DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

For Governor, ROBERT E. PATTISON, OF PHILADELPHIA.

For Lieutenant Governor, CHAUNCEY F. BLACK, OF YORK.

For Judge of the Supreme Court, SILAS M. CLARK, OF INDIANA.

For Secretary of Internal Affairs, J. SIMPSON AFRICA, OF HUNTINGDON.

For Congressman-at-Large, MORTIMER F. ELLIOTT, OF TIoga.

The Democratic State Convention which met at Harrisburg on the 28th ultimo did its work most nobly.

The race for Governor was very close between Hopkins and Pattison—the former leading off up to the sixth ballot when fortunately Pattison was nominated.

The other candidates are most excellent and worthy men—every one of them. They have all given ample proof of their fitness for the several positions for which they are selected.

THE BALLOTS. FOR GOVERNOR. James H. Hopkins, 27, 87, 60, 68, 101 1/2, 119 1/2...

LEUTENANT GOVERNOR: Chauncey F. Black, 173 1/2; George H. Irvin, 79 1/2. SUPREME JUDGE: Silas M. Clark, 51...

After Mr. Snowden had withdrawn the name of Mr. Harvey, the convention proceeded to a second ballot. No definite result was expected, the del-gates sticking strongly to the lines shown on the first ballot, but after the roll was called changes were rapidly made to Clark, and one by one all the candidates except Clark were withdrawn.

SECRETARY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS: Mr. Ellis, of Schuylkill, arose, when order was restored, and nominated J. Simpson Africa, for secretary of internal affairs, and Wm. H. Sowden seconded it.

On motion of Mr. Brown, of Erie, Africa was nominated by acclamation.

CONGRESSMAN-AT-LARGE: Mortimer F. Elliott, 139 1/2; Wm. S. Stenger, 8; John W. Gilpin, 8; William Bristle, 21.

THE PLATFORM. Strong Protest Against Bossism and the Spoils System.

The Democratic party of Pennsylvania, holding fast to the faith that all power is derived by the consent of the States and the people, upholding the sanctity of personal liberty, the security of property and the right of local self-government...

THE EXECUTION. The Assassin's Last Words. When Giteau came out into the rotunda from his cell, he looked calm and composed but very pale.

SKETCH OF THE CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR. How Robert Emory Pattison in a Few Years Has Risen to Fame.

Only four and a half years have elapsed since the man who was nominated yesterday to govern more than four millions of people, and who was then only twenty-seven years of age, left a small town in the western part of the State of Pennsylvania, having been elected by a majority of 1,562 votes over James W. Sayre.

Mr. Pattison will be thirty-two years of age until the 8th of next December, having been born in 1850, at Quakertown, near Snow Hill, in Somerset county, Maryland. His father, the Rev. Robert H. Pattison, who died seven years ago, was a popular Methodist minister, who graduated from Dickinson College in the same class with the Rev. O. H. Tiffany, now pastor of the Arch Street M. E. Church.

Mr. Pattison began general the duties of Controller on January 1, 1878. The ability and fidelity that proved too much for the considerate jobbers at the end of his first term are well known to everybody, and the following figures of the election of November, 1880, show how they were rewarded at a time when the count of one hundred was only building and could not give him anything like the support which, three months later, elected King and Hunter.

Pen Pictures of the Candidates. The democratic ticket is composed of men who will stand photographing, and make excellent pictures. Three are brunettes of the most pronounced type with black eyes and hair—Pattison, Africa and Elliott. Clark is smooth shaven and light complexioned, while Black is a demiblonde, with a sparkling of grey hair peeping out above his ears. None of the candidates have a "bar." They are what may be called men in comfortable circumstances. Clark is worth about $50,000, enjoys a good law practice, and Western Pennsylvania swears by him. Pattison has saved the big end of his four years salary as controller, and has a windfall of $30,000, and, for a young man who has been blessed by fortuitous occurrences is able to live easily without indulging in extravagances. Chauncey Black gains a livelihood by that rather precarious instrument, the pen, and lacks money.
