

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Most everybody says there is another snow coming.

Dr. Stam has constructed a good board walk along his entire front.

The watchman calls our enterprising townsman H. H. Tomlinson the John Wannamaker of Millheim.

Mr. R. O. Deihl, of Howard, was here on Saturday to visit friends and acquaintances. Bob looked tip top.

Quite a number of our citizens who attended court last week received their "favorable mention" in the Bellefonte papers.

Trouth fishing has not thus far panned out very well this season, but whether the trout, the anglers or the weather is to blame is an open question.

Mr. E. Bartholomew bought a building lot on Penn street from D. A. Musser, on which he intends to build a house. Who is the next man to do the same?

Mr. D. H. Lenker has quit his branch furniture shop at Millheim, but will be happy to serve all old as well as new customers at his regular place of business, Aaronsburg.

Wolfe & Hosterman, the enterprising merchants at Woodward, have just received a large stock of all kinds of spring and summer goods and are selling as low as the lowest.

The editors are hard up for local news. People are all busy and nothing stirring transpires—and yet this state of things is preferable even to one that requires the writing up of accidents.

The weather varied nearly all of last week between cold, rain and some attempts at snowing and occasionally a little sunshine. Farmers are much detained in their work in consequence.

Mr. P. B. Stover, of Pleasant Valley, Lincoln county, Kansas, writes us under date of April 28th that they had plenty of spring rains out there and that wheat and other vegetation appear very promising.

Both of our landlords are repairing, papering and painting their hotels in first class style.

Mr. Musser is putting up four street lamps at his hotel—a very necessary improvement.

VALUABLE HOME AT PUBLIC SALE.—The subscriber will sell at public sale next Saturday the 5th inst., at 2 o'clock, P. M., that valuable property in Millheim known as the George Harter homestead.

Only three applications for license out of a total of forty-four were rejected by our judges last week. Centre county now has forty-one licensed hotels and saloons and one wholesale liquor store, at Philadelphia.

ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday Mr. Samuel Weiser, Jr., while working at Judge Whitmer's steam saw mill, near Paddy's tunnel, had the misfortune to have two fingers of his left hand severely lacerated by a circular saw.

At Stam's store you will find as good a line of dry goods, groceries, boots & shoes, notions and general merchandise as anywhere in this section and the prices are as low as the lowest. Go there yourself and see that these facts are facts.

Hon. S. Woods Caldwell, proprietor of the Irwin House at Lock Haven, has made a big improvement in his hotel. The house has been repainted, papered, renovated and refurnished, and is acknowledged to be one of the best arranged hotels in the state.

Bellefonte has just organized a new building and Loan Association. The number of shares will be limited to 100 and no individual can hold more than 20. George L. Potter is the temporary president and Recorder Frank E. Bible secretary.

Squire Camp at Centre Hall is busy as ever making and selling all kinds of furniture. Parlor Suits, Chamber Suits, Lounges, Chairs, Tables, &c. &c. all of best style and make and at the lowest prices.

R. A. Bumiller and Harvey Coufer have each painted their residences on Penn street, and both appear "just splendid." The new street is fast becoming a beautiful thoroughfare and after a few more good buildings and another church are built we will make a motion to call it Pennsylvania Avenue.

J. A. Lambert is really one of the most accommodating and reliable fellows that ever drove a stage. Throughout the year he carries a very large amount of express goods all along the route, and delivers them in person. Everything is always right and his charges are really moderate. You can safely entrust our business to him.

The Sick.—Our old friend Sebastian Musser had an attack of palsy last week and is in a precarious condition since. Wm. Reifsnnyder, Sr., who suffers from a cancerous affection in the face has not improved since our last mention, and Wm. Miller is still confined to the house, although it is thought he is getting better slowly.

The Buffalo Run R. R. is being pushed rapidly and it is thought that track laying can begin early in August. But how about the extension of the Lewisburg & Tyrone road? Who can tell anything about that?

The three burglars who made a raid on Ebbas Bro's store in Howard, last winter, all plead guilty at court last week and were sentenced to the penitentiary as follows: Chambers and Stine seven years each, Shoemaker four years.

CORNER STONE LAYING.—On Sunday the 6th of May next, at 3 o'clock, P. M., the corner stone of the new Evangelical Church, now in course of erection at Coburn Station, will be laid with appropriate services. Preaching by Rev. B. Hengst. The public is cordially invited to attend.

It is reported that a young man named Albert Sutor, of Clinton county, has constructed a perpetual motion machine. Such concerns may do well enough where they are new, but we have had them here some twenty years ago, all complete and ready to run—the only fault was they didn't run. Perhaps the Clinton county boy may overcome this difficulty.

