many of them, care nothing at all whether their children grow up intelligently or in ignorance? It would really seem so, else why this slim attendance. We have at least four school houses, and good teachers, and yet many of our parents just allow their children to "bum" around where they please, without requiring them to attend school at all. This is a very deplorable state of things and it calls loudly for reform. A full remedy is of course out of the question until we have compulsory attendance, and such a wholesome law can not come a day too soon. In the meantime let teachers and parents work together, to abate the evil. Let us have good schools—good teachers, good attendance, good order and good progress.

AARONSBURG CRUMBS.

B. F. Edmonds and Jacob Stover are going to Snyder County to teach. They leave this week.

The Lutheran parsonage and Mr. Geo. Bollinger's house have both been treated to a new coat of paint, which greatly improves them. Wish about a dozen more houses in our town would soon be similarly treated.

Mr. Reigel who last Winter taught the Grammar School here, has been spending a few days with his Aaronburg friends. He expects to teach at Laurelton, this Winter.

Thomas Edmonds and wife were summoned by a telegram, to the home of their daughter, Mrs. Shafer, near Williamsport. The message did not state any reason, but the supposition is that Mrs. Shafer is seriously ill. M. M. Musser and B. F. Phillips are both receiving new goods every day. They are getting in their fall stock.

Several parties have been favored with invitations to the wedding of our former townsman, J. Durbin Holloway. It is to occur on the 6th of Nov. Eddie Jordan has come to spend the winter with Dr. Deshler's and attend school here.

If you meet a man with a raw "set" of whiskers, that is our friend T. J. Mingle. Tom looks well. Miss Lizzie Musser made a short trip to Bellefonte, last week in company with Miss Sarah B. Kline. The lecture by Dr. Apple, fully met the expectations of all, and a snug little sum was realized, which is to aid in the establishment of a Reformed mission in Emporia, Kansas.

Rev. Robinson, pastor of the Presbyterian congregation, preached his last sermon on Sunday evening. Many friends regret his departure.

Henry G. Shafer is much interested in public schools this winter. He visits the Pine Creek school very frequently and even goes to Woodward, on Saturday, to hold consultations with the teacher—relative to the good of the school—of course.

The pleasant faces of Mr. Aaron Weaver and wife for some days been missed from among us. They are away on a visit. X. Y.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.

Mr. D. Bottiger, our little saddler, has left us and gone to Union county to work at his trade. Wish him much success.

Mr. Martin Ringman, of Laurelton, will soon open a tin-shop here, Centreburg. It is just what we need. Let other mechanics come in too. Welcome to all.

J. D. Long's grain house is now ready. Farmers bring in your grain and get your cash.

Mr. Edward Twilmyer, of Zion, is here attending Prof. Wolf's school. Everybody is on tip-toe, expectation about the great union which will take place at Potter's Mills on Thursday. Will tell you more about it in my next. YONKY.

MARRIED.

On the 24th inst., at Centre Hall, by Rev. S. G. Shannon, Mr. John Keckle and Miss Barbara Albright, both of Potter's Mills.

On the 9th inst., at the Lutheran parsonage in Millroy, by Rev. S. G. Shannon, Mr. Wm. H. Working and Miss Rebecca J. Strong, both of Centre Hill.

On the 21st inst., at the Lutheran parsonage in Centre Hall, Mr. Henry K. Harshberger and Miss Lydia Confer, both of Potter twp.

On the 23d inst., at the residence of C. L. Gramley, Rebersburg, by Rev. Wm. M. Landis, Mr. Uriah Spangler, of Newton, Kansas, and Miss Henrietta O. Hesterman, of near Rebersburg.

On the 28th inst., by J. H. Belfnyder, Esq., Mr. Geo. M. Silvis, of Aaronburg, to Miss Emma A. Willow, of Millheim.

DIED.

On the 16th inst., at the residence of his son, John Roman, near State College, George Roman, aged 50 years, 4 months and 28 days.

On the 26th inst., in Penn township, Alice, daughter of Daniel E. Gentzel, aged 18 years, 3 months and 17 days.