Mrs. Jonathan Harter and Miss Elizabeth Reighard, of Millheim, and Rev. J. Tomlinson and Miss Jennie E. Bright, of Aaronsburg, left for Lock Haven Tuesday morning as delegates to the Lutheran Synodical Sunday School Convention, which meets there this week. Miss Bright is also a delegate to the Synodical Women's Missionary Society which also meets at Lock Haven the same time.

We notice with unfeigned pleasure in the Patriot of Monday that Maj. R. H. Forster has been appointed to a prominent clerkship by Secretary Africa of the Department of Internal Affairs. The Secretary has made a most excellent choice in the person of Maj. Forster, and the Major's many friends throughout this section of the state will fully appreciate the compliment so fittingly bestowed. As a clerk he has rare qualifications and a large experience. No better selection could have been made and certainly none more worthy and popular.

Last fall and this spring several homes in town were painted with the celebrated Rubber Paint and the appearance of those buildings will at once prove the superiority of the article. It has a thick and heavy body, covering a board completely with one coat and producing a splendid gloss with the second coat. We have used it and can give it a good recommendation. If you are in need of paint call on Musser & Smith, Hardware Store, Millheim, who are sole agents for the Rubber Paint.

SINGERS AND CHOIRS.—AWAKE!—The Grand Musical Jubilee to be held at Selingsgrove, June 12th to 15th, is already an assured success. Flattering reports are being received daily from different parts of the state, of singers that will be in attendance. The music is now ready for distribution and will be furnished free to all singers. Organize societies at once, send for copies of "Jubilee Book" and go to work.

A society will be organized at Aaronsburg, for the purpose of practicing and rehearsing the music for the great musical feast. The first meeting will be held Saturday evening, May 5th next in the Reformed church. Wm. T. Meyer, who will have entire charge of the exercises, desires all singers residing in Aaronsburg, Millheim, Penn Hall, Spring Mills, Rebersburg and other convenient localities where they do not expect to organize local classes, to attend the first as well as all succeeding meetings, once a week. Singers, join the class, and in this way help to carry forward to a successful consummation one of the grandest musical jubilees ever held in the state of Pennsylvania.

STATE CONSTITUTIONAL TEMPERANCE AMENDMENT ASSOCIATION.—The annual meeting of the State Constitutional Temperance Amendment Association is appointed to take place at Bellefonte, Centre county, Wednesday, May 23rd, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and will continue in session until the business is disposed of. By the terms of the Constitution the annual meeting shall be composed of the executive committee, shareholders of State stock, two delegates from each county and local auxiliary, two delegates from each State and local organization in sympathy with the Constitutional Amendment, and two delegates from each christian congregation in the State.

The Executive Committee are requested to meet at the same place on Tuesday, 22d, at 7 o'clock, P. M., by the order of the chairman.

County Auxiliaries are expected to make a report of the work in their respective districts, and if from any cause any of them should fail to be represented to forward their reports to the Secretary, care of D. S. Keller, Esq., Bellefonte.

The Christian ladies of Bellefonte have kindly invited us to their hospitalities, and suggest that delegates be distinguished by a white ribbon, so as to be recognized by the committee of entertainment on their arrival.

DANIEL AGNEW, President. JAMES PARKS, Jr., Chair. Exec. Com. E. E. SWIFT, Treasurer. D. L. STARR, Secretary.

Letter from Williamsport.

Messrs. Editors: Have you a place in your valuable paper for a letter from Williamsport? Of course you have.

Williamsport is indeed a very beautiful and flourishing town—a young city in fact—with a wide-awake, pushing and enterprising people. Although much building was done last year and much is in progress this year, the call for dwelling houses continues unabated so that three hundred more new houses could easily be filled. The demand is far in excess of the supply.

Fires are now the order of the day, but thanks to our vigilant and efficient force of fire men no great losses have lately occurred, with the exception of the one on the night of the 14th ult., when a barn was burned to the ground. Four valuable horses, a wagon with an organ on it—all the property of Mr. S. Q. Mingle, were burned along with other property. Mr. Mingle's loss is about $1,700.

Our city promises to be all life this summer. First the State Teachers' Association will meet here July 10th, and remain in session three days. In August the encampment of the Third Brigade will take place and is to last a week. A great many people are expected on both occasions and our people look forward to these gatherings with much interest and pleasure.

The sad accident that occurred here the other Thursday evening cast a gloom over the whole community. During the severe thunder storm that swept over the valley on that evening a party of nineteen men and boys started to cross the river in two boats. The boats broke upon them with such force as to upset the boats and four boys were drowned—and sad and singular to say, all widows' sons. The bodies were all recovered. Their names are Foreman Hartman, aged 21, Truman Rheads, aged 20, Grant Moore, aged 17, and Fay Wilt, aged 15. They were all highly esteemed and their tragic death is mourned by the entire community.

NOTE.—Shall be happy to hear from you again, friend Claude. Your letter is well written, but you must pardon some few changes in style and arrangement. You know editors are stubborn fellows and will have their own way about such little things. But go on—you deserve encouragement.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS. Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is sold by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS. Mr. W. F. Confer is the new counter hopper at Grenoble's. Mr. G. was fortunate in his selection.

Pealer & Long, the new mercantile firm are now ready for customers, having just returned from the east with a very extensive stock of merchandise. Advertise, gentlemen, and increase your business largely.

The new saw mill firm, Grenoble & Krape, are now prepared to do all kinds of work in their line. The last addition in machinery is a resaw, Mr. Phillips, the foreman thoroughly understands his work. A little printer's ink would help your business, gentlemen.

J. F. Reaick's new house is up and makes a good appearance.

Spring Mills now has four general stores, hardware store, two tin shops, two hotels, two smith shops, shoe shop, planning mill, jewelry store, cooper shop, four grain dealers, three saw mills, large public school building with three rooms, an excellent academy and two churches—yet there is plenty of room for other and more improvements: SAM PATCH.

Miscellaneous.

The Senate has passed a bill providing the change of text books in public schools oftener than once in five years. It now goes to the House and will probably pass. This is a measure that every parent will heartily sanction.

The following general order was issued from the post office department at Washington recently: "All letters upon which one full rate of postage has been prepaid and all postal cards shall be forwarded from the office at the request of the addressee, or of the party whose card may be upon the envelope, or whose name may be signed to the postal card, without additional charge of postage. Such forwarding must be continued until the party addressed is reached."

Suicide or Accident. YORK, April 23.—Robert E. Shutter, a young moulder, aged 30, was obliged to stop work this morning on account of feeling unwell. On his way home he stopped at Gooding's hotel and took a drink. As the bar-keeper was making change Shutter noticed a revolver in the money drawer and asked to look at it. In handling it was discharged, the ball entering Shutter's heart, killing him almost instantly. The Coroner's jury could not decide whether it was suicide or accident.

Counting the Chickens too Early. From the Chattanooga (Tenn.) Democrat. The metropolitan Republican journals of the North are predicting disunion in the Democratic ranks in 1884 and consequent defeat, and patronizingly point out the rocks upon which we will founder. Such generosity is unparalleled, but it is love's labor lost. The Republicans had better look well to their own ammunition, and give wise heed to their own stragglers. When the Democrats open in 1884 the campaign will have been well matured.

A Big Fish Catches a Little Boy. From the Gastonia Gazette. A little boy at Lineberger's factory, on the South Fork, went fishing one day last week. His mother soon heard him calling for help. She ran down to the river and found that the boy had hooked a fish so large that it had pulled him into the river. Determined to save the fish, the youngster, who is an expert swimmer, had thrust his hand and arm into the fish's mouth and out at the gill. His mother drew both to the bank in safety. The fish was an immense trout, weighing eight pounds. That boy is a credit to North Carolina.

Gold in the Lebanon Valley. LEBANON, April 24.—The indication of the discovery of gold in paying quantities near Meyerstown, this county, have raised considerable hope here. The Clark mining company after careful tests of ore have determined to erect a smelting furnace with capacity for twelve tons. The company consists of Dr. M. C. Kreitz, H. C. Kreitz and A. Rex, of Philadelphia, and William Kreitzer, of Bloomington, Illinois. They are all practical men, active and enterprising. Recent analysis shows five per cent. of gold and other valuable metals in considerable quantities. The mine has reached a depth of thirty feet and the prospects grow brighter as the work progresses.

Sounds Like Old Times. A seedy-looking fellow dropped into the city editor's room, and failing to borrow a half dollar, he begged to narrate his experience. "I used to be an officer of the State, I did. I was sheriff, and member of the Legislature, and constable, and clerk of the courts, and judge and a candidate time and again, and had a high old frolic, I did." "I don't believe it," said the city editor. "Why don't you?" "Because I have a letter here which says you are a thief, and a liar, and a traducer, and a defaulter, and a low down brawler, and a lover of all that is vile and wicked, and dishonest, and abhorrent to decent people, and a—" "Ah, ah! stranger, go on and read that all over again, and read it loud. It sounds like old times. It brings back the days when I ran for office. It reads like an editorial in an opposition paper, and brings again to my memory that blessed period when I felt like somebody and life was worth living for. Oh glorious hours of the past, will ye ever come back to me?" and the tears rolled down his cheeks as the city editor repeated the magic words, and then gave him a quarter to sober up.—Louisville Courier-Journal.
